THE WHITE HOUSE OFFICE

November 27, 1984

Mr. M.B. Oglesby
White House Senate Liason
Washington D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Oglesby,

This letter comes to you in sincerity and with an earnest desire to obtain an autographed tie clip by President Reagan.

I suspect that your immediate reaction will be negative, but I am hoping that after you understand my predicament and realize how meaningful it would be to my father, you might be able to grant this desire.

First, you must know that I have every intention of paying for the clip, and I have tried every possible resource and person on the Hill that I am aware of who could help me before writing to you directly, because I really didn't want to bother you.

My mother sings with the Mormon Tabernacle Choir and was given an autographed tie clip as a gift for singing in a concert for the President. Unfortunately the clip recently broke, and I have not been able to locate a replacement anywhere. Since my father has been a loyal Reagan supporter for years and has the utmost admiration for President Reagan, I know that there could not be a man more deserving of such a gift. My father asked me to see if there would be any possible way that I could obtain a replacement. He very rarely asks for anything and the clip would be very meaningful to him.

I was told to contact you through a letter but if you would be able to respond directly to me as soon as possible it would be greatly appreciated, because I am truly desperate, and will be leaving in two weeks.

Enclosed is a check for $20.00, along with my address and telephone number. If the cost is greater than $20.00 please let me know. Thank you so much.

Sincerely,

Janet Zarbock

President Ronald Reagan
Attention: 16991
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Ron:

Lyn Nofziger wouldn't have to ride, he can just visit the camps and walk. I'll watch over him. There's gold in those hills of ours. Let's tap it. If I can raise $400,000 to $500,000 dollars there for you and me being just a poor ole country boy from Texas - not knowing what I'm doing - what could Lyn do?... in a week??? I'll get him in as a guest and put up his trek fee. So there's no cost. It's a natural and I'll shut up if you think this is out of line. Just give it a thought and call me if you change your mind. There's not much time left...I'll leave on the 28th for California.

The Bustardos (my camp) is having Christmas in May for our Ranchero Party this year. I'm the M.C. Santa. We're lighting up with Christmas lights, a sleigh, reindeer, pinatas, a 60 foot tree, and naturally gifts; wine from Firestone, George Hearst is giving me a year's subscription to Town & Country, The Red book, Cosmopolitan, Good Housekeeping, etc., etc. (plus 6 other magazines he owns). Bob Strub - 6 passes to the Director's Room - lunch and valet parking at Santa Anita. The same for Del Mar and Los Alamitos. A blue quail hunting trip with Jack White - all expenses including room and board paid. Plus 20 other super prizes -- watches, radios and the like. It will be done on a Santa, name and number blind drawing. I'll get you some pins and gifts and such and mail them off to Washington on my return to Arizona. Just had a thought, if your secretary, Mrs. Donaldson, has an extra set of cufflinks (the executive set) with a card saying "Merry Christmas" from you, it would be a highlight. If you can't, no problem, if you can, great!

Some day you'll be back with us, out on the open trail, stars overhead, and with all your amigos by the campfires. If I haven't thanked you lately for all you've given up for all of us, then let me thank you again and again. We'll miss you, Amigo, and all our love, protection and good wishes go out to you and your precious Nancy. She's the classic First Lady, a true gem.

Take care, and all our best,

As always,

Thomas M. O'Brien

Dear Mr. President:

I want to take this opportunity to express to you and to Nancy my sincerest appreciation for the beautiful clock which you sent to me on the occasion of my 70th birthday. It is really a beauty and it is extremely practical since it is easy to tell what time it is anyplace in the world. It now adorns my desk in Los Angeles, but since I am spending almost all of my time in Rome, I will be taking it there with me when we return after the Inauguration.

I had the good fortune to see Nancy while I was in Washington last week and I must say she looks terrific.

With every best wish, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Dear Miss Sam and Miss Bertha:

I'm happy to learn that Doe-Ryius is doing so well after her leg amputation, and I've written Dr. McCrystle a short note to commend him for his help. It always amazes me how animals seem to adjust to serious illness or the loss of a limb so much easier than people.

I'm sending you a Western belt buckle to add to your Memorial Western room for Buzzy, and I'll watch for the cowboy hat and will sign and return it to you.

Since the enclosed Inaugural Invitation was the official one, I have inscribed it to you two and Buzzy, rather than writing out a separate one. Also, my secretary indicated that she will be sending you some souvenir Inaugural key chains along with the belt buckle.

With my personal best wishes to you both,

Sincerely,

Ronald

January 28, 1985

Happy Birthday President Reagan!

Our fond wish for your happiness might be a few days early, but we want you to know how pleased we are to send this token for your day of days. The saying is quite true, no?

