My dear President:

Thank you very much for your good wishes on our twenty fifth wedding anniversary and the warm and kind feelings you express in your letter.

These twenty five years in which we have worked together, with and for our people, have not always been easy but, they have been certainly always rewarding. With the help of God and of good friends such as you, we shall strive to continue to fulfil our task and hope that He will give Spain peace, prosperity and understanding with Her friends and allies during the rest of our reign.

The Queen joins me in sending you her thanks. And we both hope to see you both as soon as possible.

Dear Dutch:

We arrived home late Saturday night from our trip to Washington and seeing you at The White House. It was wonderful seeing you in the Oval Office and you looked great and one wouldn't know you were about to undergo a physical checkup and some surgery. I'm so glad everything was O.K. with you.

I'm so happy to have also seen so many lovely historic rooms. It's a visit I'll never forget.

Thank you so much for the lovely key chain gift. I think I'll wear mine on a chain for a necklace.

It was fun seeing you and Nancy and Rex off on the helicopter, and hope you had a good weekend at Camp David. Rex surely is a cute little dog.

Best wishes to you and Nancy in the days ahead, and thank you so much for inviting us to visit you in your lovely home.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Helen Lantieri

Dear Ann Schuette

I must have mis-spelled a word.

I didn't say pen pal - I said pin pal.

I didn't know whether I might be sending you pins that were not worthy of your collection or not of any use to you.

I'll soon have some more either to send or bring to our Anne to deliver.

Now you mentioned post cards - look what happens.

Thanks for your very nice letter.

Sincerely Ronald Reagan

Dear President Reagan:

I was thrilled to get your letter!
Thank you very much. As far as I'm concerned, you are not over-doing the "pen-thing" as you say. I love to get letters and especially from you. I feel so very honored. I know how busy you are so when you take the time to send me a note I really appreciate it.

I have to make a special effort not to write to you. I have a tendency to write long letters + I don't want to bother you. If you want me to write to you more or less just let me know; but I must warn you ~ it is easier for me to write ten pages than ten sentences!

