Dear Scott:

Thank you for your assistance and support on the Tokyo Economic Summit. I know of the hard work you devoted to the preparations and the long hours you spent backstopping the talks in Tokyo. I hope you will agree that the favorable results achieved fully justify all the efforts.

I understand that you are leaving government service to join the staff of the International Monetary Fund. I wish you every success in your new career.

Sincerely,

B

Dear Mr. President:

Thanks so much for the stunning decanter with its inscription on the Summit efforts and also for your very kind accompanying note. It is a privilege to be part of your team and to share in the sense of accomplishment at events like this.

With my respect and admiration,

Sincerely yours,

George P. Shultz

As I told the American people before our departure from Japan, it's no exaggeration to describe the Tokyo Economic Summit as the most successful of the six that I have attended.

In Bali, pre-Summit meetings with representatives of the member nations of ASEAN permitted us to confirm our ties with the industrious people of the Pacific Rim and to bring their concerns to Tokyo.

In Tokyo, the seven major democracies reached new milestones of unity in combatting terrorism, harmonizing economic and monetary policies to foster continued growth, and tackling the underlying causes of trade imbalances.

This "Triumph in Tokyo," as well as our success in Bali, was due in no small measure to your efforts as the Assistant to the President and Director of Communications and as a member of my official party for the Summit.

Please accept this memento of my deep appreciation for your invaluable contribution.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN
