His Excellency
Ronald W. Reagan
President of the United States
of America
The White House
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mr. President:

On occasion of the thirtieth anniversary of the Food for Peace Program promoted through Public Law 480, I am pleased to convey to Your Excellency the gratitude of Peru and my own for the edifying achievements obtained worldwide by this extraordinary action of the United States.

During these three decades, the United States has not only shown its warm humanitarian feelings toward the developing countries but has brought into evidence a remarkable degree of progress in its agricultural production which has permitted the satisfaction of its own nutritional needs and the distribution of an appreciable surplus to many parts of the world under very favorable credit conditions and, in certain emergency circumstances, as a contribution to people in need.

The resources obtained in local currency from the sale of imported products in application of Public Law 480, have been used in excellent programs of development made possible by the transfer of funds in exceptionally favorable financial conditions. The sentiments of brotherhood inspired by this program are found both in the source and in the receiving end.

I take this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest and most distinguished consideration.

His Excellency
Ronald Reagan
President of the United States of America
Washington, D.C.

Mr President:

On the occasion of the 30th anniversary of the Food for Peace Program established by Public Law 480, it gives me great pleasure to express to Your Excellency the appreciation of Peru, together with my personal appreciation, for the admirable results achieved by that United States initiative which has had such a great impact worldwide.

For 30 years the United States has not only been sympathetic to the interests of the developing world but has also attained a noteworthy level of progress in agricultural production which has allowed it to meet its own nutritional needs and to obtain an appreciable surplus which has been distributed to many parts of the world under very favorable credit conditions and, in specific cases, has constituted a generous contribution to people in desperate need.

The funds in local currency obtained from the sale of commodities imported under PL 480 have been put to excellent use in development programs owing to their transfer under extremely favorable financial conditions. The feelings of brotherhood that inspired this program are evident in both its origin and the end results.

I should like to avail myself of this opportunity to renew to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

SUBJECT: Meeting with President Belaunde of Peru

Bob

Two requests have come to this office regarding the Thursday meeting:

- (1) President Belaunde has requested that his three children (Carolina, Raphael, Fernando--apparently in their 30s and 40s) be allowed to participate in the photo session with President Reagan. They would sit in the West Wing lobby while the two Presidents meet.
- (2) Ambassador William Middendorf has requested that he participate in the Oval Office meeting because he was the initiator of the Presidential meeting and Motley will be in New York. State has substituted DAS Lowell Kilday for Tony Motley.

RECOMMENDATION

That I be authorized to inform the Peruvians that President Belaunde's children will be allowed to have their photo taken with the Presidents.

That Ambassador William Middendorf be a participant at the meeting.

SUBJECT: Visit by Peruvian President Belaunde
September 27

Given the likelihood that economic/financial issues will be a subject, if not the focus, of President Reagan's September 27 meeting with President Belaunde of Peru, I would think that Secretary Regan's attendance would be very useful.

Treasury is prepared to provide, and in fact has already begun preparation of, briefing materials on economic issues for this visit. Should briefing materials on economic issues be prepared for the President by other agencies, Treasury would appreciate an opportunity to review those papers.

I would appreciate your keeping me advised of plans for the visit and of any assistance Treasury may provide to contribute to the success of this meeting.

THE SECRETARY OF TRANSPORTATION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20590

MAY 14 1985

Honorable Charles E. Bennett
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Charlie:

Your letters to President Reagan and the Civil Aeronautics Board relaying the views of your constituent, Mr. Chandler, on the current civil aviation situation with Peru were forwarded to the Department of Transportation for reply due to the closing of the Civil Aeronautics Board.

We share Mr. Chandler's view that U.S. citizens need access to freer and more flexible transportation to South America. However, we believe that each airline providing such service should enjoy a fair and equal opportunity to compete in the market. Our current civil aviation problems with Peru relate to Peru's unilateral restrictions on U.S. carriers. For example, Peru refused to renew U.S. carriers access to the Peru-Argentina market while its carriers had free access to the Argentina-U.S. market. Due to the volume of passengers, and the distance involved which produces higher revenues, the Argentina-U.S. market is several times more valuable than the Peru-Argentina market. This also created a situation whereby Peruvian carriers could sell to U.S. citizens air transportation between the United States and Argentina via intermediate points in Peru, but such service would not be authorized by Peru on a U.S. carrier.

