Dear Mr. Hamerman:

The President has asked me to reply on his behalf to your letter of October 4, 1982 concerning Mrs. Nusrat Bhutto.

We appreciate your expression of concern about Mrs. Bhutto's case. The Department of State has approached the Pakistani authorities on several occasions about Mrs. Bhutto's application to leave the country. We have pointed out that our interest stems from the clear-cut humanitarian considerations at work as well as the potential political and public relations problems which might arise on the eve of President Zia's early December arrival in the United States.

Despite our concerns over this case, as well as over other human rights related allegations, we continue to consider the relationship we have established with the Government of Pakistan an important element of U.S. foreign policy. We believe that enhancing regional stability and thwarting Soviet expansionist tendencies in South and Southwest Asia through this relationship serves the interests of both the American and Pakistani people.

Thank you for your letter. If we can provide any further information, please don't hesitate to write us again.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing to you on behalf of the National Democratic Policy Committee to bring your urgent attention to the gross violation of the most basic human rights that is now taking place in Pakistan. I am referring specifically to the case of Begum Nusrat Bhutto, the leader of the Pakistan Peoples Party and widow of the late former Prime Minister Z.A. Bhutto.

Mrs. Bhutto is suffering from complications which arose out of long prison terms she has undergone; she has urgent medical needs, and has requested the Pakistan government for a passport and permission to travel to Europe for medical treatment. For more than a month now, the authorities have refused to respond to her request, in spite of the fact that Mrs. Bhutto has repeatedly stated her willingness to answer any and all questions the authorities may have as to her request. In despair, Mrs. Bhutto has recently communicated to a sister in London her belief that Pakistan President Zia ul-Haq wants to see her die. Zia ul-Haq overthrew, and then arrested, tried and executed Mrs. Bhutto's husband in 1979 in defiance of pleas from world leaders.

Our first concern is that you exercise your considerable moral and political power to urge General Zia ul-Haq to act promptly to see that Mrs. Bhutto receives the medical treatment she requires. It would be most inappropriate for you, Mr. President, to receive the President of Pakistan in December in a situation where he is engaged in what the entire world recognizes to be a cynical denial of basic human dignity and morality.

Secondly, Mr. President, we ask you to reflect on the fact that the case of Mrs. Bhutto is not the only case of what most Americans, were they given the facts, would readily identify as a gross and systematic suppression of human freedom and democratic rights in Pakistan. It is the norm for the military dictatorship of General Zia ul-Haq -- a regime whose massive benefit financially from the flow of heroin into American cities has been documented, a regime so inimical to the interests and needs of its citizens that it has found it necessary to defend itself with a suspension of all basic democratic rights, including a free press and elections, and, most recently, with the enactment of laws establishing the death sentence for all political prisoners and the principle that suspects of political and other crimes are guilty until they prove themselves innocent.

You owe it to yourself, Mr. President, and to the American people to disassociate the United States of America from further financial, military, and political support of Zia ul-Haq's regime in Pakistan because this government is an active repudiation of every principle in whose defense our own nation was founded.

Your positive action on these two matters would find overwhelming support among the American people.

Very truly yours,

Warren Hamerman, Chairman
National Democratic Policy Committee

Dear Mr. Lynch:

I have been asked to reply to your letter of November 30, 1982 to the President regarding the case of Tariq Ahsan, a Pakistani academic arrested on charges of distributing subversive literature. We appreciate the expression of your views on this case.

During the visit of President Zia to the United States this month, our concerns about the human rights situation in Pakistan were raised at the most senior levels of the Administration. In addition, these questions were raised by other prominent Americans with whom President Zia met during his stay, including several Members of Congress. We believe that President Zia could have been left in no doubt as to the seriousness with which we regard the question of human rights in Pakistan, as elsewhere around the world.

We did not, during our conversations, raise with the President the case of any individual. As I am sure you will understand, to do so might have left the mistaken impression with the Pakistanis that our concerns were limited to one or a few individual cases, rather than to the broader issue of human rights and individual liberties.

I hope the foregoing has been responsive to your inquiry. If I can be of any further assistance, please let me know.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President:

Tariq Ahsan, the prisoner of conscience adopted by the Amnesty International group here at John Jay, is a young Pakistani academic who has been imprisoned without trial since November 4, 1981. He was arrested apparently for lending his motorbike to a friend who used it while distributing material considered subversive by the government. We feel that Professor Ahsan's continued imprisonment without trial is a serious violation of human rights.

During the visit next week of President Zia ul-Haq, we urge you to place the violation of human rights in Pakistan on the agenda of any discussions you may have with him.

Thank you.

I REQUEST YOUR SUPPORT IN A VITAL HUMANITARIAN CAUSE. THE FORMER FIRST LADY OF PAKISTAN MRS NUSRAT BHUTTO HAS BEEN DIAGNOSED FOR LUNG CANCER AND HAS SOUGHT PERMISSION FROM THE MILITARY DICTATOR TO COME ABROAD FOR TREATMENT. THIS WAS TWO MONTHS AGO ON THE SIXTH OF AUGUST AND SHE HAS HAD NO RESPONSE AS YET MEANWHILE THIS FATAL DISEASE IS FAST SPREADING AND COULD LEAD TO HER UNTIMELY DEATH.

