Dear President and Mrs. Reagan, Thank you for your thoughtfulness in thinking of Jane and me at Christmas. The engraved Xerox cardstock are beautiful and will be a treasured heirloom in the Burnley family.

I'd also like to say again how grateful
I am for the extraordinary privilege of serving in your Cabinet. I believe we can make substantial progress on a number of critical transportation issues this year. As you said at the Executive Forum yesterday, the "closing act" can be a most productive one.

Jane and I send you our warmest best wishes for peace, happiness and prosperity throughout the New Year.

Sincerely,
Jim Burnley

Dear Nancy

How nice of you to send me the "favor" from the Senate Ladies Luncheon - and all the nice notes from so many of the ladies. The bowl is lovely and I shall cherish it.

I also want you to know how much I appreciate including my only cousin Mr Tom Linksen and his wife Jean at tonight's State Dinner. Tom is the Dean of Dental Research at the Univ. of Georgia.
Over the years he and I have often wondered how two such loyal native Illinois both ended up in the South!

Howard still has this last week ahead of him and I can Already see changes in him. He has been so very happy in this job and I know how much he's going to miss being there.

Since I am going to be in the hospital a while longer I certainly hope he can find things to occupy his time. We know at least he's not planning to do any writing!

You have been so kind to us during his tenure. I only regret I have not been able to do more for you.

I shall share Howard's fond memories and think of you often.

Thank you for everything with love

Dear Mr. President:

I wanted to thank you for the jacket you gave me following our trip to New Jersey. I'm sure I'll cherish it for many years as a reminder of my work for you in the White House.

Although I was a letter man in basketball and tennis while I was in High School, I never could afford one of these fancy letter jackets. So while it has taken me 35 years to get one, I want you to know I love working for you just as much as I did playing basketball 30 years ago.

Thanks again for your kindness and generosity.

Best regards,

Dear Ann:

I won't commiserate with you about your illness, knowing what it's leading up to. I'll just share your joy. And I know we're both happy about the election.

This enclosed pin has to do with the election. In my campaign speeches for George I responded to the Democrat line, "Time for a change." I told the audiences, "we were the change, we started it 8 years ago." Then I was amazed on one of my later trips to discover people wearing this pin.

Now, I'll get back to collecting things for the journey to California. It's quite a job. I can't believe what all we've collected in just 8 years.

We're both very happy for you and Gary. Give him our best regards.

Dear President Reagan:

Thank you for the pins. I love them! They couldn't have come at a better time. I have been feeling rather poorly... sick day and night. Fortunately it is for a good reason... I'm expecting!!! I'm going to have a little Republican in May! Gary is thrilled, I am happy, but will be happier when this morning sickness passes! In the meantime I have been laying low + aching pins!

I also have been BUSY with my new crop of first graders. I have a large class - this year so I seem to really be snowed under with work.

I watch T.V. every night so I know you have been busy campaigning. You must know that people would rather vote you in again than Bush or Dukakis! It looks like most Americans are being sensible this year. If not you, I will be Bush.

I'm sure you would rather have Bush too
I even think about "Doo-ka-ka" & throw up!!
I know we'll feel better after Bush wins.

Gary & I are very, very happy. We have even been adopted by a couple stray cats so I really feel like home around here.

Anne Allman has moved to Fresno... she lives walking distance from me.
Anne is going to give me some cooking lessons.
I need them! Gary is supportive of the idea as you might expect.

Mom has new business cards featuring one of her street clocks. She wants you to call if you ever need a clock or want any fixed. She goes down to LA every so often (we used to live there when I was growing up - near the airport), I know you will be getting your things out of storage after 8 years.
If you have any clocks they will need fixing.
Perhaps your decorator can give her a call.

I hope you and Mrs. Reagan are both well. I also hope you are enjoying your Presidency. You deserve every happiness you have given so much.
Thank you again!

Dear Ann
I want communicate with you about your ideas knowing what it's leading up to. We just share your joy. And I know we're both happy about the election.

This weekend join me to do with the election.
In my campaign speech for change & responded to the Don. Live, I'm for a change. I need the audience,
"we want the change, we want it 8 yrs. ago." Then I was amazed on one of my last trips to discuss people surrounding this fair.

Now I'll get back to collecting things for the journey to East. It's quite a job. I can't believe what we've collected in just 8 yrs.
We're both very happy for you and Mary, give him our best regards.

Dear Mr. President and Mr. Ronald Reagan,

G. Chase
 I thank you so much for the beautiful flowers and the personal telegram sent to me at St. Mary's Hospital in Milwaukee. Enclosed is a picture.