Of course we all knew you would be our President again for the next four years, all our prayers and blessing are with you and Nancy for your health, happiness, love, success and peace.

Yes without our dear Buzzy's physical presence we are lonesome, but not lonely because we know he is living fully, in a land that has no heartaches.

Enclosed is copy of our letter to Dr. McCrystle. He wanted us to let him know our feelings about a month after Doe-Ryius had her amputation. We wanted to share it with you and Nancy.

It is a miracle how such a large Doberman has accepted the loss of her foreleg. Our problem is to keep her slowed down from running too fast. Isn't doggies just wonderful. Some humans in a situation like Doe-Ryius would constantly complain...but not wonderful animals.

You know the three albums we are making, could you be wonderful again and personally write one special invitation to your Inauguration Ball and do write our three names on it: Sam, Buzzy and Bertha. This invitation will be placed in Buzzy's album.

After reading our enclosed copy letter to Dr. McCrystle could you send him a few words thanking him for saving the life of such a fine dog as Doe-Ryius and how his teaching helped Bertha and I to cope with a three legged dog. Did we ever tell you, Dr. McCrystle is also a professor at Santa Rosa State one night a week, he teaches animal husbandry and told us he read our letter to him, twice to his same class they appreciated it so. Hope you like it.

Little Doll-Lee-Joe our dear white poodle will be 17 June 25th and she's lost her hearing and most of her sight. Isn't it something, the dear little animals cope so much better with their problems than humans. Dr. McCrystle does everything for her for us, she's the oldest doggie we've had...like loved ones you miss them so when you lay them to rest....least ways our belief is we'll all be reunited in a land far better than earth, and we'll have our pets again. How could God be happy without a puppy by his side? Doll-Lee-Joe is still playful as a puppy, but she has six of her own kind to keep her happy. We have 7 dogs, boy you can tell your troubles to them, and they always listen so good.

P.S. Your Birthday token we made to match your Christmas belts -

When the two men came from the Chapel Oct. 17th to take Buzzy, would you imagine none of the 7 doggies acted up or barked...they always carry on so when strangers enter the property, but not then. They knew Buzzy had passed on, each one of the 7 dogs came to his side, laid their heads on his stilled form, gave one final lick to his face and ever so slowly filed from the room...they walked so very slow like they were experiencing our same sadness...and they say dogs don't talk.

Not goin' ask, goin' to do. Within the next few days we're returning to you your cowboy hat you had sent dear Buzzy. He loved it so. Now will you be so wonderful like you always are and do this for us? When you receive back your hat, would you autograph it to Buzzy from you and write something nice on it. The hat will be placed in Buzzy's Western part of his Memorial room in the museum. And for Buzzy's Memorial Western room, would you have anything Western you could present in your name to Buzzy. old boots, anything horsey, something anything Western? That would be Great!

When you and Nancy finally are able to visit our ranch, you'll find a strange form of peace and quiet in a land where God dwells in the beauty of nature and His handiwork.

Back to Doe-Ryius our 3 legged Dobberman. When I say to her: "Shake-a-paw," you should see her reach out far as she can with that tiny stub, she swings her shoulder out until she places her shoulder in my hand. You can't help but want to puddle-up and turn the water-works on, but Bertha and the doctor says NOT in front of Doe-Ryius. Isn't animals the best? How they do whatever you ask of them.

Wish you could train Congress like this!

So you don't forget, we'll list:

- 1-- Write in your own handwriting 1 special invitation to your Inauguration Ball and write our three names on it, Sam, Buzzy and Bertha. It'll be lovingly placed in Buzzy's album.
- 2-- Do send Dr. McCrystle a letter of thanks after reading our copy letter....thank him for being such a fine teacher and veterinarian.
- 3-- Tell Kathy to be on the lookout for a hat box, with your hat in it...instructions will be in this box. Tell the White House NOT to misplace your hat to Buzzy, 'cause no other hat will serve.

Again Happy Birthday, take care, all our blessing are always with you and Nancy,

Vaya con Dios

Miss Sam & Miss Bertha - always Buzzy.

January - 8 - 1985 - Skaldsburg, Calif. 95448

Dr. Mc Crystle you taught Sister Sam and I that life without a ray of Hope, though "Doe Ryius" required amputation of her right foreleg, would be an empty world, like a garden without flowers and nature's little creatures, or a year without seasons. We know not what tomorrow will bring, or where the trails will lead. Time so swiftly rolls ahead, if it be with a Loved One or a Beloved Pet, with no time for hesitation. Yesterday we cannot relive, bygone years cannot come back. Oh! what memories, they cannot erase those happy days. The future is yet to come for sure. Today is here and much to give. Yes Dr. Mc Crystle you taught us to use and cherish every moment as we go along the way. You have brought sunlight into the lives of Sister Sam and I by being a wonderful Veterinarian that you are to our "Beloved Dogs." This act of yours cannot help but bring the sunshine back to you.

