WASHINGTON

October 21, 1984

Dear Mr. Mayer:

The White House Photography Office has asked us to review a deed of gift submitted by the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House in connection with the gift to the Museum of seven chromogenic prints of the President by Michael Evans. I am returning the deed of gift unsigned.

The photographs in question have all been released into the public domain by the White House. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 105, the Government can have no copyright interest in the photographs. Accordingly, there is no right, title, or interest to be conveyed. The Museum, like any other entity, is free to use the photographs for any legitimate purpose. There is no need for a deed of gift.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM:

JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT:

Deed of Gift for Photographic Prints

Mike Evans has given the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House seven White House photographs of the President. The Museum has asked the White House to execute a boilerplate deed of gift conveying all right, title, and interest in the photographs to the Museum.

The photographs in question have been released into the public domain, and accordingly the Government has no right, title, or interest in them. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 105, the Government can have no copyright in the photographs. The Museum is free to display the photographs, reproduce them, and even sell the reproductions. Since the deed of gift is unnecessary, I recommend that it not be executed. Signing the deed may suggest to others that the White House had an interest in the photographs, which it assigned to the Museum. In fact, the Museum has no more and no less right to use the photographs than anyone else. A letter to the Museum incorporating the above is attached for your review and signature.

Dear Mr. Evans:

I am enclosing a copy of our Deed of Gift forms for signature of someone who can authorize the gift of the seven color prints of President Reagan to this Museum.

I assume that these should be shown as a gift from The White House to the Museum, even though they were all taken by you. Obviously this Deed of Gift does not come to this Museum with any of the copyrights to the photographs but conveys the photographic property (the photographs themselves) and the right to use them for museum purposes, i.e. in museum catalogues, exhibitions, etc. If you have any problem with this, please call me.

Sincerely yours,

Robert A. Mayer

P.S. This is just a note for our use in preparing labels for the exhibition. We always include birth dates on the photographer. If you could, please let me know the year of your birth so that our information is complete on the label. Thank you.

Dear Miss Wilson:

I am writing to you with regard to my abovenamed constituents whose plight was brought to my attention by Assemblyman John Cochrane, a close friend and neighbor of the Cormier family.

It seems that the family recently had a robbery in their home. Among the missing items, were two sets of gold tie-bars and cuff links and two charms embossed with the Presidential Seal, which had been presented to the family by President Nixon when Mrs. Cormier's husband was being held prisoner in Vietnam.

As you can well imagine, these items were treasured by the family and they are very distressed by the loss. If there is any way that these items could be replaced, it would mean a great deal to the family, as well as to myself and to Assemblyman Cochrane.

As a point of information, Captain Arthur Cormier, whose status as a P.O.W. prompted this gift, has long-since returned to the United States and continues to serve his country in the United States Army.

Your assistance in this matter will be most appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Irwin:

I can certainly understand why you weren't able to be with us. I hope you enjoyed your visit to France. It sounds like an exciting time on that side of the ocean as well. I thought you might like to have these photographs that were taken when the Apollo astronauts visited the White House so that you will have some memento of how the day was here.

Dear Mr. President,

I deeply regret that I was unable to attend your reception to honor the Apollo astronauts. Please forgive me. I was invited by the French aviation and space community to speak on this special day in Meribel. Their whole activity was built around the moon theme so they really needed my presence representing the American program. I am certain that you would understand our long-standing American commitment to our European friends.

When the luncheon was to be held on the 18 July, I had planned to return for it. When the date was changed to the 20th, I had no choice really.

I am enclosing the program for "Une Semaine sur la Lune." You can see that I was the only American invited and my scheduled time was on Friday, 20 July. Even if we had space transportation available from France to America, I could still not satisfy both requirements. Again, I ask for your understanding and forgiveness.

With respect and admiration,

James B. Irwin

I believe Jesus Christ walking on the earth is more important than man walking on the moon. Just as surely as He walked 2000 years ago, He wants to walk today in your life. All you have to do is call upon Him. He wants you to have life and have it more abundantly. John 10:10. You do this by acknowledging your need of a Savior. Your first prayer must be, "Lord, help me a sinner", and then invite Him into your life by faith. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth and the life. No man cometh unto the Father but by me." John 14:6.