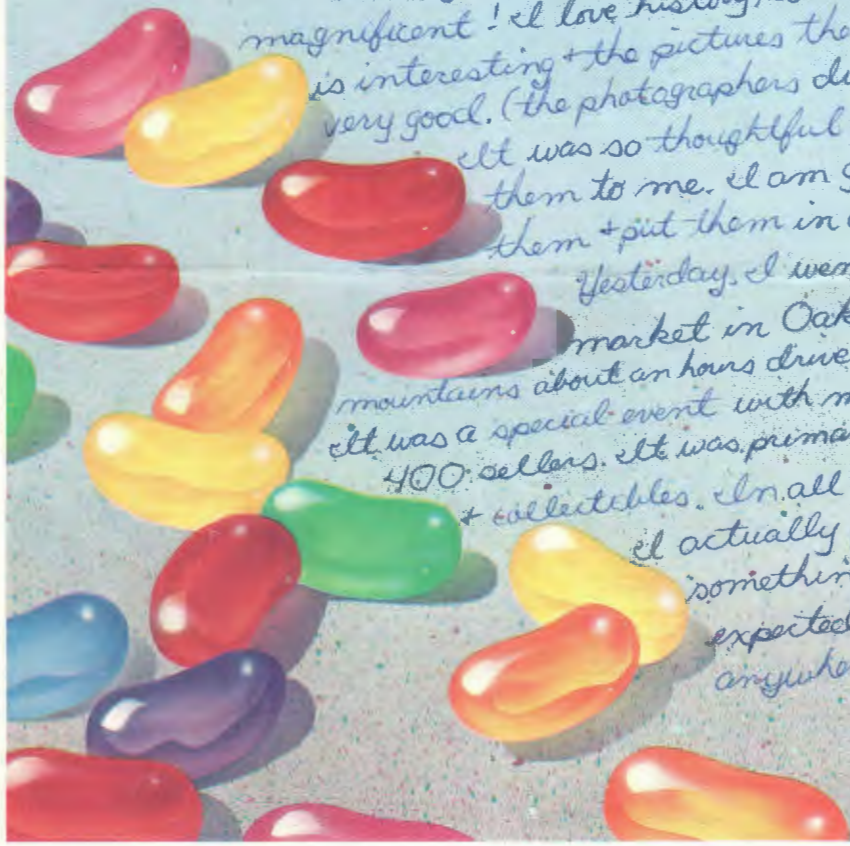

Thank you for the photos of China. They are magnificent! I love history, so the subject matter is interesting + the pictures themselves are very good. (the photographers did a great job)

It was so thoughtful of you to send them to me. I am going to frame them + put them in a place of honor.

Yesterday, I went to a flea market in Oakhurst (in the mountains about an hour drive from Fresno). It was a special event with more than 400 sellers. It was primarily for antiques + collectibles. In all of that mess

I actually found something that I never expected to find anywhere!

I was aware that in 1954 you worked in Las Vegas for a short time + I knew that they made a couple of postcards featuring you but I never expected to find them in Oakhurst amidst tons of collectibles + thousands of people. There wasn't any political or movie memorabilia to speak of so I didn't expect to find anything! I also figured that the chances of finding the postcards anywhere at all were slim. (They weren't even used) The fellow was asking $2 each but I paid $250 for both. It was a bargain + what I consider a real "find". That was all that I got (but it was enough - I'm delighted!) my mother bought a couple of cuckoo clocks so it was a successful venture (and a lot of fun!)

I promise I'll cut this short (this is short? I could go on + on) I just wanted to express my thanks + appreciation for all you've done for me + my collection. I hope you enjoy your European trip. Please give my best to Mrs. Reagan.

Sincerely,
Ann Schuette

President Ronald Reagan
Attention: 16991
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Ron:

Rancheros, Bustardos and I thank you for all your kindness towards all of us. Your gifts (Thank you too, Kathy) arrived in time and were more than appreciated. They were worshipped. Too bad the Russians don't recognize your class. Mmmm...rethinking that comment, methinks perhaps they do.

Review one of my old letters in which I told you they would pull out of the Olympics.

Now, news from all over the U.S. and the globe from Rancheros, from talks around the fires...I listen well.

1. The Russians are using Nazi ideas of conquest, except Fifth Column Subversion is first. Through this ploy, the Russians have conquered or enslaved over half the globe. Little people in the street don't understand this.
2. The role of the U.S. Government is to protect the people, not to give up in the face of danger. Carter let our protection slip badly.
3. If Russia is worried about their own protection, why do they continue to gobble up their neighbors as Nazi Germany did. History repeats itself.
4. The Pope card being played by you through Bill Wilson is a smashing one. Either Communist or Catholic, you can't be both. A Communist is an atheist. That's all. Catholics world wide will listen now.
5. The people cared little about your China visit. It was silly to tire you and Nancy out like that. Also, the Chinese appeared to benefit more than the U.S. (However, as I saw it, you twisted the bear's tail again.)
6. The Russians were the Nazi's allies during World War II and only we stand in their way of world wide domination.

President's handwriting "Send him one
China

...cont'd.

THOMAS M. O'BRIEN - President

HANDWRITING FILE

President Ronald Reagan
Page 2.
May 18, 1984

7. Mexico still feeds Cuba and Nicaragua oil and food and other supplies. They must commit to stop helping the Communists, get the Russians out of Cuba and then and only then will you move out of Central America.
8. When loaning new money to foreign countries on bail-outs, get collateral - a call on supplies in the ground at today's prices committed to us so that we could intervene should our interests be attacked. An end run around Tip and Teddy and Baker and Bush.
9. The House of Representatives is not trusted. A home for the Fifth Column. Fellow travellers and hoodwinked liberals of the Neville Chamberlain mold. This is not my thinking but Ranchero talk.
10. Be sure and tell the U.S. public that you need men around you to help your programs. Vote Republican or for the most conservative of the men running for the House or Senate. (I'll be doing this with Antonio Aguilar.)

