DATE: Thursday, September 26, 1985

TIME: 1:30 pm

FROM: Frederick J. Ryan, Jr. FJR

I. PURPOSE

II. BACKGROUND

Napoleon McCallum, of Milford, Ohio, was the nation's leading all-purpose runner two seasons ago, finishing sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting.

In his senior year last fall, Napoleon broke his ankle in the second game of the season and was granted a redshirt season, a special move made by the Naval Academy on Napoleon's behalf. Having been given this redshirt status, Napoleon was therefore unable to graduate with the rest of his class in the ceremony that you addressed last June at the Naval Academy.

In missing this graduation ceremony, Napoleon was disheartened to learn that he would miss "a once-in-a-lifetime thing, shaking President Reagan's hand."

Napoleon will graduate in June 1986 and become an ensign in the U.S. Navy.

They swam to the Malasyian shore where they were not allowed admittance. They were allowed in another boat and eventually ended up in a UN refugee camp in Malasyia where they spent 4 months. They came to the United States in 1977 and settled in Colorado. Between undergraduate and graduate school, he went back to Thailand to help with refugees. Kien has retinitis pigmentosa, a degenerative eye disease. Due to this affliction, in order for him to earn his MBA at Stanford he had to have all of his assignments read to him. His story has generated some major news interest. His mother and grandfather will be in attendance also.

TALKING POINTS
MEETING WITH WHITE HOUSE FELLOWS

- Welcome to Washington. Fascinating, exciting city which will bring you numerous experiences.
- Fellowship program founded 21 years ago; excellent vehicle for developing new leadership for the nation, source of fresh talent for the executive branch and a symbol of the kind of achievement we want to encourage and reward.
- Met with the Fellows as Governor and six classes of Fellows as President.
- Much will be asked of each of you but much will be given to you through this program. Motto of the Fellowship program is "with widest horizons." You will have numerous opportunities to explore those horizons.
- Hope your experience will give you a healthy skepticism about the limits of government and a new appreciation of the good that can result from sound government programs and policies.
- Congratulations on your selection as White House Fellows. We are proud to have you in this Administration.

MEETING WITH THE DOMESTIC POLICY COUNCIL

DATE: September 26, 1985
LOCATION: Roosevelt Room
TIME: 2:00 P.M. (30 Minutes)
FROM: Alfred H. Kingon

I. PURPOSE

To complete discussion of the Synthetic Fuels Corporation.

II. BACKGROUND

The House has removed all funding of the Synthetic Fuels Corporation in the 1986 Interior appropriation. The Senate will be taking up this bill in the near future. In the meantime, the Synfuels board is continuing to spend large sums in anticipation of possible abolition of the Synthetic Fuels Corporation (SFC). There is great concern among many in the Administration that we have lost control of this agency. Moreover, recapturing the $7 billion SFC controls will assist our budget deficit efforts. Accordingly, it is appropriate to address the future advisability of continuing this corporation.

As you will recall, this matter was discussed last Thursday at the DPC meeting which you chaired. Unfortunately, due to time constraints, we did not complete the discussion and have scheduled this meeting for that purpose.

Secretary Herrington will lead off, recapping his position at the previous meeting. Ed Noble, Chairman of the Synthetic Fuels Corporation, will then summarize his position. Randy Davis, Associate Director of OMB for Natural Resources, Energy, and Science, will present OMB's point of view and Legislative Affairs will provide an overview of the legislative status of this issue.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Meeting with Denis Legras of Le Figaro

DATE: September 26, 1985
LOCATION: The Oval Office
TIME: 4:30 P.M. (5 Minutes)
FROM: LARRY SPEAKES

I. PURPOSE

A brief photo opportunity for Denis Legras, Washington correspondent for Le Figaro newspaper. The photo will be published with his written interview with the President.

II. BACKGROUND

The timing of this interview, to appear in France on Monday, September 30, is particularly important since it will get the President's agenda for Geneva on the record for discussion in France just prior to Secretary Gorbachev's visit there. Le Figaro is a right-of-center daily with a circulation of 382,000. This interview is certain to get major replay and attention throughout Europe and, indeed, the world. Correspondent Denis Legras has been in Washington since 1983. He previously served as Moscow correspondent for Le Figaro.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Mr. Denis Legras

IV. PRESS PLAN

White House photographer only.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

Mr. Legras enters the Oval Office, and stands with the President during a brief photo opportunity. He will ask one question -- What motivates you, at an age when most people prefer retirement, to continue to assume the burden of governing the most powerful nation on earth?

PRESIDENTIAL TAPING: TRIBUTE TO THE BRYCE HARLOW FOUNDATION
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1985

Good evening and special greetings to all of you attending the 4th annual Bryce Harlow Foundation Award Dinner.

Four years ago, I had the opportunity to join with about 250 of Bryce Harlow's closest friends at a testimonial dinner in honor of Mr. Harlow's 40 years of dedicated service to our Nation -- counselor to three Presidents, advisor to countless public servants of both parties, and a leader in channeling the forces of public policy toward the public good.

The proceeds from that dinner provided the start-up money for the establishment of the Bryce Harlow Foundation. In just 3 short years, the Foundation has launched a wide assortment of projects to enhance and improve cooperation between business and government through educational and informational programs. The Foundation has proven to be quite a success story -- through the hard work and dedication of people like Bryce Harlow, and with the support of so many of you here tonight.

I understand that the Bryce Harlow Award will be presented this evening -- to someone who "has contributed significantly and measurably to the advancement of business-government relations." In advance, I send my heartfelt congratulations.

