Gift offer for President's grandson

February 13, 1981

Dear Dr. Peterson:

Mrs. Reagan has asked me to let you know how much your thoughtful message meant to her. There is nothing that means more to the President and Mrs. Reagan than knowing that they can count on the support and friendship of people like you.

Your kind offer to make a wooden train for Mrs. Reagan's grandson has been forwarded on to Michael.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

You and your hubby were magnificent all day long yesterday and your attire at the balls was indescribable! Thank God we have you two in the White House. Yesterday was surely a day of perfection in all dimensions.

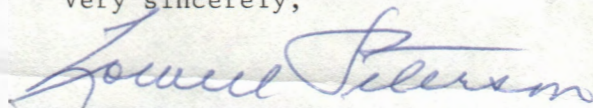

I met you, and then Ron, here in Chicago in 1943 when I was still a resident at the Presbyterian Hospital with Dr. N. S. Heaney, an old friend of Dr. Curtis, an associate of your father. So I feel closer to you than an average citizen.

I'm a gynecologist in Hinsdale, now working only one-half time in our clinic and the other one-half time I spend in my shop making wooden toys, trains, dump trucks, etc. If you should like, I would be so very happy to make a train for that sweet and pretty little grandbaby whom we saw in the reviewing stands yesterday with his father, Michael. Curiously enough, we too, have an adopted son, thirty-one year old, Michael. I also love to make white pine hobby horses--not white stallions!

Bless you both, and we are all so elated that you are our leaders. If you have interest in either of the above, I would appreciate it in a request and it will be forthcoming without delay.

Most sincerely and again thank God for you and Ronnie.

Very sincerely,

Lowell F. Peterson, M. D.

Dear Nancy:

You were thoughtful to send the "school reader" for our reading pleasure and we enjoyed the darling pictures.

It certainly was a pleasure to meet your children when we were at Blair House, and I agree with you that all our little ones are the hope for the future.

Thanks again for everything.

Sincerely,

NANCY REAGAN ^a

Dear Mrs. Reagan,

Strom and I wish to thank you for your gracious hospitality

when we came to Blair House on Jan. 15 for the presentation of the Springs Mills quilt. Even though Strom was presiding over the hearings of our new

Attorney General and could not accompany me to see you, he very much appreciated the time and interest you personally took in our young children, who like Cameron, are the hope for tomorrow. I also thank you.

Our prayers and best wishes go with you and the President each step of your mission as our Commander in Chief and First Lady. Affectionately,

Nancy

Dear Paul:

Please excuse the delay in responding to your January 30 letter to the President on behalf of the Reverend Michael D. Anglin.

Reverend Anglin's thoughtful gesture in wanting to present the President with a copy of the Holy Bible is much appreciated. I am sure that President Reagan would consider it an honor to accept Reverend Anglin's gift, and you may be assured that I will note this and bring your letter to the attention of the President's scheduling office for very careful consideration.

With cordial regard, I am

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing on behalf of Michael D. Anglin, Minister for the Arlington Church of Christ, in hope that an appointment may be arranged for Mr. Anglin to present you with a commemorative copy of the Holy Bible.

The purpose of Mr. Anglin's request is to welcome you and the First Lady on behalf of the four million members of the Churches of Christ, and specifically for the 26 Churches of Christ in the D.C. area. Mr. Anglin has had the privilege of making similar presentations to former Presidents Lyndon B. Johnson in November, 1967, and Gerald R. Ford in October, 1974.

For your information, I have enclosed a copy of Mr. Anglin's letter to me. It would be my privilege to accompany Mr. Anglin in his meeting with you and I hope you will give this request every positive consideration.

Sincerely,
Paul

Congressman Paul Tribble
Cannon House Office Building
Washington, D.C., 20515

Dear Congressman Tribble:

On behalf of the Churches of Christ, particularly here in the Washington area, I would like to be accorded the privilege of personally presenting President Reagan with a commemorative copy of the Holy Bible. This would be our way of welcoming him and the First Lady and also to assure them of the support through prayer on the part of many Christians. If possible, I would like to share this experience with several ministerial colleagues of mine.

It is obvious from the President's public statements before and after his recent election that he is keenly aware of the need for Divine guidance in the conduct of his high office.

I thought that perhaps through your personal friendship with the President, and knowing of your own conviction regarding God's providential activity, you could help direct me to the proper person on the President's staff in order to arrange an appointment. Also, it would be a personal privilege if you could accompany me if such an occasion does materialize.

Thank you in advance for your consideration and for any help you can give to this proposal. May the Lord bless you in the vital tasks you are engaged in for our State of Virginia and the nation at large.

Yours very truly,

Michael D. Anglin
