WASHINGTON

January 27, 1988

Dear Tommy:

It was a pleasure meeting you last month. I hope you enjoyed your visit to the White House as much as we enjoyed having you here.

The President and Mrs. Reagan thought you might enjoy having this special memento of the occasion, along with some additional photographs.

With warm regards and best wishes,

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED RYAN

FROM: JIM MANNING for RE: CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING
DATE: OCTOBER 21, 1987

We have been contacted by the Starlight Foundation which grants wishes for terminally ill children. They have a little boy, Tommy Valenti, who is 5 years old and terminally ill with cystic fibrosis.

His wish is to meet the President and Mrs. Reagan. Since his birthday is near Christmas, we thought it would be nice to include him in the Christmas tree lighting.

Dear Mr. Manning,

Once again I find myself writing to you on behalf of the Starlight Foundation. This time, we have a request for a wish from a little boy named Tommy Valenti from Jackson, New Jersey. Tommy will be five years old on December 23, 1987. He has Cystic Fibrosis. Tommy's first wish is to meet President and Mrs. Reagan. Evidently Tommy is quite taken with them and watches them on T.V. whenever he gets the chance. I asked his parents how Tommy became so aware of the President and Mrs. Reagan at such a young age. They said he became infatuated with them at the time of the space shuttle accident.

~~We feel that because of Tommy's young age, there is a way he would understand such a wish. However, other young children are present. Tommy could attend one of the Christmas parties the she and I had planned on making.~~

I know how much this would mean to Tommy, as he insisted, not only to his parents, but to the Starlight volunteer that he preferred to meet the Reagans over a trip to DisneyWorld.

Your attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

With my best regards,

Sincerely,

Ellen J. Epstein

Dear Nancy,

Our grateful thanks to you and the President for the charming candelsticks.
We shall use them with pride and pleasure.

We're looking forward to celebrating the arrival of 1988 with you shortly -
I guess you're already at the Haneberg's -
How great it will be to see you both!

May 1988 be a splendid, happy,

Dear Mayor Tooke:

It was nice to see you on my recent trip to Kansas City. I very much appreciate the hospitality you all showed me. I only regret that I was unable to spend more time with everyone.

On behalf of President Reagan, I am enclosing a Presidential tie bar. Hope you enjoy it. Please let me know if I can ever be of assistance to you and the town of Cape Girardeau.

Dear Mr President & Mr Reagan,

Jenny and I wanted to thank you both very much indeed for the lovely porcelain bowl given to us on the occasion of your visit to London. It is a beautiful souvenir for us of a very special occasion.

We felt very privileged indeed to be there with you. There was such a happy, warm and friendly atmosphere both at No. 10 and the Guildhall, and I am sure at Buckingham Palace too.

Your speech, Mr President, at Guildhall moved us all. It was superb and I have heard nothing but praise for it.

We are so delighted that the visit to Moscow went so well and that this has been so clearly recognised in the Press on both sides of the Atlantic. You both deserve our sincere thanks and congratulations.

With warm regards and respects, in which Jenny joins -

Yours sincerely

Anthony Acland

Your name came to me from an item in U.S.A. Weekend, July 3, 1988
You can see from the enclosed that I am on the "please send money list."

I would like to send more but as a purchase. I have written before but to no avail - no answer.
I once read that President Reagan has given away Swiss made knife - Victorinox - bearing the Presidential Seal on a blue body.

If any are left, I would like to purchase one. Enclosed is my
