Dear Mr. Baccigaluppi:

Thank you so much for the supply of California almonds which you have so generously supplied. I can assure you that I and much of my top staff have thoroughly enjoyed munching on these delightful snacks. You might be interested to know that we have also put them aboard Air Force One as a snack item for use during those times when it is necessary to travel.

It's a real treat to have these California-grown products around the White House and on Air Force One. It sort of helps to eliminate some of the home-sickness for our home state.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Miss Meade:

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness and kindness in bringing us the Shamrocks from County Tipperary. It is especially meaningful to me because my father was orphaned at the age of six and until just lately I have known very little about his family background, except that we came from Ireland. Now, of course, I have heard from Ireland and know a great deal more about the family line.

Again, let me thank you. You were very kind and thoughtful.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Mr. President,

I recently returned from a trip to my homeland Ireland, and during my stay I visited the home of your Ancestors - the Reagan Pub at Bally Boreen, County Tipperary. I've picked from your garden these beautiful Shamrocks and thought you would enjoy having them for St. Patrick's day.

Dear Jake:

With sincere regret for delay, I would like to thank you for your March letter to the President forwarding a tape of "The Message of the Liberty Bell" by Mrs. Edna Glad.

Unfortunately, I must tell you that in accordance with policy established in the past, President Reagan feels that it is inappropriate for him to promote or comment on the merits of musical or literary compositions. Although Mrs. Glad's efforts are sincerely appreciated, I am sure you can understand the President's reluctance to depart from this tradition.

Nonetheless, President Reagan is grateful to Mrs. Glad for her thoughtfulness and for letting him know of her work.

Enclosed you will find Mrs. Glad's tape and your correspondence, as you requested.

Dear Senator Garn

Thank so much for trying to contact President Reagan in behalf of my song "The Message of the Liberty Bell" when a was president-elect. I'm still hoping for this to happen.

I have an idea now to give all the returned former hostages a tape of my song. I'm writing to Family Liaison Information action for their names and addresses.

Will you please write to me, a note saying something favorable like Albert Fallow says anything nice about my song. I'll have 2500 copies made to present to them with gifts. Somehow maybe this will also help getting my song to President's office. Also the joy of giving the tapes.

Many thanks

You have received a tape of my song
"The Message of the Liberty Bell" the write up by Thomas Frost of Columbia and if we ever have the opportunity of using on a Columbia Record we certainly will do so. Maybe you will have time to answer my letter now asking for promoting my song until it finally will be get to our next president Ronald

Dear Senator Gann:

The great musician Albert Fallows who has recorded perhaps hundreds of songs for the church being a soloist with the choir so long agrees with me perhaps you can help me in regards to my song "The Message of the Liberty Bell". Read what he says, also Mr Thomas Frost of Columbia Records. I've send a tape to Ronald Reagan's head quarters in Arlington Virginia. Perhaps you can tell me how to climb the ladder to success, so at last Ronald Reagan will hear the song and accept it.

Thanks so much for any help you can give me. I've read where you have helped so many people!

Thankfully yours
