Browne, Paul M.

Dear Bohemians:

I am delighted to send warm greetings and felicitations to my fellow members of the Bohemian Club as you assemble for this Encampment.

As the name Bohemian implies, this isn't just a gathering of friends. It's a collection of eccentric vagabonds turned loose on an unsuspecting world.

I must admit -- in moments of weakness, of course -- that I've actually enjoyed your company.

However, I do wish you would shape up and make something of yourselves -- take on a little responsibility and stop leading lives of purely decadent leisure. It's simply not right that the only time you toil diligently is at our Encampments. Not to preach, but what can be said when not one of you has made his mark in the world.

Seriously, may this be a most enjoyable Encampment and a wonderfully entertaining Grove play. I'll be thinking about you.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

Dear Ron:

As you know, the Bohemian Grove encampment will soon be upon us, and it is unfortunate you will be unable to be in your camp with your many friends.

On Saturday morning, July 24, Owl's Nest is hosting a sit-down breakfast for about seventy people, and among the guests will be Helmut Schmidt, Jerry Ford, Henry Kissinger, George Schultz, Ed Meese, Bill Clark, Walter Cronkite, Prime Minister Yew, plus an assortment of Rockefellers, Bechtels, Kaisers, Firestones, and others.....

Although I know you are a busy man, a message of welcome from you to the group would be wonderful, and could be read by the Camp Captain.

We will miss you!

Sincerely,

Paul M. Browne
