MEMORANDUM FOR WILLIAM HENKEL

SUBJECT: Participation in President's Meetings with Chinese Leaders and Attendance at Major Events in China

In accordance with your request to David Laux, here is the joint NSC/State recommendation on who should participate in the President's meetings with Chinese leaders, for the proper accomplishment of our foreign policy objectives. In general, with the exception of the small meeting with Deng Xiaoping and possibly some restrictions on the meeting with Hu Yaobang, we believe we can be reasonably generous, because the Chinese tend to bring large numbers of their own to these meetings and, for the most part, large attendance does not materially affect what they have to say.

TALKING POINTS FOR USE WITH MINISTER FU

- I want to thank you for the extraordinary efforts your government has made to accommodate all our requests in connection with my trip to China. I know that we ask for a lot in the way of logistical support--when we bring our own limousine, our own helicopter, and a large press corps and many people to handle logistical and other matters on Presidential trips. But I understand that your government in Beijing and your Embassy here has given my Advance Office and State Department every consideration and that both sides have displayed remarkable cooperation in working out all the arrangements. Thank you again for all your consideration.

- Nancy and I are looking forward to our visit in China with great anticipation. We have been reading a lot of material and talking with many "experts" on China to help us prepare for the trip, and now we are anxious to meet the Chinese people and see your sights first-hand.

- I am especially looking forward to my meetings with your leaders. Our discussions will be meaningful and should demonstrate the importance which both sides attach to the continued development of relations between our two countries. Please convey to them my personal thanks for everything you have done to make this trip successful and tell them how much I look forward to seeing them soon.
