PRESS GUIDANCE

June 1, 1982

Q: What is your prognosis on the situation in the Falklands?

A:

o As the fighting intensifies and the cost in lives mounts in the South Atlantic, we all share a sense of anguish that it has not been possible through discussion and negotiation to prevent this terrible conflict.

o Our hearts go out particularly to the families of men killed or wounded.

o We continue to seek ways in which we can help bring about a lasting, peaceful settlement consistent with the rule of law.

o The United States has been in touch with both parties and with the UN Secretary General in the effort to find such a solution.
