MEMORANDUM FOR:

SUBJECT: Versailles Summit - Briefing Materials
for President's Trip to France, June 4-6, 1982

STATE LIAISON: Marshall Casse, E, Room 7250 NS, 632-1089

NSC LIAISON: Henry Nau, Room 392, OEOB, 395-6961

S/S-S ACTION
OFFICER: Tom White, Room 7241 NS, 632-8062

The President will participate in the Summit meeting of industrialized countries to be held June 4-6, 1982 at Versailles, France. This memorandum assigns responsibility for the preparation of briefing materials to be included in the President's briefing book for the Summit.

The guiding principles for all Summit briefing material are brevity, clarity and, most important, relevance to the issues and level of the meeting. Drafters should be particularly careful to identify issues which the President's colleagues may raise and to provide appropriate responses. Drafters should also seek to insure that the President is informed of the economic and political constraints influencing his colleagues' positions on issues to be raised at the Summit.

Papers should be prepared on 8 1/2" by 11" plain white bond paper using IBM Courier 72 typeface or its equivalent and observing the sample formats attached. They must be letter perfect. Drafting and clearing information for each paper should be provided on a separate sheet. Overview papers should not exceed three pages. Key issue papers should be as concise as possible and should not exceed one page. Bilateral issues papers and country background papers should not exceed 2 pages in length.

Mr. Marshall Casse, Room 7250, telephone 632-1089, as the point of contact for the Department of State will receive all briefing materials from drafting agencies. Drafting agencies will obtain all appropriate interagency clearances before submission of papers to Mr. Casse. Clearances should be at the Deputy Assistant Secretary level or higher. The State Department Executive Secretariat (S/S-S, Mr. Tom White, tel. 632-8062) will assemble the briefing books.

The following timetable has been established for preparation of briefing materials:

- April 22: Deadline for circulation of drafts among agencies.
- April 27: First cleared drafts of all papers due at State (Marshall Casse).
- May 17: Final papers due at State (Marshall Casse).
- May 19: Senior WH Group review of Briefing Books
- May 24: Final briefing books delivered to White House.

The following table of contents designates drafting responsibilities for the Versailles papers. Where two or more agencies are shown as co-drafting, the agency listed first has responsibility for obtaining appropriate interagency clearances and for final delivery of the paper to State.

Format: Overview Paper (3 pages)

OVERVIEW: SUBJECT (ALL CAPS)

I. U.S. OBJECTIVES AND INITIATIVES

Principal U.S. Objective

The top priority U.S. objective in the subject area, may be expanded to two items if essential.

Supplementary Objectives

Other objectives suitable for Presidential attention and possible Summit discussion, may include more specific objectives designed to reinforce the principal objective.

Initiatives

Specific proposals initiated by the U.S. for which Summit action is sought.

II. BACKGROUND AND PRE-SUMMIT PREPARATION

A brief section indicating the "state of play" on this subject, both in the Summit Preparatory process and in relevant international forums, including the positions taken by the U.S.

III. OTHER COUNTRY OBJECTIVES AND STANCE ON U.S. OBJECTIVES

Section indicating objectives of other countries at Summit with brief comment on rationale for country's position, e.g., domestic constraints, traditional policy, unique features, and likely line-up of countries on issues.

IV. DISCUSSION OF OBJECTIVES

For each objective, provide brief elaboration of the objective, if necessary, and talking points in bullet form.

Format: Key Issues Paper (1 page)

TITLE, CENTERED (ALL CAPS)

I. ISSUE

Describe the issue succinctly and briefly state the choices involved.

II. ESSENTIAL FACTS

Provide relevant facts, including significant country positions associated with the choices stated above. In a second paragraph, state the rationale for U.S. position.

III. TALKING POINTS

State in Point-Counterpoint format, i.e. the point which the foreign head of state may make followed by the U.S. response, or the U.S. point followed by likely foreign retort. Use bullet form, but not overly cryptic.

Criticism : The U.S. auto agreement with Japan restrains Japanese exports to the U.S. at the expense of other industrialized trading partners.

