Dear Miss McFeeters:

I want to thank you for the old black and white glossy with your special touch of "The Winning Team" at the bottom. It was so kind of you to present this to me at the ^XCongressional Dinner last February fourth.

This is a very belated note, but Nancy and I wanted you to know how much we appreciate your thoughtful gesture.

Again, thank you and best regards.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN A

Dear Mr. Block:

Please accept my apologies for the delay in writing. I deeply appreciate your kindness and wanted you to know how pleased I am with the Dunhill neckties and the unusual pair of suspenders from Thurston's of London.

Many thanks for your very thoughtful gesture of friendship on the occasion of my birthday.

Nancy joins me in sending our warm best wishes.

Note:

In conversing w/Mr. Block, I determined that the pair of suspenders was a gift to Mr. Block from another individual; that the suspenders are "very difficult to obtain"; no value could be given for the suspenders.

Also, that Mr. Block was stationed w/the President at the Culver Studios in Calif. during WWII; that he was invited to both the Inaugural (he was to be seated w/Mr. Cohn, the motion picture producer) & to the party given by the Wyatt Dickinsons.

Charles Free

Also, that he is a "personal friend" of the President by his own admission.

February 28, 1981

To the President of the United States

Dear Mr. President:

I am writing you in regards
to a gift my sister-in-law Betty Castro sent you for your birthday.
She sent you a neck scarf and gold ring for the scarf.

Since then she has just found out she has lung cancer. She has been at Cedars-Sinai for two weeks now and every day she asks my brother if she has received any mail for you.
She lays in her bed watching television
hoping to see you on the news
wearing the scarf she sent you.

We understand you are really busy to thank anyone personally
but if somehow you could acknowledge the gifts she sent you
it would really make her happy.
Thank you for your kind attention.

Respectfully yours,
Marianne A. Lawson

Dear Senator Johnston:

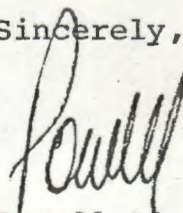

You recently contacted this office about Mr. Winfield
X Ledet's request for the President to sign a high school yearbook and the Certificates of Merit for those students who participated in the Educational Tour of Washington.

I am pleased to tell you that the plaque has been received by the Gift Unit at the White House, and Mr. Ledet should be hearing from them in the near future. However, due to the large number of requests the President receives to autograph mementos and awards, it is impossible to respond to all of them, and I am returning the yearbook
and Merit Certificates without signature.

Again, on behalf of the President I would like to express appreciation of your interest and support of these outstanding students.

With cordial regards,

Sincerely,

One of the first things we heard on the news after your operation was that you were writing notes, so we here at the Joseph Lipic Pen Company thought our President should have his personal pens to sign notes, and a few extra to hand out to the special people who are giving you such wonderful service.

We would like to thank our Senator, John Danforth from Missouri and his staff for expediting the fast delivery of these pens.

We are continuing our prayers for your speedy recovery and the others that were injured in the unfortunate mishap.

To: Helene,

Here are a couple
of letters we were given to give to Michael's Dad. One is from the little girl he held up on primary night.
And the other one is from the guy, where one of our (S.S.) agents gets his cigars. A box of cigars was with it but Michael passed them out on one of our campaign flights
we didn't think his dad would mind. Anyway, I think all he was after was maybe
a picture of the president and a word of Thanks.

Thanks Helene,
Sincerely
Colleen R.
