Dear Mr. President,

My second grade class wanted to wish you a very Happy Birthday. They made these cards for you themselves. As you see, I am sending them to you just as they were written, mistakes and all. Even though they are not perfect, they are all sincere and original.

It was the suggestion of one of the students to send you some jelly beans. All of the class has contributed toward this gift for your first White House birthday. We hope you enjoy them. ✓

The children really are excited about this project.

We all hope you have a nice birthday. Enjoy your jelly beans!

Sincerely,
Nancy Kero

P.S.

I know you are TERRIBLY busy but it would truly thrill these children if we could hear from you. Thank you for your time!

Dear Girls and Boys:

You were good to think of me and I want you to know how pleased I am by your kindness. Thank you for remembering me with the jelly beans on the occasion of my birthday and all those wonderful birthday cards made by each of you.

Nancy joins me in sending you our best wishes.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A
