MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEAVER

FROM: WILLIAM P. CLARK

SUBJECT: President's "Give-and-Take" Sessions and Bilateral Meetings for Williamsburg Summit

At the meeting of the Summit White House Group on Friday, March 11, 1983, we agreed that we would set aside on the President's schedule one-half hour each Friday from now to the Summit for informal, give-and-take sessions on Summit issues. We also agreed that we would schedule a number of the pre-Summit bilaterals with foreign heads of government already in April so as to draw early attention to the President's involvement in Summit preparations and avoid crowding his time the week before the Summit.

I propose the following schedule for the Friday afternoon give-and-take sessions with the President. These sessions should include the principal briefer plus Wallis, Sprinkel, Nau, you and me:

- March 25 (11:30) - Economic Policies and Prospects of other Summit countries (Regan and Shultz)
- April 1 (11:00) - Discipline on Domestic Economic Policies of Key Currency Countries (Regan)
- April 8 (2:00) - Exchange Rate Policies (Regan)
- April 15 (1:00) - Trade (Brock)
- April 22 (2:00) - Debt and Finance (Regan and Shultz)
- April 26 (Tuesday) (2:00) - Economic Institutions (Regan and Shultz)
- April 29 (11:00) - East-West Issues (Shultz)

The one session has been proposed for a Tuesday (April 26), since the principal cabinet officers are all traveling during the subsequent week of May 3.

I propose the following schedule for bilateral meetings with foreign heads of government or state:

Week of April 11 (April 14) - Meeting/Working Lunch with Prime Minister Trudeau (requested by Canada)
Week of April 25 (4/25) - Meeting/Working Lunch with Chancellor Kohl (recommended by State)
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Meeting Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Week of May 9 (5/13)</td>

<tr>

Trudeau can come early, since it is a short trip for him. Kohl will come in his dual capacity as President of the EC and as German Chancellor. Thorn and Fanfani may not be able to come as early as we indicated, in which case it may be necessary to reschedule these meetings during the week before the Summit. There is some flexibility in switching the participants among the time slots, but it seems a good idea to finish with Prime Minister Thatcher so that the President will go into Williamsburg the next day from a successful meeting.

We need approval for the proposed schedule of the bilateral meetings before the Sherpas leave for San Diego on Tuesday, March 15. Perhaps we can discuss this briefly after our meeting with the President on the Summit, Monday afternoon, May 14. The earlier we can indicate to the other countries what our thinking is the easier they may be able to arrange travel plans for their heads to accommodate a schedule which is most advantageous to the President.

Dear Senator Riegle:

I am responding to your letter of May 27 to President Reagan regarding Japanese trade practices.

I want to assure you that we have taken every opportunity to pursue free access for U.S. goods, services and investment in Japan and to ensure a trade composition and volume fully reflecting U.S. competitiveness. Over the past two years, we have conducted an intensive trade dialogue with Japan. There have been tangible improvements—a number of tariff reductions and changes in standards procedures. Nonetheless, barriers remain. We continue to urge the Japanese to adopt additional measures to further open their markets to American exports. Regarding the yen-dollar exchange rate, we have determined that the weakness of the Japanese yen is due not to government manipulation, but rather is the result of market forces.

At the Williamsburg Summit, there was general agreement by all participants on the need to halt protectionism to dismantle trade barriers. These are commitments which all Summit participants, including Japan, will pursue together.

The next opportunity for extensive bilateral discussions with the Japanese will be in July, when a series of meetings is scheduled on a wide range of issues, e.g., energy cooperation, high technology, industrial policy, trade, etc. We will be seeking solutions to the problems you raise, most notably improved access to the Japanese market for American products.

Sincerely,

Powell A. Moore
Assistant Secretary for Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

Dear Senator Riegle:

The President has asked me to thank you for your letter, dated May 27, in reference to the economic summit at Williamsburg.

We appreciate having your thoughts and recommendations regarding the important issues of currency imbalances and trade restrictions by Japan. Although we did not receive your letter in time for consideration prior to the Summit, your comments have been brought to the attention of the appropriate advisers for a thorough review. I assure you that the concerns you have raised will continue to receive careful evaluation.

Dear Mr. President:

The upcoming economic summit at Williamsburg provides you with an excellent opportunity to address some of the international economic issues that are so crucial to our national economic security.

We are facing an economic crisis in this country, particularly in the manufacturing industries. Already hit by a devastating combination of high interest rates, lingering recession and an unprecedented invasion of foreign goods, the road to recovery is now blocked by currency imbalances and unfair trade practices. I urge you to take complete advantage of the summit to make it clear that we can no longer tolerate the current situation.

I am particularly glad that you are meeting separately with Prime Minister Nakasone of Japan. For nowhere is this crisis more evident than in the American auto industry.

The share of the American car market controlled by imports has doubled in the last five years from 14% to 28%. Japan's share has risen from 12% to 23%. The voluntary export restraints of Japan will expire in less than a year. Long term forecasts are that Japan could take 40% of the American auto market by the end of the decade.