We are sensitive to the image the United States may present in Peru and the rest of South America concerning these issues. However, other South American countries appreciate the importance of obtaining valuable reciprocal opportunities for their carriers from the United States and other countries. Thus, we believe they will understand the position taken by the United States in negotiations with Peru.

We regret the inconvenience to the public caused by the suspension of AeroPeru's service to the United States and are continuing to work with the Government of Peru toward resolving the situation. The U.S. Government submitted a proposal to Peru in September 1984. The Peruvians replied to it in January 1985. We are now awaiting Peru's reply to our February counterproposal. We continue to hope that we will be able to conclude an arrangement with Peru that offers fair and equal opportunity to the airlines of both countries.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Elizabeth".

Dear President Reagan:

I enclose herein a copy of my entire file with regard to a Peruvian airline situation. I know that you are terribly busy and would not be able to look into this matter yourself, but could you refer it to someone, on a fairly high level, to see whether we are doing the right thing down there. It seems to me that we are unnecessarily hurting the image of America by holding a big stick essentially for a big corporation, and a friendly corporation as far as I am concerned, but still a negative result with regard to our image, and an inconvenience to American travellers.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Dashle:

Enclosed please find a copy of the letter you sent me in August. I have talked to Mr. Chandler again today, and I am going to pass on to you the thoughts that he expressed in which I concur.

After talking this matter over with Mr. Chandler again today, he tells me that he feels that it is highly unfair to the public to have the present situation continue wherein the Peruvian line, the chief source of flights throughout Central and South America for all passengers, is being precluded from being used by Americans who want to take off from the United States and proceed southward in their business and negotiations, etc. This seems to be a burden to Mr. Chandler which he feels is highly unfair to him and other American citizens.

He also feels that it is bad to the image of the United States because from the perspective of people in Peru and in South America generally it looks as if a great big nation like the United States is taking the side of a corporate entity in the United States in a dispute which would be the normal prerogative of the small country to decide upon since it involves permission for flights from that smaller country.

Mr. Chandler realizes this is a very difficult thing for one Congressman and one thoughtful traveller to present in a maze of inter-governmental negotiations and lawyers and corporations vying for whatever would be best for themselves. His main point in coming to me to begin with was the need for Americans to have a freer type of transportation, free in the sense of easy movement, not in the sense of dollars. The second point which is almost as important to Mr. Chandler, who is dedicated to international amity, is that he feels that the image, as above referred to, of the United States in these circumstances is bound to be quite negative on these smaller countries.

Ms. Linda Hall Dashle

He says that there is a way to circumvent this matter somewhat in that tickets can be bought in Miami for Panama and then southward on the Air Peru route. The route from Miami to Panama being the Panamanian Company. Therefore, it seems to be that there has been a way established where the situation can be circumvented to a degree, but the points raised by Mr. Chandler still have a very strong degree of importance it seems to me and to him.

Could you fill me in as to whether any progress is being made on this matter?

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Charlie:

Re: AeroPeru

Thank you very much for your letter, together with the explanation by the Civil Aeronautic Board. This was extremely interesting.

I'm attaching a copy of AeroPeru's advertisement in the Official Airline Guide. The schedule shows that you have to fly to Kingston, Jamaica on Air Jamaica (at their expense) in order to continue on AeroPeru. Of course, this is an inconvenience to the travelers and an expense to AeroPeru. I hope that it works itself out in the near future.

I appreciate very much your efforts, and I hope that they may possibly have done some good.

With kind regards.

Sincerely yours,

John B. Chandler

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20428

IN REPLY REFER TO:

8-90-56

AUG 15 1984

Honorable Charles E. Bennett
House of Representatives
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Bennett:

This is in reply to your letter of July 10 requesting information on our civil aviation relations with Peru.

The Air Transport Agreement of 1946 governed U.S. civil aviation relations with Peru for many years. It expired on November 11, 1983, after the Government of Peru gave the required notice of termination.

With the expiration of the Agreement, the Board proceeded to assess the operating authority of the Peruvian carriers (AeroPeru, Faucett and Aeronaves del Peru) under the principles of comity and reciprocity which now govern our civil aviation relationship. In November 1983 the Board found that comity and reciprocity justified allowing the Peruvian carriers to maintain their existing operations (but not to retain any unused rights) for a short-term period (Order 83-11-49). In January 1984 the Board again extended the Peruvian carrier authority until April 30 (Order 84-1-134) and in April it granted a final extension until May 21, 1984 (Order 84-4-108).