In closing, I too use a yellow pad to put down my thoughts to be typed. (Now I'm doing it.) Everybody I was with on the Ride was comparing themselves to you..."I've got a hat like Reagan's." "A shirt or a horse like Ron's, etc., etc." "I know how Ron feels, I feel the same way." Come to think of it, I guess all of us put our boots on the same way...one at a time?? Is that how you do it??

Had a great visit with the Judge. Got a super picture from Bill Wilson of he and His Holiness. Do put me on the list for a picture of you and Nancy on the Great Wall of China. My aunt is there now. She sent me a postcard on the 12th of May. I received it in Scottsdale on the 15th of May. Phoenix mail sometimes takes five days to reach me. Hire that Chinese postmaster, he's a worker.

Sorry for the length. Take care of yourself, eat well, take the vitamins and get lots of rest before election. I know the checkup came out positive. All our best to Nancy. (She looked lovely on the trip.) And God bless you both. Believe me when I tell you you are loved and cherished.

As always,

Thomas M. O'Brien

TMO'B/jj

P.S. You looked very handsome on television too, as you always do. The R.V. Ride was fantastic and everyone missed you, but the letters you sent were read and reread again and again, so your presence was truly felt.

Dear President Reagan :

Thank you for the pins. You are always so thoughtful, I appreciate it. ★★ ★

I just ordered (and just received) a dozen mounting frames that coin collectors and other hobbyists use to display their collections. The enamel pins look great in them. I am really pleased.

I have just started my vacation from school and everything. I have thus far thoroughly enjoyed it. I have been gardening and painting. (painting benches and posts and anything else that gets in the way.) School starts again after Labor Day, so I am looking forward to a nice long vacation until then. I understand that your vacation is just around the corner too. I'm glad; you deserve it. Have a good one! ★★ ★

Thanks again,

Your friend in Fresno ★

Ann

★ "Fresno" is soon to be a mini-series starring Carol Burnett - a spoof on "Dallas". Watch for it in November I think. I'll let you know. ★

Dear President Reagan:

Congratulations on a successful summit! Even the press seemed to like it. I always feel proud when you and Mrs. Reagan represent our country.

Thank you for the April Shower of buttons!

I was amazed there were so many. I'm in button heaven!

I can hardly wait to categorize them + display them properly. I haven't had a chance due to my school work. Finals start today, (I know I should be studying) and continue through the 20th. If I do half as well on my exams as you did at the summit I should get straight A's!!!

Please give my best to Mrs. Reagan and Rex.

Sincerely,

Ann in Fresno

Dear President Reagan:

How can I say thank you?

You have been so kind to remember me.

I always appreciate the pins you send.

I especially like the large red and white

"Halt the Deficit" pin. I have a picture of you receiving it (U.S. News + World Report, July 22nd issue)

I also like the "You can Run but you can't Hide" pin, and on and on.... I like them all!

I know how busy you are preparing for your trip overseas. I am looking forward to it because I will get to see more of you on the news every evening.

It seems to me, that while you are overseas, the news media is more supportive of you; but when you get home, they really let you have it!

I hope you and Mrs Reagan have a good trip. I know it will be successful. You can always "disarm" them with your charm!

Your friend,
Ann

Not really just a photo.
Dear President Reagan:

Did I say thank you?

I don't remember if I did or not but you deserve the biggest thank you I can muster up. Thank you President Reagan for being so good to me. Never in my wildest dreams could I imagine ever getting to meet you in the oval office.

There is so much I wanted to say but I forgot everything the minute I stepped in the door. You probably figured that out! I do want to thank you very much for the buttons. I enjoy them very much. I also want to thank you for the stick pin with the Presidential seal on it. I will always treasure it. Believe it or not, before celluloid buttons came along in 1896, political campaign memorabilia primarily consisted of jewelry items + silk ribbons.

