Dear President Reagan,

I heard about you getting shot. I am very sorry that it happened. I was at home sick when I heard the news Monday on the radio on Y 103 (a radio station in Jacksonville). So a little while later I watched the special news report about the assassination. All of my family was very worried and sad.

Before I get too carried away, I'd like to tell you about me. My name is Laura Leonard. I am 10 years old and my birthday was December 2, 1970. I am in Mrs. Clark's 5th grade class. I go to school at the Ponte Vedra-Palm Valley school in Ponte Vedra Beach. I have blue eyes and honey-brown hair. I have a dark tan, and tan very easily. I have a brother in the 7th grade. My mom is in the hospital going to get surgery tomorrow. And right now my Dad is at work.

I think that the law about Gun Control is very good and I hope it will be passed.

I would like you to answer these questions and somehow let me know your answers (Please do!). Is Mr. Brady, the secret serviceman, the policeman, and you all right? Will you pass the law about Gun Control? Are you feeling like you did before the assassination? I hope you get alot better, and so does everybody!

Yours truly,
Laura Leonard

Dear President Reagan,

I am very sorry for what happened with the assassination attempt. I am glad it didn't succeed, but I feel sorry for why such a thing would happen. It's stupid to waste bullets, especially on the highest ranking government official. Now lets get down to the nitty-gritty, I think your budget cuts are very good, or may I say excellent! Now do you still feel about guns now? Ow!, I just thought how much it would hurt to be shot by a 22 caliber. Boy, I bit well, I know the whole country is talking about you.

I'm sure glad you became "President" The only thing I'm pretty much concerned about is defense spending. But, I'm sure you know what you are doing.

Oh by the way your Jim is Betty Schomaker really that's my true name He bids on my soccer team just call me "The Hat"

You know this is the first time I've ever really written to friends of the U.S. of A. I've only dreamed of it. So I was wondering, well really asking violently if you could write back. I know you're always so busy, it doesn't have to be long, just enough to show your feelings.

With love hoping you to get well
soon,
Sincerely,
Betty Schomaker

Dear President Reagan,

It gives me great pleasure to write to you. I hope you feel better because you are the best President, I think. I think that was terrible that you almost got killed. I hope you got a good hospital because you deserve it.

I live in Palm Valley I have three horses, about fifty hogs, four cats, two dogs. I also got a pond we swim in. I've got a Grammy who drives the bus for this school. I wanted to say get well.

Dear President Reagan,

When I came home from school on March 30, I was happy but when I heard about what happened, I was miserable.

I get home from school by about 3 o'clock so I gave up watching all of my favorite shows to see the news (and nobody even had to force me too because I was so worried about you).

After about four hours of watching the news my mom had to go to the store and she had to practically force me to come, (and I usually want to go to the store.) but luckily my dad got a radio a few weeks before, so I listened to it to the store and back.

Dear President Reagan,

I hope you feel better because you're a great president! I saw you on television last night. As soon as they reported that you might of been shot, I hoped that you didn't. I hope you get better real soon like tomorrow. I'm in 5th grade we all felt sorry for you. I think they should not let people buy guns or even have them then it will be much safer! I feel sorry for Mr. Brady too! I hope you all get better soon. On the bus on the way home from school I heard bigger children saying while they were watching a special program on television there was a special report they said you got shot. I didn't believe them. I thought they were just joking but I found out that they weren't. I like all your jokes. Your kind of like Bob Hope I like him to because I like jokes.
