MEMORANDUM FOR FAITH WHITTLESEY

FROM: LINAS KOJELIS LK

SUBJECT: Visit of Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko, September 28

The President's scheduled meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko is being followed very closely in the East European-American communities, especially by Lithuanian, Latvian, Estonian and Ukrainian-Americans. While most of these groups have not expressed opposition to the meeting and trust the President to remain true to his principles, they nonetheless, urge him to remain realistic and firm.

Specifically, the Baltic and Ukrainian-American have requested that the following issues be added to the meeting's agenda:

1. Political Prisoners: The President is urged to request the release of political prisoners, and the granting of permission to them and their families to emigrate to the West if they so desire. They urge the President to make release of political prisoners a measure of Soviet "good faith" intentions for future U.S./Soviet relations.

Though the Baltic and Ukrainian-Americans would like to see all political prisoners released, the major organizations have identified some priority requests (many of these being in especially poor health):

Estonians: Mart Niklus, Enn Tarto, Tiit Madisson

Latvians: Lidija Lasmane-Doronina, Ints Calitis, Gederts Melngailis

Lithuanians: Viktoras Petkus, Balys Gajauskas, Vytautas Skuodis

(Note: Vytautas Skuodis is an American citizen, born in Chicago, Illinois.)

Ukrainian: Yuriy Shukhevych

The groups stress that it is important for the President to mention these people by name or to hand Mr. Gromyko a list. Even if they are not released, the fact that the President specified these individuals will guarantee them more humane treatment.

2. U.S. Non-Recognition of Soviet Annexation of Baltic States: The Baltic-American communities ask that, in his "tour d'horizon" of international issues, the President inform Mr. Gromyko that the U.S. considers the Soviet presence in the Baltic States an unresolved matter.

3. Family reunification: The President should express U.S. displeasure at the Soviet Union's refusal to allow family members of American citizens living in the Soviet Union who wish to emigrate to the U.S. to do so. The Lithuanian community is especially interested in the case of Mrs. Marija Jurgutis, whose husband currently lives in Los Angeles.

4. Soviet Tariffs: Many Americans of Baltic and Ukrainian birth or heritage continue to send packages of clothing, medicine and other supplies to their relatives in the U.S.S.R. Recently, the Soviet government has increased the duty which the recipients must pay on packages from the West to a prohibitive rate. The President is asked to request a reduction of tariff rates.

Recommendation: It would be very helpful if we could arrange a meeting for Baltic and Ukrainian-American representatives with Mr. McFarlane as soon as possible after September 28 to brief them on the results of the Gromyko visit. If you agree, I will prepare a memorandum requesting such a meeting.
