Dear Mr. Tennant:

Thank you for writing to President Reagan. Although we appreciate your interest in having the President's future library located in Dixon, Illinois, that is unlikely. In order to accommodate the large number of scholars who will be interested in studying the papers of the President's two Administrations, we anticipate that his library will be established at a large university in California. An announcement of the specific location is expected in the near future.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Anne Higgins

Dear "Dutch": -

Greetings and best wishes for your speedy recovery, from your "Home Town" of good old Dixon, IL.

The Purpose of this letter is this: - Many Presidents upon leaving office have established a "Presidential Library" housing the historical documents and artifacts of their administration.

A group of us have been wondering if you have any plans for such a project and if so, we think it would be a very nice and appropriate thing if you would establish it in your Home Town of Dixon.

Would like your comments on this if you will. Thank you

Denton Tennant

Dear Mr. President:

Your gracious letter thanking me for my work on The Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation is much appreciated.

In respect to your desire to see Mary Jane Wick become a member of the Board of Trustees, I am pleased to inform you that the Trustees are meeting in Washington, D.C. on January 8 and I will put her name before them for their approval. Needless to say, I anticipate no difficulties on this matter. The only other legal requirement is the approval of President Reagan and I believe I already have that in your letter!

Rita joins me in sending warm good wishes to you and Nancy for the New Year.

Sincerely yours,

Glenn Campbell

RE: Donations to Reagan Library

The attached letter requests information about contributing to the Reagan Library.

I understand that there is a "Reagan Foundation" being run out of Mike Deaver's offices. Would it be appropriate for us to (a) 'send these letters directly to the Reagan Foundation or (b) to give the name and address of the foundation over Anne Higgins' name?

Thank you for your assistance.

President Ronald Reagan
The White House

Dear Mr. President:

Following the memorable and delightful dinner and hospitality which you and Mrs. Reagan offered us at the White House last month, I have been in touch with Malcolm Forbes and Mike Deaver.

I thought that you would like to know that Philip Morris Companies will contribute $250,000 to the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation.

In supporting the study of the Presidency and Public Affairs, Philip Morris is gratified to be able to do something in recognition and honor of your distinguished terms in office. Among your many accomplishments, the sense of confidence in our country, its people and its institutions that you have fostered has been very good for American business.

Yours sincerely,

Hamish Maxwell
