October 10, 1986

Dear Mrs. Zorinsky:

The ceremony welcoming the arrival of His Excellency the Chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany and Mrs. Kohl to the White House will be held on Tuesday, October 21, 1986 at 10:00 a.m. on the South Lawn of the White House. I hope you will be able to attend.

As in the past, we would be pleased for you to bring one or two guests. I regret that we are not able to accommodate a greater number of guests, but due to the popularity of these ceremonies and the space limitation, it has become necessary to limit the number of guests. Also, because of security procedures at the White House, you must accompany your guest(s) to the ceremony.

If you would like to attend, please call my office on 456-7054 by noon on Monday, October 20 so that your name and the name(s) of your guest(s) will be on the access list. When you arrive at the White House on October 21, you should proceed to the East Appointments Gate (on East Executive Avenue) and inform the officer that you are on my gate list. You will then be escorted to the ceremony. Due to construction currently in progress on East Executive Avenue, we would ask that you use Alexander Hamilton Place for access to the appropriate gate and remind you that parking will not be available. I would encourage you to arrive at the East Appointments Gate no later than 9:40 a.m. so that all guests will be in place when the ceremony begins at 10:00.

I look forward to seeing you on the 21st.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely,