I will pray that as you read this you will yield your life to the Master and let Him guide your footprints.

Jim Irwin
APOLLO 15 ☾

In 1972, Colonel James B. Irwin founded High Flight Foundation, an interdenominational Christian foundation dedicated to share the Good News that "God walking on the earth is more important than man walking on the moon."

I felt very special when I looked down at my footprints on the moon. The scientists said that they would be there for a million years. Looking up I could see the earth the size of a marble. It was so beautiful and so far away, and yet, I felt strangely at home on the moon.

When we left the earth, we carried a microfilmed copy of a prayer covenant. It was signed by those in my church.

After returning to earth, people around the world told me, "I prayed for you."

I was aware of that power on the moon. The days I spent on the moon were very exciting. Not because I was there but because God was there. I could feel His presence. There were difficult times when I prayed and the answer was immediate. "He was there because of your prayers," I have told so many.

God guided us to the discovery of the white rock, "The Genesis Rock". It was a modern day revelation. The rock was sitting on another rock almost free from dust. It was lifted up and gleaming in the sunlight. It seemed to be saying, "Here am I, take me!" God works in mysterious and wonderful ways. This was a mountaintop experience.

My valley experience was in 1961. I had just graduated from test pilot school and considered myself one of the "hottest" pilots in the sky. One morning as I was flying with a student in a light aircraft, we crashed. The plane did not burn, but we were seriously injured - broken legs, broken jaw, many teeth gone, concussion, multiple lacerations. When I awakened in the hospital, doctors told me I probably would not fly again. You can imagine my despair.

I called out to God, "Why did this happen to me?" As I lay in the hospital, I had much time to pray. I prayed for understanding and healing. I knew God loved me. I had invited Jesus Christ to be my Lord and Savior when I was 11 years old. God made it possible for me to fly again.

My love for going fast and high led me to the space program. I prepared for five years for that one flight. It was preparation of body, mind, and spirit. In 1971, ten years after the near tragic accident, I was ready to go to the moon.

When our mission returned, I thanked the men who designed and built our spacecraft, those who helped us operate the systems during the flight, those fellow Americans who paid for our trip, those dear friends around the world who had prayed for our success, and I thanked God for allowing us to leave the earth and explore a portion of His heavens.

The flight medallions carried by Apollo 15 have the following inscription, "Man's flight thru life is sustained by the power of his knowledge." Now I know my flight through life has been sustained by the power of my knowledge of Jesus Christ.

When I was on the moon, I was inspired to quote from Psalm 121, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help?" I knew my help was coming from the Lord who made the heavens and the earth. He made the moon and made it possible for Jim Irwin to place his footprints there.

I hope you will forgive my not writing to you more quickly but, unfortunately, it sometimes takes a while for messages to work their way through the system before they reach my desk.

Dear Mr. President, I heard on a quiz show a week or so ago, some news that broke my heart. I will be 99 years old the last of Sept - a widow for 30 years - 30 long years.
On the quiz show they asked what you did with the jelly beans you received as gifts. I and they answered that you threw them out. As I adore jelly beans that made me weep. My Social Security

check of 277, a month is every time I have. And that does not allow much for goodies. Usually on day I receive ^{check}, I also receive a notice from Blue Cross and Blue shield that my quarterpremium is increased. Last time I paid 75. more - time before that it was 96. quarters
by. Doctors and medicine take their share so that I have very little left. Thus please don't throw any more jelly beans out unless you throw them in my direction.

Mrs. Albert A. Rogers

I have prayed for you every night since that attempt on your life and ask the good Lord to watch over you and your lovely Nancy and give you more happy years together. And I'm sure you will win
the election - I am praying for that too. By now the Lord will wonder if Gerald

You and your dear Nancy

My writing is dreadful,

do much better. Bye now and God be with you always.

