MEMORANDUM

TO: Presidential Personnel Office: Wendy Borchardt/
Pendleton James

FROM: Richard T. Kennedy RTK

SUBJECT: Ambassadorial Nomination: Certification of Demonstrated Competence (Foreign Service Act, Section 304(a)(4))

POST: USOCED (Paris)

CANDIDATE: ABRAHAM KATZ

ABRAHAM KATZ, Foreign Service Officer of Class I, age 54, has been on detail to the Commerce Department since 1978, serving as Deputy Assistant Secretary and Director of the Bureau of International Economic Policy and Research. He is one of the Department's senior economic officers, with long-time specialization in Atlantic affairs, North/South issues, and earlier in his career, considerable experience in Soviet affairs (he has a political science Ph.D. from Harvard, with a Soviet specialty). Katz began his Foreign Service career in Mexico, was detailed to Harvard, moved to the Soviet research office in INR, served as Staff Assistant to the Under Secretary for Economic Affairs and then served five years in Paris with our OECD Mission. From 1964-66 he was Economic Counselor in Moscow and then returned to the Department for a seven-year tour as Deputy director and Director of Regional Political-Economic Affairs in the European Bureau. From 1974 to 1978 Katz was back at the OECD Mission as Deputy Chief. Katz invests his work with drive and enthusiasm. He has initiative, judgment, a good sense of priorities, as well as an extraordinary amount of experience in multi-lateral diplomacy. Languages are also a long suit: Spanish, French, Russian, and Hebrew at the 3+ to 4 level. His vast experience in USOCED makes him a strong contender for Chief of Mission.

Under Section 604 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 and the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974, the information above should be treated as confidential and not released to unauthorized parties.

THE WHITE HOUSE

Office of the Press Secretary
(Los Angeles, California)

For Immediate Release

July 28, 1984

The President today announced his intention to nominate Edward J. Streator, of New York, a Career Member of the Senior Foreign Service, Class of Career Minister, as the Representative of the United States of America to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, with the rank of Ambassador. He would succeed Abraham Katz.

Mr. Streator served in the United States Navy from 1952-56 as Lieutenant. He entered the Foreign Service in 1956 and was on detail to the International Cooperation Administration as Junior Management Assistant. He was Economic Officer in Addis Ababa (1958-60), and Political Officer in Lome (1960-62). In the Department he was Intelligence Research Analyst in the Bureau of Intelligence and Research (1962-64), and Staff Assistant to the Secretary of State (1964-66). He was Deputy Political/Military Adviser to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) in Paris (1966-68), and Deputy Political Counselor at NATO in Brussels (1968-69). From 1969-75 he was Deputy Director of the Office of NATO Affairs in the Department. From 1975-77 he was Deputy Chief of Mission, then Deputy United States Permanent Representative to NATO in Brussels. Since 1977 he has been Deputy Chief of Mission in London.

Mr. Streator received his A.B. in 1952 from Princeton University. His foreign language is French. He was born December 12, 1930 in New York, New York.

REPORT FOR THE COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN RELATIONS

IT III

UNITED STATES SENATE

SUBJECT: Ambassadorial Nomination: Certification of Demonstrated Competence--Foreign Service Act, Section 304 (a) (4)

COUNTRY: Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)

CANDIDATE Edward J. Streator

Mr. Streator is a career Foreign Service Officer, age 53, with the rank of Career Minister (appointed in 1983), who has served in a variety of posts in Europe and Africa. Mr. Streator has been Deputy Chief of Mission in London since 1977. Following two early assignments in Africa, (Lome and Addis Ababa), he also received in-Service training on Sub-Saharan Africa. He has spent most of his later career in the European field, specializing in the conduct of multilateral diplomacy within the NATO alliance. He served as Deputy Director, and later Director, of the Office of NATO and Atlantic Political-Military Affairs and Deputy Chief of Mission at the US Mission to NATO in Brussels before going to London. His program direction skills have been exceptional in serving outstanding career and non-career Ambassadors and Department officials. In the most laudatory terms, all have credited him with markedly improving the substantive reporting, management and professional reputation of their missions. Throughout his career, Mr. Streator has been consistently cited as an articulate and persuasive negotiator and public speaker. He has passed the most demanding tests of his professional ability with flying colors. In 1981 and 1982 his outstanding performance was recognized by Senior Foreign Service pay awards. His strong policy orientation, NATO experience and great professional integrity qualify him to lead our mission to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development. He speaks fluent French, an important asset in this post.

Under Section 604 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 and the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974, the information above should be treated as confidential and not released to unauthorized parties.

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

I have received your letter of March 29, 1984, and I accept your resignation as the Representative of the United States of America to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development, with the rank of Ambassador, effective May 31, 1984.

I wish to express my personal gratitude for your contribution to the improvement and strengthening of our ties with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development. Your service as Ambassador was marked by diligent representation of United States policy interests, especially your perceptive analyses of economic conditions and trends. You have every reason to be proud of your accomplishments, and I hope you will always look back with special pride on the outstanding contributions you have made during your most distinguished thirty-four years of diplomatic service.

Congratulations on your upcoming Presidency of the United States Council for International Business. You and your family take with you my very best wishes for good health and happiness in the years ahead.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

March 29, 1984

Dear Mr. President:

It is with some regret that I write to inform you that I shall retire from the Foreign Service on May 31. Accordingly, I hereby submit my resignation effective that date as United States Representative to the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development with the rank of Ambassador.

It has been a privilege to terminate my career in this post. I shall continue to do my utmost to justify the trust you have placed in me until the effective date of my resignation.

Respectfully,

Abraham Katz
Ambassador

The President
The White House.
