Dear Mr. McEndy:

Thank you for your delightful invitation to join "Tippecanoe and Bohemia Too" as your guest at the head table. Regrettably, other pursuits will prevent me from spending this occasion in your company.

Since I cannot personally participate in the festivities, I want you to know that I am with you in spirit. We of Owl's Nest Camp are always willing to venture forth to add whatever merriment we can to whatever social events are in need of our special touch! Therefore, I offer a toast: May the quality of your wine be second only to the nobility of those who consume it!

With best wishes to one and all,

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN <sup>A</sup>

Dear President Reagan:

As Sire of "Tippecanoe and Bohemia Too", Thursday, November 1, 1984, it is my privilege to request the pleasure of your company to sit at the Head Table. We will meet in the Library at 6:30 p.m., for Cocktails and go in to Dinner together.

The attire will be business suit.

We realize that other commitments will prevent your attendance, but would appreciate a brief note to be read to your fellow Bohemians from the Sire's table.

Please R.S.V.P. to Lee Seifert, Secretary (885-2440 ext. 144).

Sincerely yours,