Yes Dr. Mc Crystle, yesterday is but a dream and tomorrow is only a vision, but today well lived makes yesterday a dream of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of Hope! Hope is the greatest force in life but Love conquers all. "Doe Ryius" will be 7 Feb. 14th, age means nothing to her, she will never lose her love for life; her fears of only having 3 legs are gone, her Faith in herself has grown stronger, "Doe Ryius" knows she is Loved!

Bertha & I are Glad to our Beloved Pets, be they have 3 or 4 legs & through your extremely Fine & Firm teachings & being such a Grand Veterinarian I've taught "Doe Ryius" to believe God is never ashamed. Dr. Mc Crystle YOU taught us to never deprive a Beloved Dog to live out her life span and because of that we can only say: Gratitude is the hardest of all emotions to express. There will be no words capable of conveying all that ones feel. Untill we reach a world where vocabulary knows no bounds, we have chosen to express ourselves by saying - "BLESS & THANK YOU."

Always, Miss Bertha & Miss Sam Sisco
May the trails you travel be always Bright & Clear!

Dear Mr. President & Nancy.

Now that I'm home again with my newly-unpinched nerve and feeling much better, I want to let you and The President know how much I appreciate the lovely flowers you sent while I was in the hospital. They cheered me up immensely.

As you can imagine, I was terribly disappointed to have to miss the Inaugural ceremonies - most especially the elegant private swearing-in on Sunday, which I was so looking forward to and the prayer service on Monday morning. But my spirits were buoyed in knowing that you and the President had graciously made it possible for my daughter to alternate in taking my place beside their father. It gave me real pleasure to know that were able to experience first-hand such historic moments - and, of course it thrilled them too!

I reserve my largest and warmest thanks to you for the wonderful job you are doing for our country. You and the President are a superb couple and stand as an example and an inspiration to all of us,

Fondly
O. Bie

This is getting to be a pretty letter. But I have one more thing.
Our son Phil was so excited that you mentioned his picture when you wrote back to us. He had to take it to school to show his teachers and classmates. I will keep that letter with my treasures always. For I was also thrilled to get that letter. So, in to you. Keep up the good work.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you. God Bless You and

Dear Ronald:

I know how busy you are and don't have time to read all the letters that are sent to you.
That is why I don't write more often. I hope you have time to read this one. I was very happy to receive a letter from you letting me know that you got the pictures. I am writing to you now to inform you that Elsie Walters is back in the hospital again. I don't know if you remember that she had a stroke on the right side which left her paralyzed on the same.
She was getting along fine. This happened Nov. 4-1961. She is ... confined to a wheel chair most of the time. She could walk a very little with a cane. Well, on Dec. 31-1962 she got up out of bed to go to the bathroom around 2:00 A.M. She fell and broke her right hip. So she is back in the hospital again.

I'm not sure now if she will be able to walk again or not.
She gets depressed and sometimes discouraged, but then she gets up her hopes to get back home again.
We do not know yet when she can leave the hospital. She may have to come and live with us for a while again.

I guess you were notified of the death of Dennis Smith. That fellow just thought the world of you. He sure didn't have much of a life. Nor did his brother that passed away a few years ago. That seemed such a shame that Milford and Marian had 2 boys and both of them with such a terrible disease.

I appreciate your concern and thoughts for Harold. He is still in very bad health and unable to work. He has 2 appointments at Iowa City, Iowa Hospital for Feb. 8 and 9. I hope they can do something for him.
He gets very depressed also.

My dear Mr. President:

On my return from Spain where I attended your recent visit, I take the opportunity to thank you for the crystal goblet given so kindly as a memento of this event. It is lovely and will be kept among the more cherished mementos of my career.

It is my hope that your visit was happy and successful.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Reagan:

We were not only delighted to receive the flowers you sent to George Washington University Hospital one month ago, but especially thrilled when the letter you sent our new son Benjamin arrived shortly after we returned home.

Your words of advice will be cherished by us, as they will be by Benjamin, for many years to come. You have already played a very large role in Benjamin's life as we met on the 1980 campaign and happily were married not long after your inauguration.

Your counsel to Benjamin is also treasured by us as a vivid reminder of the reasons we serve your Administration -- reasons which will be passed down in family lore to Benjamin in the years ahead.

Although Benjamin's birth is, of course, the most important event of the year for us, we are especially appreciative of the fact that, with the many important affairs you must attend to, you took the time to send the flowers and letter.

It is a great honor to serve your Administration. Thank you again for your thoughtfulness.

Sincerely,

John, Karen and Benjamin Roberts
