

Ronald Reagan Presidential Library

2010 Summer Educator Workshops

New
Document of the Month
July 26-July 28
8:30 am - 4:30 pm

Delve into original primary source documents at the Reagan Library.
Work with Reagan Library educators to create a published guide for teachers.

Examples of previously produced materials are available online at:
<http://www.reagan.utexas.edu/education/>

2 credit units available through CLU $80/credit for credit option.

Picturing the Presidency & The Great Communicator Files
July 29
8:30 am - 4:30 pm

Receive free classroom-ready primary source based thematic units on President Reagan and the Cold War.
Engage in discussions and prepare for the upcoming school year.

1 credit unit available through CLU $80/credit option including seven hours of additional coursework.

Sign up for one or two of the summer workshops above by emailing reaganeducation@nara.gov
Participation open for both the credit and non-credit option based on availability.

CLU continuing education credit is available for an $80/credit fee to CLU. A CLU representative will be onsite at the Reagan Library July 26 and July 29 to assist participating educators interested in signing up for the credit option.

Ronald Reagan Presidential Library • 40 Presidential Drive • Simi Valley, CA 93065
(800) 410-8354 • www.reagan.utexas.edu/education/

