Gift - "Jelly Belly" jelly beans

January 7, 1981

Dear President-Elect Reagan,

It's no secret that you have a sweet tooth for jelly beans, namely Jelly Bellies.

Here in Tulsa, Oklahoma at "The Sweet Tooth Confectionary Co." we sell your favorite Jelly Bellies along with other good candy.

In honor of your inauguration we are sending you a mixed bottle of Jelly Bellies along with a menu in case you care to order from our shop. We hope you enjoy the Jelly Bellies.

Good luck to you in the year to come as our President

Sincerely,
Beth Barnett

What's a Jelly Belly?

The Jelly Belly is the world's original gourmet jelly bean! You can just tell it's no ordinary jelly bean by its smaller size, shape and brilliant colors. But, the true test comes when you take your first mouth-watering bite of a Jelly Belly. In most cases our exotic jelly beans are made with the finest natural ingredients available like chocolate, peanut butter, coffee, and coconut, plus many with real fruit purees like papaya, mango, strawberry in our daiquiri, and jalapeno (yes, from the hot pepper!).

That's a Jelly Belly.

Enjoy!

Ronald W. Reagan, President
United States of America
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

While watching the NBC Special the other evening covering a typical White House day, it appeared that there is a considerable traffic problem in your cabinet meetings. Accordingly, after some research, my wife came up with a gift which I am sending under separate cover. We trust that you will find this helpful in resolving the problem and that you may then be able to find further use for it as an accessory, such as a paperweight, on your desk in the Oval Office. If, at the end of four years, you need a refill we will be pleased to provide one.

Please excuse my use of a paraphrase from a Democratic President, but Mr. Truman is the only Democratic President in the last 40 years whom I would care to quote, and I believe his remark to be appropriate. In any event, I hope you enjoy this little gift and find it helpful in reaching judgments beneficial to we middle class, middle aged, Republican taxpayers.

Yours very truly,

H. B. Lichtenberger

Gift - cookies & popcorn

Feb. 4th 1981

Dear Mr. President,

Enclosed you will find letters from a class of Fourth graders in Cut Bank, Montana who would like to meet you very much. As you can tell the letters were written months ago. They were making money for the postage.

You may find cookies and popcorn a strange gift, but it was their idea, so I let them go ahead with it. I'm sure you will enjoy the cookies only after they have stood them in a cup of hot coffee for 10 min. They too were made by the class. As their teacher I tell you they would be very happy to hear from you.

And now as a citizen of the United States I support you as President in prayer often. May God be with you the next four years.

Sincerely,
Miss Susan Arnott

glad you won the election, I think you will be a good president for us.
Some of the other kids might have written
"Can we borrow some money", I don't think we need to spend all of your money. You spent a lot on the campaign for president. I like you very much.

Good luck,

Dear Mr Reagan,

I am a fourth grade girl who lives in Cut Bank Montana. In our fourth grade class we would like to know if we can go to your big house. I want to see the White House very much. I bet it looks very nice. I would like to see it. Please if we can go to the White House please write to us and send some money, but you dont have to because we were talking about saving cans and getting some money ourselves. I'm glad you became President of the United states. I even voted for you. Hope you become President next time again.

Dear Reagan,

Hi, how are you? Were glad you were elected. I wanted you to win the election. We were discussing about our sample ballot we had at school, then someone came up with the idea of writing you. So we wrote you. Then someone else said to say in the letter to come and see you. So can we come and see you? We'd like to come and see you. I think we should raise the money instead of you lending us some money. I know you're reliable and loyal. Hope you enjoy your cookies. Bye!

I'm glad you were elected and not someone else. We are thinking about visiting you. But we haven't raised enough money to come. We were thinking if maybe we could borrow some money from you. Because we don't have enough yet. If you want you can send us some money. But you don't have to. Please write back and tell us. We want to see you because you will be reliable and loyal to our country. Also because we haven't seen the White House before and we haven't seen you in person before. We think you're great. I hope you like the cookies.

The White House

Dear Mr. President:

The congregation of First Baptist Church, Paducah, Kentucky, joins me in assuring you of our sincere prayers and total support for your administration. We have committed ourselves to the Biblical injunction found in I Timothy 2:1-3:

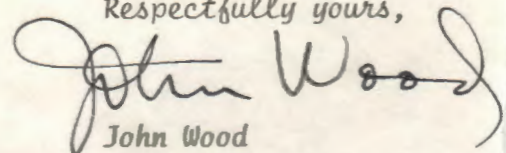

"...I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all men, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life, godly and respectful in every way. This is good, and it is acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth."

The enclosed cards from individuals in our church are our way of communicating to you our prayerful support.

Being a Texan by birth and knowing of your love for them, I am enclosing some "Texas size" jelly beans.

May God's richest blessings rest upon you and your most charming First Lady.

Respectfully yours,

John Wood

Dear Mister President Reagan,

I am very fond of you and I believe you will make a good leader of our nation. I am twelve years old and I have been working for your campaign making signs and calling on the telephone and putting the signs on the side of the highway. I was at the Republican victory party in Tulsa and I shook U. S. Senator Don Nickles hand. My Mother is a Republican and My Father is a Democrat. Last year I wrote a letter to Mrs. Prime Minister Thatcher of Great Britain showing my support for her. 9007 wish to give you this Case of Jelly Beans. I'm sure you'll have no problem
finding help to consume them.

Much success during your years in office
A. Mitchell.