Nancy and I are sorry we can't be with you in person, but we would like to salute the Foundation for the outstanding work you are doing.

Good night and God bless you all.

PRESIDENTIAL TAPING: CHRISTMAS MESSAGE TO ARMED FORCES
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1985

As we prepare to close the door on 1985 and open up a New Year, Nancy and I extend our very best wishes for a happy holiday season to each of you.

This is the time of year when the age-old longing for "peace on earth, goodwill toward men" fills our hearts, and because of your selfless dedication and your willingness to preserve the ideals of our Founding Fathers, America is at peace and remains firmly committed to the ideal of goodwill toward all people.

As we celebrate Hanukkah, Christmas, and the New Year, we want you who serve our Nation in uniform, and your families to know how appreciative all Americans are of the sacrifices you make every day to keep America free and strong. This holiday season is a proper time for all of us to renew our pledge to the constant struggle to find a better and safer world.

Nancy and I wish you and your families a joyful and safe holiday season, wherever you may be.

PRESIDENTIAL TAPING: ADVERTISEMENTS FOR SENATOR PACKWOOD
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1985

Radio Ad #1

This is Ronald Reagan. I am opposed to gun registration. Bob Packwood is opposed to gun registration. If you are opposed to gun registration, vote for Bob Packwood. Oregon needs him. America needs him. I need him.

Radio Ad #2

This is Ronald Reagan. I'm fighting hard to pass a meaningful tax reform bill. As chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, Bob Packwood is one of my strongest allies in this effort. If you want meaningful tax reform, re-elect Bob Packwood. Oregon needs him. America needs him. I need him.

Radio Ad #3

This is Ronald Reagan. I fought hard in 1981 to get our tax code indexed so that you aren't pushed into higher tax brackets by inflation. Bob Packwood fought hard for the same thing. If you agree with us, re-elect Bob Packwood. Oregon needs him. America needs him. I need him.

Radio and Television Ad #1

This is Ronald Reagan. I support a constitutional amendment to require a balanced Federal budget. So does Bob Packwood. If you support a constitutional amendment to require a balanced budget, vote for Bob Packwood. Oregon needs him. America needs him. I need him.

Radio and Television Ad #2

This is Ronald Reagan. I am committed to reducing the Federal deficit by cutting spending, not by raising taxes. Bob Packwood, as Chairman of the powerful Senate Finance Committee, is committed to the same thing. If you want to reduce the Federal deficit by cutting spending rather than raising taxes, re-elect Bob Packwood. Oregon needs him. America needs him. I need him.

PRESIDENTIAL TAPING: TRIBUTE TO AARON SPELLING
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1985

Nancy and I are sorry we cannot be with you tonight, Aaron, but our thoughts are with you as the Beverly Hills B'nai B'rith is honoring you as its "Man of the Year."

You have been the man of the year to thousands of people in the entertainment industry for many years. Your success -- which is noteworthy in itself -- has paid an extra dividend, in that you have consistently been one of the largest employers in the entertainment community. I think one would be hard-pressed to find another producer who has provided as many hours of work for everyone from the biggest stars, to all the technical and crafts people who each support our Nation's economy.

Your shows have been trendsetters in television, too, which is good for the industry and great for the public. The success of "Dynasty," for example, showed the world that there can be superstars over the age of 40. Nancy and I are professionally grateful for that breakthrough. After all, we might want to return to acting after 1988, and you have created a lot of opportunities for the 40-plus acting set.

From your early days in Hollywood writing for "Dick Powell's Zane Grey Theatre," to "Playhouse 90," to your years with Four Star, and with Danny Thomas, for the introductions to "Charlie's Angels," "Starsky and Hutch," the "Mod Squad," "Family," "Matt Houston," and "T.J. Hooker," to the entertaining hours of "The Love Boat," "Fantasy Island," "Hart to Hart," "Hotel," and more, it is a privilege for Nancy and me to have a small part in the celebration of a big man in all of our lives.

Congratulations, Aaron.

Just one more thing... Can you tell us -- just between us, of course -- if Blake and Krystle's marriage will survive another season?

PRESIDENTIAL TAPING: SCRIPT FOR "AMERICA, YOU'RE TOO YOUNG TO DIE"
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1985

Well over 200 years have passed since the gallant men that formed our Nation met in a carpenter's hall in Philadelphia.

They were men of many backgrounds, but all with one common denominator...their faith in God.

As Thomas Jefferson wrote, all men are "endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights." Those first Americans proclaimed their freedom because they believed God had granted freedom to all men.

For decades, America remained true to her beliefs, thanking God in peacetime and turning to Him in moments of crisis. During the Civil War, perhaps our Nation's darkest hour, Abraham Lincoln said, I would be the most foolish person on this footstool earth if I believed for one moment that I could perform the duties assigned to me without the help of one who is wiser than all.

I don't believe any man or woman can serve in this office without understanding exactly what Mr. Lincoln meant.

But in recent years, years not too distant in our past, America did seem to be losing her religious and moral bearings. Our social standards seemed to be dissolving, our economic and governmental institutions were in disarray. Our defenses had grown weak. All over the world, America was becoming known not for strength and resolve, but for vacillation and self-doubt. It seemed for a season as though our Nation was in permanent decline and that any sense of justice, self-discipline and duty was ebbing out of public life.

But the God who has so richly blessed our land also gave us free will, the power to choose our own destiny. And that is what the American people are doing: after putting a stop to that long decline, we are today seeking a rebirth of freedom and faith -- a great national renewal. And, we've only just begun.

Together we can show the world that America is, and will always remain, one Nation under God.