Yet while Japan uses the advantages of our market, we are still not allowed to take full advantage of theirs. Many of our agricultural goods are restricted in Japan. Inspection requirements, commodity taxes and dealer restrictions keep our cars out. I welcome Japan's recent efforts to begin easing some trade restrictions. But such token actions are not enough.

While it exploits certain markets in our country, Japan uses subsidies, trade barriers and joint ventures to strengthen targetted domestic industries. According to a report by the Department of Commerce, the use of subsidies and trade barriers was essential to the development of the Japanese automobile industry.

The weakness of the Japanese yen allows the Japanese car makers to sell their cars for $500-600 less in this country than in their own. The current rate is over 235 yen to a dollar. This situation is further exacerbated by the wide disparity in defense spending between our two countries.

These problems are not confined to one industry or one nation. Other nations promote the growth of their industries at the expense of ours. The problem of unfair trade practices -- whether in the form of non-tariff barriers, subsidies to domestic industries or currency imbalances -- must be squarely addressed at Williamsburg.
I am hoping that as the host -- both at Williamsburg and with Nakasone at the White House -- you see to it that some real progress is made.

I look forward to hearing of your success.

Sincerely,

1. As posts may be aware, the President has assigned Ambassador James M. Rentschler as Public Diplomacy Coordinator for the Williamsburg Economic Summit May 28-30. Ambassador Rentschler works closely with the President's personal representatives for Summit preparations, together with all key agencies and departments whose activity is relevant to Williamsburg matters.

2. As part of his mission, Ambassador Rentschler will lead a three-man team to European Summit capitals during the period May 8-12 in line with the tentative schedule indicated in paragraph 3 below. The primary objectives of this mission will be:
   a) to discuss with country teams the exceptional importance which the President attaches to public diplomacy aspects of the Summit; b) to review where Summit preparations stand from a public affairs point of view; c) to ensure that country team plans for reaching overseas audiences are in tune with the comprehensive public diplomacy framework developed for Williamsburg; and d) to elicit post's views on likely problem areas or special opportunities which might affect public affairs activity in the final days preceding the Summit, as well as during the period immediately following the Summit's conclusion.

3. Ambassador Rentschler will be accompanied by senior USIA officer Jack Shellenberger and FSO David Sloan; their schedule, a more detailed breakdown of which will follow by septel, now looks like this:

-- Sunday, May 8: arrival London via Pan Am 106, ETA 9:05 a.m.

-- Monday, May 9: a.m. meeting with senior members of Embassy London country team, departure for Paris Monday afternoon;

-- Tuesday, May 10: a.m. meeting with Embassy Paris country team, plus contacts with USDEL UNESCO and USOECD as missions may judge useful.

-- Wednesday, May 11: Depart Paris for Brussels, late a.m. meeting with USEC, Embassy Brussels, and USNATO elements; departure for Bonn, mid-afternoon meeting with Embassy Bonn country team; late afternoon departure for Rome (NB. recognizing tightness of schedule, in-theatre military transport is anticipated for the May 11 portion of Ambassador Rentschler's mission.)
--- Thursday, May 12: a.m. meeting with Embassy Rome country team, departure for Washington aboard TWA 841
ETD 12:25 p.m.
Team will appreciate reservations in accommodations posts judge appropriate.

4. FOR OTTAWA. Ambassador Rentschler and members of his inter-agency team met with Ambassador Robinson on the margins of Prime Minister Trudeau's April 28 bilateral with the President and agreed on outlines for effective follow-up activity Embassy can pursue in the public affairs field between now and Williamsburg, much of it keyed to the positive bilateral atmosphere which characterized the April 28 meeting.

5. FOR TOKYO. We regret that factors of time and distance will not permit Ambassador Rentschler's team to include Tokyo in the present itinerary. Embassy's role in the public diplomacy aspects of Williamsburg will be the subject of separate communications.

6. Posts will shortly receive current Williamsburg public affairs framework paper.

SUBJECT: Post Williamsburg Letters to Heads of State

We would appreciate receiving from you by COB Friday, June 3, draft letters from the President to other Heads of State and Gaston Thorn conveying the President's thanks and appreciation for their participation in the Williamsburg Summit. The letters should be personal. They should note the President's satisfaction with the meeting and highlight his gratitude for the show of unity on security and economic matters. In addition, you should consider including some of the following personal themes:

Prime Minister Nakasone: Stress his vision and concern for the future of mankind. Viewed as a "man of peace."

President Mitterrand: Appreciate his constructive and cooperative attitude at the meeting and the attention he drew to the critical issue of the world monetary system.

Prime Minister Thatcher: Appreciate her taking time out of her busy campaign schedule. Support on INF critical. Convey condolences for her having to host next meeting, which we hope will continue to strive for small and informal settings.

Prime Minister Fanfani: Appreciate his strong support and active participation.

President Kohl: Exhibited strength and leadership. Contributed greatly to the positive tone and momentum of the proceeding which benefited all parties.

Prime Minister Trudeau: Appreciate his forthright positions on energy and problems of developing countries, both of which are reflected in final communique. Shared his preference for an informal structure and hope this trend will continue.

President Thorn: Thank him for positive contribution. Hope he will take lead in informing other EC countries of conclusions and work program for the future. Benefit of EC perspective was very constructive to the discussions.