MRS BHUTTO IS A PERSONAL FRIEND AND I SPOKE WITH HER THIS WEEK AND SHE ASKED ME TO ENLIST SUPPORT FOR HER TO LEAVE AT THE EARLIEST POSSIBLE DATE AS SHE IS RUNNING A TEMPERATURE AND SOUNDED VERY DESPERATE. HER PHONE NUMBER IN KARACHI PAKISTAN IS 516850.

THIS ADMINISTRATION HAS CONSIDERABLE INFLUENCE WITH THE REGIME OF GENERAL CIA AND I AM CONFIDENT THAT AN EXPRESSION OF CONCERN FROM THE PRESIDENT AND THE FIRST LADY OF THE UNITED STATES WILL MAKE IT POSSIBLE TO SAVE A LIFE. UNLESS THIS IS DONE VERY RAPIDLY THE AFTERMATH WILL BE VERY TRAGIC. PLEASE REFER TO THIS WEEK'S NEWSWEEK MAGAZINE PERISCOPE SECTION. WITH VERY BEST REGARDS,

Dear Mr. President:

Nancy and I are grateful for the very warm sentiments expressed in your letters of March 3 and March 5, 1983. We were delighted to have had the opportunity of hosting you and Begum Zia during your stay here. The warm welcome accorded to you by the American people reflected the sentiments of friendship for Pakistan which exist in this country.

We are pleased that you will be able to receive Secretary of State Shultz in Islamabad in July, even though his visit will fall during the holy month of Ramadan. The continuation of discussions in Islamabad will certainly provide further opportunity for the development of our relations. In addition to the important bilateral and regional issues that we will want to discuss during the Secretary's visit, we hope that it will also provide a means for furthering U.S.-Pakistan understanding within a broader framework. We see this as a chance for the Secretary and Foreign Minister Yaqub to inaugurate the U.S.-Pakistan Joint Commission established during your visit to Washington in December. Dear Mr President,

I am, indeed, grateful for your kind letter of January 10 and the warm sentiments which you had expressed for my wife and myself.

In a separate letter to you, Mr President, I have expressed my deep gratitude for the spontaneous welcome accorded to us during our visit to your great country. I would, however, like to say again how deeply touched my wife and I were by the gracious hospitality which was extended to us, and to the members of my delegation, at every place we visited. May I express our profound thanks to you, Mr President, and to Madam Reagan for having made this possible.

The gifts of the exquisite porcelain piece and the splendid replica of the American Eagle would serve as a constant reminder of our memorable visit to the United States and a fitting memento of our association with Your Excellency and Madam Reagan. Your autographed portrait will ever grace our home as a deeply valued adornment.

I am confident that our friendship, understanding and mutual cooperation will be further consolidated in the interest of peace and security not only of the region in which Pakistan is situated but, indeed, of the world at large.

Dear Mr. President,

As we look back at our recent visit to your great country, my wife and I recall with great satisfaction and profound gratitude the warm welcome and gracious hospitality extended to us and to the members of the Pakistan delegation by all concerned in the United States. We are deeply grateful for the excellent arrangements made for our stay and the special care taken to ensure our comfort, everywhere we visited. Allow me to express our sincere thanks, in particular to you and Mrs. Reagan, for having made this possible.

Our meeting in Washington and the valuable discussions that I was able to have with your Cabinet colleagues have served to underline the convergence of perceptions between our two countries on a number of important matters of mutual interest, and to reinforce the close ties of friendship and cooperation that bind us.

The mutual awareness of our common concerns that has developed since your assumption of office has laid the foundation for a credible and enduring relationship between our two countries in which you, Mr. President, have, indeed, played the pivotal part.

I am confident that the close understanding and friendly cooperation between our two countries will continue to develop apace in the days ahead, and that this will have a salutary impact on the peace and security of the region to which Pakistan belongs, and indeed, of the world at large.

May I avail myself of this opportunity of renewing to you, Mr. President, and to Madam Reagan a most cordial invitation to pay a visit to Pakistan at a time of your convenience. We look forward to the occasion, which will contribute towards the future strengthening of our existing ties and the promotion of yet closer collaboration between Pakistan and the United States, to the mutual benefit of our two peoples.

With profound regards,

Yours sincerely,

We were delighted to have had the opportunity of hosting you and Begum Zia during your stay here. The warm welcome accorded to you by the American people reflected the sentiments of friendship for Pakistan which exist in this country.

The successful reinvigoration of our countries' close relationship, based on feelings of friendship and understanding, remains among the proudest achievements of my Administration. The official talks which we held while you were here certainly have added content and meaning to our bilateral ties.

We are pleased that you will be able to receive Secretary of State Shultz in Islamabad in July, even though his visit will fall during the holy month of Ramadan. The continuation of discussions in Islamabad will certainly provide further opportunity for the development of our relations. In addition to the important bilateral and regional issues that we will want to discuss during the Secretary's visit, we hope that it will also provide a means for furthering U.S.-Pakistan understanding within a broader framework. We see this as a chance for the Secretary and Foreign Minister Yaqub to inaugurate the U.S.-Pakistan Joint Commission established during your visit to Washington in December. The contacts and ties of friendship which are established through programs such as our
