Dear Sirs:

I cannot claim a long association with Jim Baker. However, I think asking him to serve as my Chief of Staff after a brief but close working relationship reveals more than words how I feel about him. I count Jim among the finest, brightest and most dedicated public servants and am more convinced than ever how fortunate I am to have a man of his caliber head up my team.

I hope it is not presumptuous of me to suggest he would make an excellent fellow Bohemian and to hope that you will invite him to become a member of the Grove.

Dear Sirs:

As a non-resident member of the Bohemian Club, I would like to write this letter in strong support of the candidacy of my very close personal friend, James A. Baker III. There is no point in wasting a lot of type -- Jim Baker is a superb human being, a gentleman, who would fit into Bohemia in the finest tradition of our wonderful club.

From time to time we are asked to write letters of support, and we do so with varying degrees of enthusiasm. This letter bears my most genuine, heartfelt support and, of course, I would be glad to answer any questions about his application.

Sincerely,

George Bush

Dear Jackson:

Thank you for your letter of May 5 to Mr. Meese, which has been referred to me for reply.

The question of the assignment of Secret Service people permanently in Colombia is more complicated than might have been conveyed on the NBC evening news. The security of the people involved and the size of the overall US Government presence in Colombia must be considered. The subject is being discussed between the State Department and Treasury. I am confident we will find a solution which will allow our anti-counterfeit program to function effectively while taking into account other factors in our relations with Colombia.

Dear Ed:

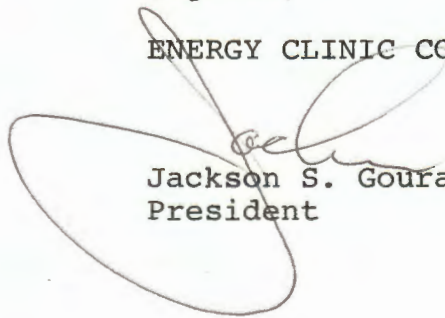

I thought you were very good on Meet The Press. I do think the New York Times could have given you a bit more coverage but that's life.

The other purpose of this letter is to call to your attention the fact that our Ambassador to Columbia has refused to allow the Secret Service to be permanently stationed at his Embassy.

NBC reported on the Chancellor program that 25% of all the counterfeit currency circulating in the U.S. is counterfited in Columbia. I am at a loss to understand the Ambassador's position and really, Ed, it seems a foolish one.

The Honorable Ronald Reagan
President of the United States
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
Washington, D. C. 20270

Dear President Reagan:

I have just returned from an outstanding trip to Washington to attend the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Conference. Our delegation was most graciously met by Craig Fuller of your staff, as well as by Jack Burgess and Doug Bandow. Initially we had hoped to be able to meet with you in the Oval Office, and then were told we might meet with Ed Meese and Jim Baker, but as they were both out of town, we were most pleased to receive an informal briefing by these most able members of your staff. We were most impressed by the wide range of their expertise as well as by their courtesy.

We found the atmosphere in the capitol to be indeed one of increased hope and confidence in the future of our great country, and I am certain that this is entirely due to your inspired leadership. We felt both humble and proud, and I truly do believe that you were especially chosen to lead our nation in these troubled times.

Keep up the good work, and I know that you'll succeed in leading our beloved country on to further greatness.

Warmest regards,

Dear Craig:

Today I received a call from Jack Burgess, informing us that upon your recommendation he is arranging for us to meet with some senior officials when we come to Washington. Mr. Burgess advises that we may perhaps be able to meet both James Baker and Ed Meese, in the Roosevelt Room in the west wing of the White House and receive a briefing on both national and international matters. Our meeting has been scheduled for 3 to 4 p.m. on Monday, April 27.

We are indeed delighted that it is through your good graces that we will be able to accomplish this, and we are so looking forward to this opportunity.

I have given Mr. Burgess the names of all those who will be attending--as of now our count is eleven, but I would not be surprised if our number should increase as the good news of this meeting leaks out.

Again, thank you so much, we really do appreciate it, particularly with all the other heavy demands on you at what must be a particularly trying time. We join with all of you and the nation in praying for the President's speedy and complete recovery from this recent most unhappy experience.

I do hope we will have the opportunity to see you personally as well, when we make our visit.

My warmest regards,

Dear Craig:

We are still awaiting a reply to our letter to you of March 2, and hoping against hope that the verdict given us by Gregory Newell could be reversed and our fondest wish, to spend a few moments with the President during our visit to Washington at the end of April, might be realized.

If that was indeed the final word, however, we shall have to adjust gracefully--but we'd rather hear it from you.

I do know, of course, that on your very hectic schedule, this is not a high priority item. Nevertheless, I would so appreciate hearing from you directly, either that we have been definitely turned down, or that there is still hope. However it turns out, I will be certain that you have done your best, and I want you to know that we are deeply appreciative.

MEMORANDUM FOR ELIZABETH DOLE

FROM: CRAIG L. FULLER

SUBJECT: Western Los Angeles Regional Chamber of Commerce

I have attached a letter from Dori Pye, President, Western Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce. You will note her disappointment regarding the "turndown" for a meeting with the President.

In this case, their trip coincides with the President's trip to Mexico.

