Dear Mr. Kanoria:

Thank you for your kind letter and the latest copy of "Pushpanjali." I appreciate your thoughtfulness in thinking of me.

It is the desire of all Americans to see our country's relations with other peoples improved and strengthened. It is encouraging to know that concerned people like yourself are deeply committed to improving the quality of life for all peoples.

Again, thank you for writing.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Deaver,

May I deem it my privilege of sending you under separate cover a copy of our latest annual 'Pushpanjali'.

As its very name connotes, it is my humble offering of flowers at the altar of the cultural renaissance of our country. It aims at projecting the image of Indian arts and culture covering a vast panorama within the limitation of time and space.

Inspite of my preoccupations in the field of business where we are entrenched, it has been my endeavour that our two countries should come closer through this media and bonds of friendship cemented and endured.

If this effort could serve as a vehicle for advancement of human betterment, I will consider my labour suitably rewarded.

With your enlightened background, your words of wisdom and valued comments would help me to discern the lapses and make further improvements in our future issues.

Looking forward to hear from you. Meantime, with kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

(A. R. KANORIA)

Dear Mr. Bookbinder:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in arranging for me to get a copy of the 1981 American Jewish Year Book. It will make a valuable addition to my library, and I expect to make good use of it in my work.

Although I cannot predict when (or if) things will get quiet, I agree that we should look for a chance for a quiet talk over lunch.

Dear Mr. Allen:

I have asked my New York office to send you a copy of the 1981 American Jewish Year Book, which has just been published.

Long considered one of the major, definitive Jewish publications, this year's edition has several very significant special chapters in addition to the wide range of updated basic information about world Jewry.

I hope you will find this volume of use to you in connection with your important work. It is a pleasure for me to make it available to you.

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Prestie:

Please accept my sincere apologies for this belated reply. Mrs. Reagan and I are indeed sorry that we missed the pleasure of seeing you and your husband at the Washington Hilton Inaugural Ball. We were delighted, however, to receive the inscribed copy of Answer as a Man that you wanted us to have. Mrs. Reagan and I have long been fans of Taylor Caldwell, and we look forward to enjoying your book. Thank you very much for your kind thought of us.

Mrs. Reagan and I greatly admire your spirit, and we join in expressing our warmest wishes to you and to Mr. Prestie.

Dear President & Mrs. Reagan,

Taylor Caldwell and her husband, William Prestie, arrived at the Washington Hilton's Inaugural Ball too late to present you with Mrs. Prestie's most recent book.

I offered to relay the book via Mr. & Mrs. Will, who have kindly consented to be carrier pigeons in this operation.

You may know that Mrs. Prestie has recently had a stroke and is confined to a wheel chair. I know it would mean a great deal to her to hear from you, so I am taking the liberty of enclosing their new address:

Dear Mr. Waites:

This is the first opportunity I have had to thank you for your kind letter and thoughtful gift which you sent prior to my Inauguration. I do want you to know how much I appreciate having the plaques bearing your inspirational sayings. The generous support that prompted you to part with these treasured mementos is deeply appreciated. I shall value them from a friend in Mississippi whose spirit I greatly admire.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

Mr. Robert L. Waites

Dear Trent:

Let me apologize for the delay in responding to your April 23 letter, on behalf of Robert L. Waites, requesting that Mr. Waites receive an acknowledgement of two plaques he sent to the President in January.

Please know that I have checked with the Gift Unit and, although they did not find a record of Mr. Waites' gift, I was glad to forward your correspondence to them with all of the pertinent information so that they can check further into this matter.

Thank you for writing on behalf of Mr. Waites. Please do not hesitate to contact me whenever I can be of further assistance to you.

With cordial regard, I am

Sincerely,

Max L. Friedersdorf

Dear Max:

Mr. Robert L. Waites of 205 Ben Drive, Rt. 4, Gulfport, Mississippi, 39501, sent to the President in January two plaques to commemorate the Inauguration. Mr. Waites is a 100% disabled veteran of World War II and wished to share these treasured plaques with the President on such a great occasion.

I would appreciate it if Mr. Waites could receive an acknowledgement from the President for his gift.

Thanking you for your assistance in this matter and with best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Trent Lott

Dear President Reagan:

In recognition of your most valued accomplishments to the Presidency of the United States, I feel honored to share with you upon your inauguration two of my most treasured plaques.

As a patriotic World War II veteran, I am confident of your outstanding ability under God's guidance and assure you, along with millions of other Americans, that I am absolutely on your side.

Gratefully,

Bob Waites
