Dear Mr President:

As one of your neighbours from the North, please accept the enclosed US-Canada Peace Bridge cover as a reminder of friendship between the two nations.

It is my way of celebrating the privilege of having the longest, undefended border in the world.

I am sorry the item could not be presented to you while you were in Ottawa a few days ago.

Sincerely yours,
