MEMORANDUM FOR DONALD T. REGAN

FROM: ALFRED H. KINGON AK

SUBJECT: Domestic Issues for Summit Trip

As discussed, there follows several domestic "events" which should be ripe for Presidential action during the Summit. None of these requires "heavy lifting" which I know is difficult when you are traveling abroad. There are seven items, which should show some domestic Presidential activity for seven of the thirteen travel days.

1. After consultation with Secretary of Labor Bill Brock, establish an Emergency Board to investigate the labor dispute between the Maine Central Railroad and its employees in accordance with Section 10 of the Railway Labor Act. An Executive Order creating the Board is in David Chew's office.
2. Sign the World Trade Week Proclamation. Although World Trade Week is not until May 19, the President could sign the proclamation early; not much news value, but would demonstrate that the President is continuing day-to-day business.
3. Issue a statement on Fair Housing Month. We would need to move quickly because April is Fair Housing Month.
4. Direct Secretary Herrington to establish a group to determine if we should go forward with plans to select a second nuclear waste repository by the end of the century. We are currently required by law to do this, but conditions in the nuclear power industry have resulted in estimated reduction of waste products on the order of 30-40%. (Tentative meeting with Secretary Herrington this afternoon on this issue.)
5. Issue a statement when the remains of the Challenger astronauts are returned next week -- to Dover Air Force Base.

6. Announce support for legislation which would revise the personnel system so that employee compensation would be based more on performance. Although no decision memo has been forwarded, the DPC's consensus recommendation is to support such legislation. The timing on this issue would be good because the week of May 5 is Public Service Recognition Week.
7. Announce that we oppose an amendment to the Defense Authorization Bill which would transfer security screening of civilian DOD employees from OPM to DOD. We will, however, review the issue through a special working group and may ultimately support the transfer. The President has a decision memo on his desk on this issue.

MEMORANDUM FOR DONALD R. FORTIER
DENNIS THOMAS

FROM: RODNEY MCDANIEL Bob For

SUBJECT: Tokyo Summit Public Diplomacy: "Negatives" List

The material at Tab A provides an updated version of potential problem areas conceivably (in some cases certainly) destined to affect the President's Asian trip. As in earlier editions, Jim Rentschler's Public Diplomacy team has evaluated each of these possible negatives (high, moderate, low) and indicated recommended treatment. (Hawaii in particular is now flagged). We will continue to revise and refine the list in light of evolving events.

MEMORANDUM TO PATRICK BUCHANAN JB
FROM: Jeannie Bull
SUBJECT: Incidental Charges

As is traditional with Economic Summits, the Host Government has agreed to pay the incidental charges of the official parties of the visiting delegations. Therefore, any personal charges such as food, laundry, etc. which you bill to your room will be paid by your host and will not be a charge incurred by you.
