Gift - Texas jelly beans for Pres. Birthday

59 Third Circle Drive
Wichita Falls, TX 76305
February 11, 1981

Dear President Reagan:

"Everything in Texas is BIG", so the saying goes. This is also true of our jelly beans. My son Phillip and I felt that you needed a supply of Texas jelly beans to go along with your regular ones. Therefore, we have sent you a jar of them for your birthday.

I must apologize for not getting them there in time for your birthday, but our jelly bean supplier did not have enough to fill the jar, so we had to wait until he received a new shipment. He tells me the Texas jelly beans are made by the same company that makes the regular jelly beans you buy.

My son and I hope you and those you share these jelly beans with will enjoy them. Again, Happy Birthday.

Sincerely,

Robert (Mickey) Morrow

Sandy Staton

Dear President Reagan

Although I am an obscure citizen and rarely do anything out of the context of normal living, I had to deviate from this routine when I saw the '500 grams of courage' in jelly bean form. Having observed your determination throughout your campaign, I felt justified in prescribing these jelly beans to fortify your endeavors and sustain your goals. I sincerely wish you a fruitful four years and, hopefully, another term.

My only regret is that as a layman observer lost in the nucleus of the country's population no source of contact exists where suggestions that could aid you in attaining your goal can be presented. I have tried to make recommendations that could save millions of dollars but acknowledgments have never been received. Through the chain of command, the lower echelon can make some valuable contributions. For example, I have analyzed a tax ruling that should be amended resulting in illimitable savings. I have seen misuse and abuse of veterans' benefits as well as misuse of government resources that if corrective action was initiated on a national scale, millions of dollars could be directed to other avenues that would reduce taxes and our debt posture. As 'one' citizen I would like to help but how do we reach those who would listen?

Sincerely,

Sandy Staton