Could your office attempt to arrange something for them? The Western Los Angeles Chamber represents many businesses in Beverly Hills, Century City, Westwood and other West Los Angeles areas. After the Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce, this group is the next most powerful Chamber of Commerce in Southern California.

Dear Dori:

I understand your disappointment about the meeting with the President. However, we are planning to be out of Washington in late April and scheduling during that time has become a problem.

Mike Deaver and I have both reviewed this, but just do not think we are going to be able to schedule something this year.

We will, through Elizabeth Dole's office, try to arrange meetings with some senior officials.

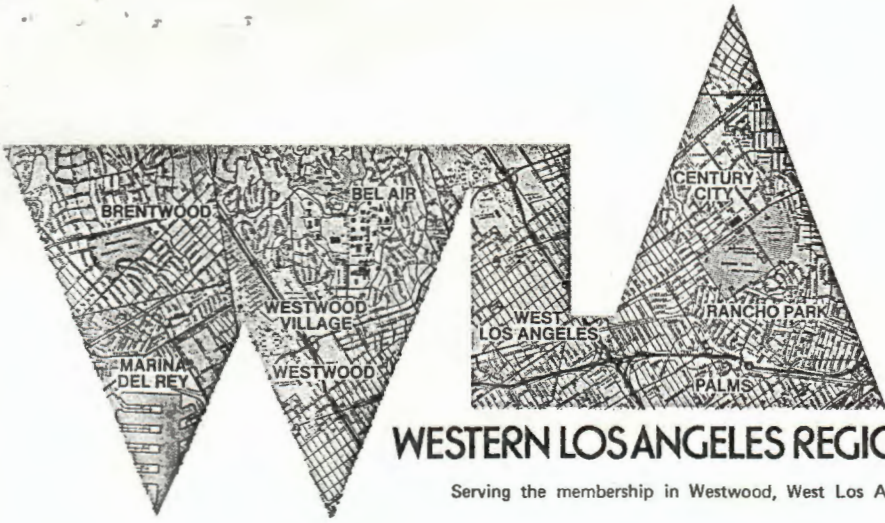

I regret we cannot be more helpful.

Mr. Craig Fuller
 Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of Cabinet Administration
 The White House

 Washington, D. C. 20270

Dear Craig:

Enclosed please find a copy of a letter which we received from the White House last week. To say that we are disappointed is putting it mildly--we were, after all, depending on your personal assurance, as well as on your statement in your letter of January 29, that Elizabeth Dole would be in touch with us to "coordinate our meetings." To be turned down cold like this, is a blow indeed.

I realize, of course, Craig, that the President cannot possibly accede to requests for meetings from everyone. I do feel, however, that our group is somewhat special--we represent not only his hometown, but his district, and members of our Chamber represent one of the most influential groups of his supporters anywhere. Furthermore, the U.S. Chamber constitutes a vital arm of support for the President's economic program, and we are generally considered THE CHAMBER in this area, and one of the most effective in the country. To this, I'd like to add that the President knows me personally.

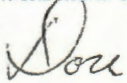

Perhaps all of these factors were not taken into consideration when the decision was made that we could not be received. In any event, Craig, I wonder if you, personally, could look into this and make sure that whoever made this decision was aware of all the aforementioned facts. Again, I realize that we are asking for a very special favor--but then I know that you realize that we are rather special people, and I also feel that you are in a position to help further our request and make good on your past assurances.

I rely on your good offices.

My warmest regards,

Dori Pye, CCE

I have attached a letter from the Western Los Angeles Chamber President, Dori Pye. They are requesting a meeting with the President on April 27th or 28th.

Since President Reagan had offices in the West Los Angeles area after leaving Sacramento, Dori Pye and her organization developed a special relationship with the Governor and our office. My discussion with her about visiting the President in the Oval Office was not nearly as final as she suggests. Anything we could do with the group, however, would be well deserved.

Dear Craig:

Congratulations on being appointed Deputy Assistant to the President and Director of the Office of Cabinet Administration! You and Mike Deaver certainly hold important and impressive positions, and I am sure they are so well deserved!

Remember when we had our luncheon and we were talking about forming a PAC, and during the conversation you said that if the Governor became President, our Chamber representatives would be invited to meet the President in the Oval Office of the White House when we attend the annual U.S. Chamber of Commerce meeting, which is scheduled again this year for the latter part of April

Well, that's now become a reality! And many members of our Chamber and our Board would like to bring an entourage back to Washington to attend the U.S. Chamber's Annual Conference, if they were assured that this meeting with the President were to become a reality. I believe it can, because of you.

I so appreciate how you expedited getting my picture autographed by the President, as well as the many courtesies you have extended to us in the past. We would like very much now to plan this, and I am giving you the dates at this very early time, knowing how heavy the President's schedule is bound to become.

We will be arriving in Washinton on April 24. I am sure President Reagan will address the opening session of the Conference in Constitution Hall on April 27, and we would consider it the very greatest of honors if at any time on the 27th or the 28th, we could meet privately with the President. Our group will comprise anywhere from ten to twenty individuals.

We look forward to hearing from you at your earliest convenience. Again, my sincerest congratulations on a great victory and for your personal achievement.