Dear Mr. Larkin:

Mr. J. Robert O'Keefe, a member of the 101st Airborne Division Association, has written President Reagan and asked that he respond to you regarding gifts for the citizens of Eindhoven, the Netherlands, and Bastogne, Belgium. He suggested that these gifts would be presented during events marking the commemoration of the 40th anniversary of Operation Market-Garden.

Throughout 1984, communities all over Western Europe are celebrating the anniversary of their liberation from the oppression of World War II. Through the end of the year, for example, we are aware of some 70 separate events in at least five different countries. Many of these programs will be attended by U.S. veterans of the campaigns concerned.

Knowing that it would be impossible to honor all requests from veterans groups, the President chose to attend ceremonies in Normandy, France, this past June as the guest of President Mitterrand. This program served to honor symbolically all World War II veterans, living or dead, their families, and their contributions in the cause of freedom.

The gesture of your association in bringing gifts to the children of these communities is indeed thoughtful and a clear indication of the unquestioned generosity of the American people. The President deeply appreciates the consideration of your membership in writing and wishes you every success for a memorable and enjoyable return to Europe.

Dear Mr. President:

The 101st Airborne Division is going to Holland and Belgium to celebrate the 40th Anniversary of "Operation: Market Garden", the area's liberation from the Nazis.

I am taking thousands of American flags and toys for the children that we will meet along the way. We would appreciate it if you could send a gift to the citizens of Eindhoven, Holland on September 18th and Bastogne, Belgium on September 23rd.

General McAuliff's response of "NUTS" to the German surrender demand has caused the California Almond Growers Exchange, of Sacramento, to donate a thousand bags of nuts for the people of Bastogne.

The Co-Chairman for this event is Mr. Bernie Larkin, 28 Ironwood Road, Levittown, Pennsylvania, 19057, Phone 1-800-523-7287, for shipment of your donation or any questions.

Thank you for your kind consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Dear Jack,

I am the proud possessor of a set of cuff links from the Office of the President. Martha McSteen tells me that it was through your efforts that I have this wonderful memento of my federal service. For this I am deeply grateful.

I know that I need not regale you with happenings in SSA. You are, I am sure, quite aware of them. Financing seems to have quieted down and I think we do have an excellent opportunity to improve our credibility and image with the public. Things are a bit hectic as we prepare to implement the disability legislation, but those of us who have been around for awhile would probably get restless if we ever reached some placid plateau. I suspect that things might even be a bit active in the White House these days.

Again, Jack, thank you for your thoughtfulness. If your business or pleasure ever brings you to Seattle, to use an old Irish expression, "The cork shall lie always loose in the bottle" at the Sutcliffe house.

Sincerely,

Don S.

Dear Mr. President:

I greatly appreciated, and will always value most highly, the beautiful crystal box you sent for Christmas.

Reflecting, as one does at this time of year, on all the many events of the past, I have to say again that by far the most significant and happy event of all is the opportunity to work with you, and helping in a small way to carry out the complete change in attitudes, philosophy and manner of dealing with the problems of the world that you embarked on nearly 20 years ago.

It is a source of continuing delight and gratitude to me to see to what an enormous extent you have been able to change these attitudes of the vast majority of Americans, as well as of so many people and leaders abroad. That is a continuing reason for the great gratitude which all of us who have had the privilege of working with you must share. To realize the strong and entrenched nature of the old policies in the United States and elsewhere for increasing governmental involvement to solve all of these problems, and to recall the former approach of most people as to the need for military and other strength, is but to measure the magnitude of your achievement in changing those viewpoints and policies. That surely ultimately must be counted as one of the great achievements of history. While I know that others have also in recent years talked about some of these same things, you were the first who was willing to put into practice these principles, then derided by the great majority, but now accepted by an even larger majority. To do all of this within such a short span of time is a most remarkable accomplishment indeed.

All of the above is a rather too portentous way of saying that it is a continuing high honor to be able to work along in a small way in this whole vital process you have initiated. Furthermore, and probably equally important, is the fact that you have made it all a great deal of fun to work with you, and that may be the best accomplishment of all!