Throughout this period the U.S. Government attempted to negotiate with the Government of Peru regarding the outstanding civil aviation problems. The most immediate problems involved Peru's refusal to issue Eastern, the U.S. carrier operating combination service to Peru, a license to serve the Lima-Buenos Aires route and to grant Challenge, the U.S. all-cargo carrier, the right to serve Panama on its Miami-Lima route.

Longer term problems revolve around our continued efforts to reach an arrangement with Peru that would give the carriers of both sides some flexibility to adjust services and prices in response to market conditions and would permit an increase in capacity levels that have been frozen since 1975.

With regard to our immediate problems, a U.S. carrier has served the Lima-Buenos Aires sector for many years. When Braniff declared bankruptcy in May 1982, the Board awarded its U.S.-South America route to Eastern. The Peruvians licensed Eastern to operate from Miami to Peru via specified intermediate points and beyond Peru to Bolivia, Paraguay and Chile, but they did not license the carrier to take over Braniff's Lima-Buenos Aires service.

Honorable Charles E. Bennett (2)

The Government of Peru tacitly allowed Eastern to operate its aircraft beyond Santiago to Buenos Aires, but the carrier could not advertise its Lima-Buenos Aires service in Peru and it had to double ticket passengers on the route (i.e., issue one ticket for Lima-Santiago and another for Santiago-Buenos Aires). Furthermore, the situation put Eastern in continual danger of a court proceeding in Peru for operating a service without formal authorization.

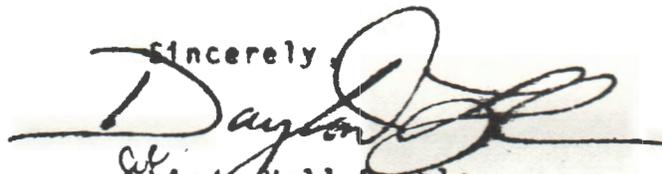

Meanwhile, the Peruvian carrier, taking advantage of Peru's geographic position, continued to offer service from Miami to Buenos Aires via Lima, thus placing the U.S. carrier at a competitive disadvantage.

In the all-cargo area, two Peruvian carriers operated to Miami via Panama. Approval of Challenge's application to add Panama to its route would put the U.S. carrier on an equal footing with its Peruvian counterparts.

After repeated negotiations, including intergovernmental talks last November and February, failed to resolve this problem, the Board determined that Peru's failure to grant the requests of Eastern and Challenge demonstrated an absence of reciprocity. The Board declined to renew the Peruvian carriers' operating authority under those circumstances, and Peruvian service to the United States terminated on May 21, 1984. Subsequently, Eastern and Challenge terminated their services to Peru.

Discussions continue between representatives of the Governments of the United States and Peru. We hope that we will be able to conclude an arrangement with Peru that offers fair and equal opportunity to the airlines of both countries.

Sincerely,

Linda Hall Dashle

Gentlemen:

My constituent, John Chandler, P. O. Box 44, Atlantic Beach, Florida 32233, called and told me that he was very distressed at what he read in the newspapers in the Civil Aeronautics Board denying landing rights to the Peruvian Airlines Aero Peru, apparently because the Peruvian government would not allow Eastern Airlines to pick up passengers in Peru. Mr. Chandler feels that this is very unfair. I don't know enough about the situation to discuss it with him and am bringing it to your attention and will very much appreciate your checking into it and letting me have any information you have relative to Aero Peru and Eastern so that I can discuss it intelligently with Mr. Chandler.

With kindest regards, I am

Sincerely,

Charles E. Bennett

FROM: JACQUELINE TILLMAN AT

SUBJECT: Appointment of Cesar Guillermo Atala of the Republic of Peru as Ambassador to the United States

The Government of the Republic of Peru has asked for agreement for Cesar Guillermo Atala as its Ambassador to the United States. The information available reveals no grounds for objection. Atala is very knowledgeable about the United States because he served at the Inter-American Development Bank for over 15 years. He appears to be favorably disposed to the U.S. as well.

PLEASE NOTE: The Peruvians are anxious to receive agreement because the Peruvian Senate, which will confirm the appointment, recesses in early December. We would be grateful for a quick turnaround on this action.
