Dear Elizabeth:

ONE
Attached are some pictures and information on a carving which was done by a Mexican-American who works for a former subsidiary of ours. The company has since been sold but Mr. Lopez still feels he is part of our company.

He would like very much to give this carving to the President of the United States to give to the President of Mexico from President Reagan, Dart Industries and Home Interiors and Gifts, Inc., whose President is Mary Crowley. Of course, Dart Industries or Home Interiors would not have to be a part of the gift if there is any conflict.

I have no feeling one way or the other except to bring this to your attention on behalf of Mr. Lopez. It really doesn't mean a thing to me but I did want to pass it along for any possibility or merit you might see in it.

Regards,

Dear Mr. Dart:

I am deeply honored by the request from your office to obtain my carving "Americas". This carving was done with the hope that through the medium of art, better relationships could be inspired among different nations.

I personally have great admiration and respect for our president, Mr. Ronald Reagan. I would be very happy to help in his efforts to improve our lovely country and our relationship with other countries...especially the Spanish speaking countries.

While I would gratefully accept any remuneration to make possible the continuation of my work, my prime rewards are the pride and honor this request has given to me and my family. If at all possible, I would like very much for myself and my family to be present at the time "Americas" is presented to President Reagan and/or to the President of the United States of Mexico.

I will be happy to cooperate in any way you ask. Please let me know what the next step should be so that I may begin preparing the carving for shipment.

Sincerely,

Jay J. Lopez

Dear Mr. President:

During this difficult period in our nations history when we have allowed all of the destructive, non-productive, and under performing people to destroy our faith in one another, ridicule basic decency and demean our faith in God, I had the pleasure of meeting a man who has refused to give up his faith in people, government and God.

Briefly let me tell you about this man, Jay Lopez. He is a Mexican immigrant, who has recently become an American citizen, and is employed as a sculptor for a company here in Syracuse, "Syroco." Jay was concerned about the relations between the United States and our neighbors to the South, particularly Mexico. His concern was the motivation for the creation of a beautiful walnut and bronze plaque depicting the United States, (Uncle Sam), and Mexico, (the Mexican Eagle), trying together to destroy the snake (misunderstanding). His hope was, and still is, that in some way his plaque may be displayed as an encouragement for all peoples for better understanding.

As president of the International Management Council of Central New York (sponsored by the YMCA) it has been my pleasure to have Mr. Lopez's plaque exhibited here in Syracuse. The plaque has been received enthusiastically. We are writing to you in hopes of encouraging you to display this magnificent sculpture in Washington, for many to see, while you are in the presidency.

Mr. Justin Dart, a member of your advisory board, is acquainted with Mr. Lopez and has indicated to him an interest in assisting him.

"Americas"

This original, carved in walnut and bronze was made in 1980.

It was my hope that through the medium of art, better relations could be inspired among different nationalities, toward improved job development so everybody will work and share in the quality of life with harmony.

Uncle Sam represents the United States of America.

The eagle and coat of arms represent the Spanish speaking countries.

The diabolical figure is representative of the animosity which interferes with the development of good relations.

The Latin inscription means:

"All who work diligently will achieve victory".

Jay J. Lopez G.

"Americas"

Este original, tallado en nogal bronce, fue echo en 1980.

Yo quiero que por medio del arte, se inspiren mejores relaciones con las diferentes nacionalidades, y sirra para el revelamiento de empleos, para que todos Trabajando, participen de la vida con harmonia.

Tio Samuel reprecenta a Estados Unidos de America.

El aguilu y el escudo reprecenta los paises de habla Espanola.

La diabolica figura reprecenta las advitrariedades que inpiden las buenas relaciones.

La inscription Latina significa que:

"Todos los que trabajan diligentemente alcansan victoria".

Jay J. Lopez G.
