Mr. Christoph Weidlich
Kufsteiner Str. 59
D-100 Berlin 62
Federal Republic of Germany

Dear Mr. Weidlich:

I am replying to your April 18 letter to President Reagan regarding his trip to the Federal Republic of Germany.

During his visit, the President made absolutely clear the revulsion all Americans feel for the horrors committed in the name of the German state before and during World War II, and our determination not to forget them. His itinerary included a ceremony at the site of the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp to pay homage to those who perished at the hands of the Nazis. As he said on the April 21 anniversary of the liberation of that camp and again during his own visit, "There can and should be no absolution."

President Reagan strongly believes, as part of our efforts to learn from the experiences of this dark era, we must not reject opportunities for reconciliation. In this spirit, he was asked by Chancellor Kohl, and accepted the invitation, to visit a German military cemetery in Bitburg.

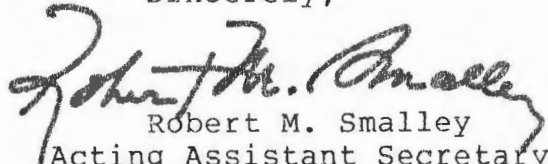

For four decades, the Federal Republic of Germany has faced up to the guilt and responsibilities of its Nazi past. It has demonstrated concretely in countless ways its commitment to democratic ideals and human rights, including standing shoulder to shoulder with us in the Alliance in defense of freedom. The President's trip to Bitburg included a visit to the large Bitburg Air Base, which houses members of both the U.S. and German Air Forces.

It is important to demonstrate, particularly to the younger generation in Germany, that although we continue to hold the nation responsible for its past, we do not consider them to bear individual responsibility for the crimes of Nazism. The President did not consider his appearance at Bitburg to represent an act of forgiveness for those crimes. Rather, it was an acknowledgment of the democratic society the German people have built. He considered this to be a positive gesture which in no way detracted from his full and heartfelt commitment to remember and honor the victims of the Holocaust and the American soldiers who gave their lives to defeat the Nazi regime and its crimes.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Smalley
Acting Assistant Secretary for Public Affairs

TRANSLATOR'S SUMMARY OF COMMUNICATION

Language: German
Date of Communication: April 18, 1985
Addressed to: President Reagan
Name and address of writer: Mr. Christoph Weidlich
Kufsteiner Str. 59
D-1000 Berlin 62

Federal Republic of Germany

Substance of writer's statement:

The writer refers to two previous letters which he wrote to the President and which were answered by our Berlin representation. He got the Reagans' California address from their income tax return which was published in Germany, but he does not restate his original request to the President. In the second letter, also dated April 18, 1985, he expresses his regret that the President changed his original schedule for his trip to Germany. He maintains that the concentration camps have become a symbol of only the persecution of Jews, instead of what they really were: a symbol of the persecution of many groups, including the political opposition. Therefore he believes that a fitting substitute for a concentration camp would be Berlin-Plötzen-see, where about 2,000 member of the German resistance were executed, including the 20th of July conspirators.

CHRISTOPH A. WEIDLICH

Sehr verehrte Mrs. Reagan, sehr geehrter Mr. Reagan, leider habe ich von meinen zwei Briefen an Sie nichts gehört. Wie gut war es daher, daß in Deutschland Ihre Einkommenssteuererklärung in Fotokopie veröffentlicht wurde, so daß ich an Ihre Privatadresse herankam. Dadurch komme ich in die Gelegenheit, Ihnen eine Kopie des Briefes zu übersenden, den ich offiziell an Sie, sehr geehrter Herr Präsident Reagan, ans Weiße Haus geschickt habe. Vielleicht habe ich über diese Adresse das Glück, von Ihnen gehört zu werden.

Ein Brief, den ich Ihnen geschickt habe, wurde mir in Berlin von dem obersten Sicherheitsoffizier der Amerikaner bestätigt. Das heißt, Ihr Mitarbeiterstab hat diesen Brief zwecks Bearbeitung nach Berlin-West geschickt. Dies reicht aber nicht aus, denn der Wunsch, den die Berliner Jäger haben, kann nur durch Sie persönlich erfüllt werden. Seit 40 Jahren kämpfen wir bei der alliierten Kommandantur darum, aber leider immer vergeblich.

In der Hoffnung, etwas von Ihnen zu hören, verbleibe ich

mit freundlichen Grüßen

Berlin, den 18. April 1985

CHRISTOPH A. WEIDLICH

Sehr geehrter Herr Präsident Reagan, die Änderung Ihres Besuchsprogrammes in Deutschland hilft Ihnen nur in Amerika. Auch ohne Veteranen-Verbände und jüdische Organisationen würden Sie beim dritten Mal ebenfalls einen überragenden Wahlsieg erringen. Uns Deutschen aber haben Sie leider nicht das zurückgegeben, was Sie von Anfang an an Ihre Fahnen geheftet haben, nämlich den 8. Mai zu einem Gründungstag der Freundschaft zu machen. Sie wären in die deutsche Geschichte eingegangen. Das verlorengegangene Gesicht der Deutschen wurde durch Ihr ursprüngliches Programm zurückgegeben. Die Jugend Deutschlands hat bis zum heutigen Tage Ihnen so zugejubelt, wie es auch die jungen Bürger in Amerika bei Ihrem zweiten Wahlsieg getan haben.

Mit dem Besuch eines Konzentrationslagers ehren Sie symbolisch Schwestern und Brüder unseres einst vereinigten Vaterlandes. Sie vergessen dabei aber, daß ein Konzentrationslager vordergründig nur als Symbol dasteht, daß Juden gemordet wurden, nicht aber Menschen, die nur ihrer politischen Meinung wegen ermordet wurden. Wenn Sie schon von den Veteranen, von denen ich es am wenigsten gedacht hätte, aufgefordert werden, neben einem Soldaten-Friedhof auch ein Konzentrationslager zu besuchen, so wäre der Kompromiß gewesen, die Stätte in Berlin-Plötzensee zu besuchen, um damit alle Opfer des National-Sozialistischen Regimes zu ehren. So aber ehren Sie einmal die deutschen Soldaten, und dieses ist mehr als recht und billig, daß man auch dem Unterlegenen seine Referenz erweist, und andererseits besuchen Sie die Symbolstätte der ermordeten Juden, nicht aber die vielen tausend Opfer einer Gewaltherrschaft.

Wie stolz waren wir doch auf Sie, Herr Präsident Reagan.

Mit freundlichen Grüßen

Berlin, den 18. April 1985
