BIOGRAPHY - Simon Insonere

Republic of Rwanda

Simon Insonere was born on September 21, 1948 in Bulinga Commune, Gitarama Prefecture, Rwanda. He attended the primary school of Mushishiro (Bulinga) and subsequently studied at the Junior Seminary Saint Leon at Kabgayi from 1961 to 1965 and the Junior Seminary Saint Paul at Kigali from 1965 to 1968 from which he received a certificate in General Humanities. From 1968 to 1971 he attended the National University of Rwanda, Faculty of Letters at Butare, graduating with a B.A. in English. He continued his studies in 1971 at the University of Abidjan (Ivory Coast), Faculty of Letters from which he received a "license" in English teaching and a certificate in African studies in 1973.

Ambassador Insonere began his professional career as a professor of English language and literature at the National Teachers' Institute at Butare in 1974. While at the Institute, he served as secretary of the teacher's council and in 1975 became coordinator of modern letters and editor in chief of "Rencontres", the Institute's review. In 1978 he was named Director General for Primary education and integrated rural and handicraft education at the Ministry of National Education, a post which he held until 1980 when he was nominated to his current position as Rwandan Ambassador to Egypt.

Aside from the period spent in Egypt, Ambassador Insonere visited Great Britain from 1973-74 where he studied English and French instruction. He also visited the United States in 1976 as a Fulbright Scholar at San Francisco State University. Ambassador Insonere holds a certificate in applied linguistics and English teaching from San Francisco State.

A thorough search of U.S. Government sources reveals no grounds for objection.

WASHINGTON

July 5, 1985

Dear Mr. President:

I have asked Loret Miller Ruppe, Director of the Peace Corps, to extend my personal greetings and best wishes for your well-being and that of your family and the Rwandan people.

I am pleased that our two governments continue to strengthen our friendship and cooperation to work towards our mutual goals of peace and development. On that latter point, I am proud of the contribution our Peace Corps volunteers have made in the fields of education and resource management in Rwanda. I hope the relationship between the Peace Corps and the Rwandan people will continue to be a close and fruitful one and will serve to foster greater understanding.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ROBERT C. MCFARLANE Jul for SYSTEM
SUBJECT: Letter to President Habyarimana of Rwanda

Issue

To send a letter to President Habyarimana of Rwanda.

Facts

In conjunction with Peace Corps Director Loret Ruppe's visit to Rwanda, the State Department has proposed a personal letter from you to President Habyarimana.

Discussion

Peace Corps Director Loret Ruppe will be visiting Rwanda to review Peace Corps programs in that country, and State has proposed a letter from you which she would deliver during a personal meeting with President Habyarimana. You note your satisfaction over the excellent state of bilateral relations and cooperation, mentioning the contribution of Peace Corps volunteers to Rwanda's development.

SUBJECT:

Rwanda - Presidential Letter to President Habyarimana

Attached at Tab A is a State-proposed Presidential letter to President Habyarimana of Rwanda, which would be delivered by Peace Corps Director Loret Ruppe during her scheduled call on Habyarimana. (She departs the U.S. on July 7). The President expresses his satisfaction over the excellent state of bilateral relations and the contribution made to Rwanda's development through the years by Peace Corps volunteers. Habyarimana had lobbied hard for an official visit to the U.S. this year, but State reluctantly had to choose higher priority candidates. The letter, though brief, will serve to mollify Habyarimana, and expresses genuine appreciation for the excellent state of bilateral relations.

The speechwriters have cleared the text.

RECOMMENDATION: Sign and forward your memorandum to the President at Tab I.

FROM: GRANT S. GREEN, JR. GGK

REQUEST: Meeting with Major General Juvenal
Habyarimana, President of Rwanda

PURPOSE: To affirm the cordial and cooperative relations enjoyed by the U.S. and the Republic of Rwanda and to acknowledge Rwanda's support for economic policies advocated by the United States.

