MEMORANDUM

"SAUDI ARABIA: PRINCE

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

BANDAR - CABLES"

December 30, 1982

ACTION

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

SIGNED

FROM: WILLIAM P. CLARK

SUBJECT: Thank You Note to Prince Bandar

Issue

Whether to sign the thank you note at Tab A to Prince Bandar bin Sultan of Saudi Arabia.

Facts

Prince Bandar bin Sultan sent you a "Merry Christmas" note (Tab B) along with a small desk plaque which said, "It Can Be Done." At Tab A is a proposed note from you, thanking him for his gesture.

Discussion

Prince Bandar has been a primary, albeit informal, interlocutor of King Fahd's position on Middle East issues. He is a strong supporter of your peace initiative. His season's greetings and the memento reflect both his support of and desire concerning the peace process.

Recommendation

OK No

____ That you sign the proposed response at Tab A.

THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

February 9, 1984

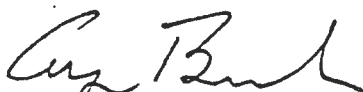

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

At 4:00 p.m. today, Prince Bandar Sultan, Ambassador from Saudia Arabia, came to see me saying that he had instructions to deliver a message to the President or me from the King.

He presented me the eight point plan attached hereto. He told me that Rumsfeld had been given this plan and that Rumsfeld was to get the reaction from the U.S. Government and be back to Gemayel by 1:00 a.m. Lebanon time.

Gemayel has reviewed the plan and "told us that he supports the plan and that I have talked to Rumsfeld about it". If the U.S. does not oppose the plan, Gemayel will sign it and send it to the Saudis who in turn will take it to Syria. If Syria refuses to go along with the plan, "we would break up the Syrians". He further stated that if Syria does not go along with the plan, no one in the area will support them. They are in a very tight squeeze. Bandar asked that we advise him as to our reaction.

I asked him why he felt Syria, riding high, would be willing to enter into such an agreement. He replied, "that Syria is in a very tight economic bind. You do not fully realize the squeeze they are in."

To the Geneva Conference Number Two to agree on the following methods:

1. Implementing the security agreement.
 2. Cancelling the May 17 agreement.
 3. Security arrangements in the south that guarantee the withdrawal of Israel.
 4. Agreements on internal reforms.
 5. Agreement with Syria to withdraw its forces from Lebanon.
 6. The adoption of the ^{PRINCIPLE} proposal of simultaneous withdrawals, with the withdrawal of all non-Lebanon forces in a period of time not to exceed three months after reaching the framework for the security arrangements with Israel. The exception to these withdrawals are forces belonging to the United Nations.
 7. Considering this agreement a total agreement with all its elements as a package deal and that Syria would commit to implementing the part that concerns her and to help in implementing the other parts and that Saudi Arabia will work from its side to assist in that also.
 8. Formation of nation leaders government to implement the above.
