NSC recommends that you meet

Lt. General Colin L. Powell
Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear General Powell:

I understand that the President will meet today with his senior advisors to decide how to respond to a request yesterday from Pakistan to support the abandonment of the U. S. - Pakistan position on symmetry.

Under the Geneva agreements as they now stand, Pakistan and Afghanistan pledge not to interfere in affairs of each other. In practical terms, that means the Soviets are free to resupply the puppet regime in Kabul, but Pakistan must cut off aid to the Resistance, and the U. S. must act as a guarantor of this one-sided arrangement. It was precisely, the one-sidedness of the arrangement, I understand, that led the Administration two weeks ago to publicly call for symmetry.

I urge you to counsel the President against acceding to the Pakistani request. Indeed, we should tell Pakistan we simply cannot act as guarantor to such a disadvantageous arrangement.

I understand there are certain private assurances about what recourse we might have in the event of difficulties. But please point out, that Pakistan would have to violate the Geneva agreements in order to resupply the resistance, should that prove necessary. And we, as a guarantor, would have to work hand in glove with the Pakistanis in violation of our role as guarantor.

After eight years of struggle to restore Afghanistan, we are at a critical moment. Firmness on our part is essential.

In my view, there would be no support in the Senate for any decision by the U.S. to abandon our policy of symmetry, in favor of the Geneva agreements which do not contain symmetry provisions. Any agreement that the Government of Pakistan must violate in order to resupply the Mujahideen, while the Soviets would be within their rights to supply Kabul, would be a sharp departure from the policy unanimously endorsed by the U.S. Senate.

MEMORANDUM FOR JACK COURTEMANCHE

SUBJECT: Request for a Meeting or Tea Hosted by Mrs. Reagan
In Honor of Mrs. Begum Shafiq Zia
June 15, 1988

His Excellency General M. Zia-ul-Haq, President of Pakistan, is coming to the White House for a meeting with the President on June 15. The NSC concurs with the State Department's recommendation (TAB A) of a meeting or tea, hosted by the First Lady for Begum Shafiq Zia, wife of President Zia, to parallel the President's meeting with the President at 10:00 a.m.

Mrs. Reagan may want to use this occasion to discuss narcotics issues, given Pakistan's role as a major producer of illicit narcotics and Mrs. Zia's own interest in controlling the problem in the country. Mrs. Zia attended the First Ladies Conferences on Drug Abuse at the White House in March and October of 1985 and participated in a USIA film on First Ladies' involvement in drug abuse prevention. A meeting with the First Lady would be very helpful in reinforcing our warm bilateral relationship with Pakistan.

Both President Zia and Mrs. Zia were last at the White House in December 1982.

MEMORANDUM FOR COLIN L. POWELL
THE WHITE HOUSE

SUBJECT: Request for Meeting between the First Lady and Begum Shafiq Zia, wife of Pakistan President Zia

President Reagan has agreed to meet with Pakistan President Zia ul-Haq at 10:00 a.m. on June 15. The Government of Pakistan has requested that Begum Shafiq Zia, the wife of President Zia, meet with the First Lady during President Zia's June 15-17 Washington visit. The Department of State strongly endorses this request.

Begum Zia previously met the First Lady during President Zia's December 1982 visit to the United States and at the March and October 1985 First Ladies Conferences on Drug Abuse. A meeting with the First Lady would be very helpful in reinforcing our warm bilateral relationship with Pakistan. Additionally, Mrs. Reagan may want to use this occasion to discuss narcotics issues, given Pakistan's role as a major producer of illicit narcotics, its rapidly rising domestic addiction rate, and Begum Zia's own interest in the problem as demonstrated by her previous attendance at the First Ladies Conferences and by her participation in a USIA film on First Ladies' involvement in drug abuse prevention.

The drug confs held in 1985 were referred to as the "First Ladies" Conf on Drug abuse so I think memo is correct.