BACKGROUND: On July 1st, Maureen Reagan represented the President as head of the U.S. delegation at ceremonies celebrating Rwanda's 25th anniversary of independence. During her visit, the possibility of a meeting between the President and President Habyarimana was discussed, and Ms. Reagan has subsequently strongly endorsed the idea. President Habyarimana is not able to travel in this direction very often, but he will be in Quebec from September 2-4 for a summit meeting of leaders from French-speaking African countries. He could come to Washington after that.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. FRANK C. CARLUCCI
THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: Appointment of Aloys Uwimana of the Republic of Rwanda as Ambassador to the United States

The Government of the Republic of Rwanda has inquired whether our Government agrees to the appointment of Aloys Uwimana as Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Rwanda to the United States (Tab 2). Mr. Uwimana's biography is attached (Tab 1).

The Department believes from the information available that Mr. Uwimana will make an acceptable Ambassador to the United States and recommends that the President agree to the proposed appointment. If he concurs, the Department will inform the Government of the Republic of Rwanda.

MEMORANDUM FOR COLIN L. POWELL

FROM: HERMAN J. COHEN R for
SUBJECT: Request for NSB Time for the President of Rwanda

The President of Rwanda, Major General Juvenal Habyarimana, will be transiting the United States February 22-25 on a trip which includes an official visit to Japan. Habyarimana has been a strong supporter of the United States and the West for the past ten years.

Maureen Reagan has strongly advocated a meeting with the President for Habyarimana because she was very impressed by his hospitality and leadership when she led a Presidential delegation to Rwanda last July.

Comments
In the past the State Department has recommended Habyarimana for an Official Working Visit. In view of the competing demands on the President's schedule this year, I recommend that Habyarimana be offered a meeting during part of your National Security Briefing time.

Marybel Batjer concurs.

RECOMMENDATION

That you agree to provide 10 - 15 minutes of NSB time for a meeting with President Habyarimana on February 22, 23, 24 or 25.

MEMORANDUM FOR FREDERICK J. RYAN, JR.

FROM: For PAUL SCHOTT STEVENS pm. Batjn
SUBJECT: Official Working Visit for President Habyarimana of Rwanda

583677
20131
FG006-12

The president of Rwanda has expressed the enthusiastic desire to make an official visit to meet President Reagan. He made his wishes known to Ms. Maureen Reagan when she led a presidential delegation last July, and said the same thing to NSC Senior African Director Cohen who visited in November. Ms. Reagan endorsed the request when she returned to Washington. Her treatment in Rwanda had been outstanding.

You will recall that President Habyarimana was unable to accept an office call for February 22. We had recommended the event when we learned that he would be transiting Washington at that time enroute to Japan. When we made the offer, however, we learned that he had changed his itinerary. The Rwandan foreign minister told our charge d'affaires that the offer was deeply appreciated, and expressed the hope that another date would be possible.

On the diplomatic level, we are now engaged in a high priority effort to have Cuba condemned in the UN Commission on Human Rights which is currently meeting in Geneva. Rwanda is one of three African members of the commission. We are now asking Maureen Reagan to call several African chiefs of state, including the Rwandan, to lobby on this subject. Ms. Reagan and the NSC feel it would be very helpful if we could have a proposed official visit date in hand when she calls on the Cuban issue. As far as U.S./Rwandan bilateral relations are concerned, a possible official visit and the Cuban human rights questions are the most important issues on our respective screens.

As we indicated in our earlier request for an office call, Habyarimana is a good friend of the United States. He runs a market economy, is anti-Communist, and tends to vote with the United States at the UN. He deserves an official visit on his own merits apart from this particular issue for which he can be helpful.

We recommend that you settle on a date for an official working visit for the president of Rwanda in September or October, 1988. This date should be selected in time for Ms. Maureen Reagan to offer it to President Habyarimana during a telephone call on Tuesday, February 23, 1988.