Please forgive my delay in expressing my gratitude — heart surgery has a shocking way of making one's brain put off what you should do today for as long as possible. However I'm happy to say that my recovery has been more than satisfactory.

June and I are delighted with the election of Mr. George Bush, and we're looking forward to you and Nancy's return to ranch living in California again. We'll be happy to enjoy a jelly bean feast. We'll bring the jelly beans.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Anne Higgins,

I'm writing to you again in regard to Jelly Bellies.

I'm 50 & my Mom is 80, & we are imploring you to please send us 2 jars of the Jelly Bellies. We will pay for ~~them~~ ^{them} if you want.

We are unable to shop around in Miami, as I have a debilitating Kidney Disease & my Mother is Crippled.

We are not asking you to endorse any product. In fact, you can take off the labels of whomever makes them. We are literally begging you to do so.

I know the President gives them to dignitaries, etc, so we don't know why we can't be given the same consideration.

The President will only be in office a few more months & this is our only chance to get them.

As I said above, take the labels off. We want them very badly.

I hope you will consider our situation & comply with our wishes. It won't hurt anyone anything. It'll be a good gesture.

to American citizen.

Please don't deny us again.
Any fact talk to the President about it. I'm sure he'd say go ahead.

We will be waiting for our Jelly Bellies.

Thanking You Sincerely,

P.S. Do not deny us again. It would be an injustice to us.

As I said we're not asking for an endorsement of whoever makes them; we're just asking for the Jelly Bellies.

I'm sure you can do it without any problems.

Dear Mr. President:

Peggy and I are delighted to have the Presidential Bowl commemorating the eight great years of your Administration. We shall treasure it for as long as we shall live and it will be a constant reminder of one of the truly rewarding events of our lives -- serving you and Mrs. Reagan for the past 17 months.

We are so proud of your accomplishments, Mr. President. You have done so much in the last eight years to rebuild America's image, economically, militarily and morally.

Americans are now proud of our country and what it stands for. We can all hold our heads much higher because you were here.

We shall cherish this last ten days as we watch many, many Americans try to say thank you, Mr. President. So, thank you, Mr. President.

Respectfully,

In commemoration of the many long hours you devoted to all of our meetings with President Gorbachev, I would like you to have this photograph signed by President Gorbachev and myself at the Washington Summit.

The words I inscribed on the photo I presented to him in New York apply to all of us. . . "We have walked a long way together to clear a path for peace."

Ours was a new era of hope for peace and freedom throughout the world. For this, future generations will, like myself, be in your debt and forever grateful.

Thank you, and God bless you.

Dear

In commemoration of the many long hours you devoted to all of our meetings with President Gorbachev, I would like you to have this photograph signed by President Gorbachev and myself at the Washington Summit.

The words I inscribed on the photo I presented to him in New York applies to all of us ... "We have walked a long way together to clear a path for peace."

Ours was a new era of hope for peace and freedom throughout the world. For this, future generations will, like myself, be in your debt and forever grateful.

Thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN (signed)

AMBASSADOR

The President and Mrs. Ronald W. Reagan
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President and Nancy:

The very handsome bowl which you sent us for Christmas unfortunately was broken in shipment. I know Carol has already undertaken to report this and obtain a replacement. I do wish you both could have seen how thrilled and proud we were with such a valuable and treasured gift.

It has been a magnificent experience and a great privilege serving you and our country for these past seven and a half years. It has touched and enriched the lives of our family in countless ways. We could never begin to explain adequately our gratitude and affection for you each.

Our visit to Sunnylands was regrettably all too short, and we were sorry that we did not realize how early you were leaving so that we might have conveyed to you personally the depth of our appreciation for your friendship.

We look forward to our return next month and to relaxed occasions to be with you in the months and years ahead.

Carol, Caroline, Melissa and Chas all join with me in sending you our love and very best wishes. May the New Year bring you great prosperity, happiness and continued good health.

*Sincerely,
Charles*

Dear Kathy:

→ Thank you very much for the lovely Presidential gifts that you provided to me for my recent visit to Italy. I gave the gifts to many of the senior Italian military officials and their wives and they were absolutely honored and delighted with each of them. I was unaware, and the President may not be aware, of the high esteem in which the Italian military hold him. Kathy, he is really loved and respected by everyone whose path I crossed. It was very gratifying for me to know that our Commander-in-Chief is so well respected and admired.

Again, many thanks for your thoughtful support and assistance. As this administration draws to a close, I am hopeful that your future travels will permit me to see you more frequently than in the past.

Sincerely,

HERBERT R. TEMPLE, JR.