Response:

-- Japan assured us, and other governments, that it will not offset restraint to the U.S. with a surge in Europe.

-- Japan's share of many European markets is only 8%, and already severely limited in key countries. Japan has 21% of U.S. market.

Format Guidance for Bilateral Issues Paper (2 pages)

BILATERAL ISSUES : COUNTRY (USE ALL CAPS)

I. STATE OF RELATIONS

Briefly describe the overall state of bilateral relations from the perspective of the U.S. and of the subject country. Be brief.

II. KEY ISSUES

Describe the leading issues between the U.S. and the subject country, one issue per paragraph. Underline the key words of the issue in the lead sentence of each paragraph. The last sentence of each paragraph should lay out the President's approach to the issue in conversation with his foreign colleague, as in the following example. It will be important to hear Adenauer's views out sympathetically in view of his political situation, but to avoid promises of support in the OAU and to avoid AID commitments to the Krupp steel project.

One issue per paragraph; each paragraph to end with guidance on how to address the issue in conversation.

Format : Country Background Paper - (2 pages)

POLITICAL BACKGROUND : COUNTRY (ALL CAPS) or ECONOMIC BACKGROUND : COUNTRY (ALL CAPS)

NOTE: These papers must concentrate on factors in the country situation which are relevant to the objectives, issues and level of the Summit. In particular, they should give insights into the political/economic/social pressures, and policy philosophy, which lie behind positions the Head of State will take at Versailles.

I. OVERVIEW

Brief statement of the essential factors in the political (economic situation in the subject country, bearing on the Versailles Summit.

II. POLICY PROBLEMS AND CONSTRAINTS

Cogent statement of the domestic problems and domestic pressures facing the Head of State which may influence his approach to the plenary meetings and bilaterals. Include U.S. critique of subject country policies where appropriate.

MEMORANDUM FOR: HONORABLE ROBERT D. HORMATS
ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR ECONOMIC AND BUSINESS AFFAIRS
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

FROM: Lionel H. Olmer LS

SUBJECT: U.S. Technology Initiatives Paper

Memorandum

I read with interest your paper proposing Summit initiated task forces on advanced technology competition and technology and trade policies. I believe we should use the Summit to provide impetus and focus to activities underway in the area of high-technology trade. In order to avoid duplication, we should consider how we can use any such groups to backstop other policy efforts underway in the GATT, the OECD, and in the bilateral dialogues that have already begun. We must not lose the momentum that has been developing in other forums by pushing in too many places at once.

The GATT Ministerial may kick-off a major initiative on high technology in November. We should ensure that any Summit task force is not used to delay or weaken our GATT program, and that we not give the impression that the industrialized countries are conspiring to shut the developing countries out of the high-technology arena.

The Task Force on Advanced Technology Competition as currently described would cover some of the issues being considered for the GATT initiative, e.g., patent policy equity, standards, and review of trade policies of GATT member countries. It might, however, be most useful for any Summit group to seek to develop a political consensus for addressing more specific issues in other contexts.

Before launching a major multilateral initiative in the high technology area, there needs to be more careful consideration given to what our true interests are and to what is realistically obtainable in a multilateral forum.

Agreements on cooperation in science and technology might be used productively to promote cooperation and free exchange of information in basic scientific research. Certainly, the United States will need access to the growing amount of technology being generated in other countries. I do have questions about the idea of cost sharing of "high risk, high priority, and high cost" technological problems. We need to consider very carefully how the USG can get the greatest payoff for our very limited R&D budget, much of which is oriented towards defense and would presumably be outside such agreements.

U.S. Paper on East-West Economic Relations

The President needs to approve the Versailles Summit paper on East-West economic relations which the United States has prepared before it is distributed to other Versailles Summit governments.

We have a commitment to send this paper to other governments no later than Thursday, April 15. The paper has been cleared by all concerned agencies and has been distributed to Senior White House staff as part of the background papers for the Senior White House Group meeting this past Monday on the NATO and Versailles Summits.

RECOMMENDATION: That you sign the memo to the President at Tab I asking him to approve the U.S. paper on East-West economic relations (Tab A).
