THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
June 22, 1982

Your Majesty and Your Royal Highness:

Writing this letter brings memories flooding back. Let me simply say that our stay with you in Windsor was the single most pleasant part of a long and arduous trip. Thank you very much for the thoughtfulness, warmth and kindness with which you received Mrs. Reagan and me.

In particular, thank you for the rare set of Dr. Wall Worcester dessert dishes. We will display these magnificent examples of the British porcelain art with great pride. The silver-framed photographs and the Tudor atlas from the Royal Library at Windsor will also take a place among our most treasured mementos.

The news of your victory in the South Atlantic was received with happiness and relief here. We are glad that you have upheld the principle that armed aggression cannot be allowed to succeed, and in addition, that young men of the United Kingdom and Argentina will no longer be under fire.

Finally, may I express the joy of all Americans at the birth yesterday of your grandson. We wish the greatest happiness to him and his parents.

With warmest regards,

Ronald Reagan

Your Royal Highnesses:

Mrs. Reagan and I want you to know how much we appreciate the warmth and graciousness which you showed us during our visit to England. We have travelled a great deal over the years, but our welcome in England will always be one of our most cherished memories.

The beautiful Wedgwood vase and photograph you gave us will serve as special reminders of another gift you have given us -- your friendship.

With our warmest regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Ronald Reagan". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, prominent "R" at the beginning.

Their Royal Highnesses,
The Prince and Princess of Wales

Your Royal Highness and Captain Phillips:

My first trip to England as President will be one of my most cherished memories. Your kindness and the warm welcome which your countrymen extended will always be a special part of that memory.

Thank you for the beautiful photograph. Mrs. Reagan and I appreciate your thoughtfulness and your friendship.

With our warm regards,

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

BRITISH EMBASSY
WASHINGTON, D.C.

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

15th June 1982

Dear Mr. President,

Thank you both for the beautiful crystal bowl you gave us to commemorate your visit to Britain.

Mark and I were most pleased to be able to meet you at Windsor Castle and the chance to talk about non political subjects did - I hope - make the evening more relaxing for you.

I am much looking forward to my visit to Colorado, New Mexico and Texas this week as an opportunity to extend my knowledge of the United States and its people.

Yours sincerely,

Anne