Stick pins were very popular. My oldest political item is a brass stick pin with a canoe on it from the 1840 campaign "Tippecanoe + Tyler Too" supporting William Henry Harrison. (I know you'd enjoy that brief moment of history) I just wanted you to know that I adore the stick pin + thank you very much.

HANDWRITTEN FILE

I had a fine trip to Washington. I went to the gala Saturday night. It was even more wonderful than I had hoped. I enjoyed every performance very much. It was a real treat to be able to see Jimmy Stewart. He is one of my all-time favorite actors.

I enjoyed Superbowl Sunday. I went to a Superbowl party at the Hilton Hotel. That is where I met Mr. John Hay. I have been buying buttons from him for years & had never met him. I told him you had been sending me pins so when he was getting some together for you I told him you would probably give them right back to me, so you know what?

He threw in a few more! He's a nice man.

I managed to get another 40 different pins to add to my collection. Some of them are very interesting. There is a discrepancy among the buttons - some say 50th inauguration & some say 51st.

After seeing you in the oval office I understand just how precious for time you really are. I started to worry a little but then I thought about Mrs. Reagan. She takes such good care of you. It is no wonder why you are such a great President & you have a wonderful back-up team. My sincere thanks to you & Mrs. Reagan.

Yours truly,

Ann

Mr. President:

I have an extra "Heartland Special" button left over from the Friday train trip I can send on to Ann if you want, and I'm also trying to locate three more for the Sisco family.

Kathy

I'll bring down the others I have up stairs
if you can send them all at once. Maybe some can be used for the Sisco. Thanks

Dear President Reagan:

Just a guide note to send you a "bulldogum card." A local company, Round

Bread is putting one Presidential card in each especially marked loaf of bread. Yes, I went through all of the loaves until I found the one with your card in it! It was well worth it. I just want you to know that I think you are doing an exceptional job + I feel sorry for all of the Presidents to come because you are a tough act to follow. You have a rare gift Mr. President, your ability to lose the morale of this great nation is second to none.

You have made us all proud to be Americans again and God Bless you for it.

Sincerely,

Ann Schutte

Keep smiling!

Thank you for helping me with my collection!

Dear President Reagan:

Thank you for the package of pins!

They are really beautiful. Every pin you sent was exceptional! You really outdid yourself! They are so pretty and colorful. I hope to catalog each of them (on 3x5 index cards where I can record physical + historical data) I also photocopy each one + put the picture on the card for reference. I have my own mini-library!

The package arrived Saturday afternoon when I was at the headquarters (we just opened up + got the telephones in) Our opening party is this Friday 9-14-84 from 4-7pm. We are getting the volunteers organized to see who can work when. + we already have had some high school students on the phone banks (They get credit for Political Science + they seem to enjoy it too!) I was on the phone for 5 hrs Saturday (nothing unusual for me) It looks good! You have a lot of solid support + not too many emphatic "no's" (We just ask them if they plan to support the Reagan-Bush team in November) Some people mentioned that they weren't registered so we sent them registration forms.

It really is fun. I only wish I didn't ~~have~~ to work for a living so I could ~~spend~~ all my time at the headquarters. I only get out there on my days off. Mother would help out too but she is busy building a sawmill in our driveway with Col. Gregory "Poppy" Boyington. It's Gregory's sawmill & it's supposed to be a one-man sawmill that will cut 24" logs. We all have our little projects that we enjoy. I really love my collection & it's especially nice that you have taken an interest in it & help me so much.

I'll close now because you probably have too much to read anyway. Congratulations on a wonderful convention. My favorite part was when Mrs. Reagan spoke. I thought she was outstanding! You did well too but it was a real treat to be able to see Mrs. Reagan. She is lovely!

Thank you again for thinking about me & adding to my collection. The pins are really beautiful!

Sincerely,

Ann Schuette
