Dear Dolly:

Thanks so much for your support and encouragement. They mean more than you can know. Nancy and I enjoyed the trip but, as always, we are pleased to be back in the good old U.S.A.

We send our appreciation and our warm regards to you and Bobby.

Sincerely,

Rev. 4/83

On the occasion of President Reagan's visit to the FRG, Helmut Sacher, an artist from Eichenau (Bavaria), wants to present his painting "In the Shadow of the Past" to the President. Following is an informal Embassy translation of Helmut Sacher's interpretation of his painting.

BEGIN TEXT

I got the idea to paint the picture "In the Shadow of the Past" in 1984 during my vacation in Vendee near La Rochelle in France.

Here we were closely in touch with the past in view of La Rochelle's commemorating the 40th anniversary of its liberation from the Germans.

The overwhelming coastal landscape and the helpless feeling to be caught by the past sponsored this picture.

It would be too much to list all the ideas that shaped the picture.

A few days ago President Reagan gave a speech on American TV expressing exactly what I and definitely millions of Germans are concerned about.

He addressed the feelings of guilt of our past which always recur in Germany and especially in foreign countries.

President Reagan precisely indicated what affected me while painting this picture.

That is why I spontaneously thought I should present it to the President on the occasion of his visit to Germany.

I would appreciate his accepting and understanding my present.

signed: Helmut Sacher

Der Gedanke zu dem Bild " Im SCHATTEN DER VERGANGENHEIT " wurde 1984 geboren- während meines Urlaubs in der französischen Vendeé in der Nähe von La Rochelle.

Dort berührte uns die Vergangenheit hautnah,- man feierte in La Rochelle den vierzigjährigen Jahrestag der Befreiung von den Deutschen.

Die grandiose Küstenlandschaft und das hilflose Gefühl, von den Gewalten der Vergangenheit eingeholt zu werden, standen Pate zu meinem Bild.

Es würde zu weit gehen, hier alle Gedanken, denen ich mit dem Bild Gestalt gab, aufzuführen.

Vor einigen Tagen hielt der Amerikanische Präsident im U.S.-Fernsehen eine Rede, in der er genau das ansprach, was mir- und mit mir sicher millionen Deutschen auf dem Herzen liegt.

Er ging auf die Schuldgefühle wegen unserer Vergangenheit ein, die im Deutschen- insbesondere im Ausland- immer wieder aufsteigen.

Präsident Reagan ließ genau das anklingen, was mich beim malen des Bildes bewegt hatte.

Deshalb kam mir spontan der Gedanke, dem Präsidenten anläßlich seines Deutschlandbesuches mein Bild zu schenken.

lch würde mich freuen, wenn er mein Geschenk annähme und es verstünde.

Dear Mr. President,

the people of Erftstadt are most honoured and delighted that you and Mrs. N. Reagan have chosen to reside in the castle of Erftstadt-Gymnich during your stay in the Federal Republic of Germany.

As a token of our appreciation and as a memento of your visit to our town we should like to present you with the enclosed bottle of perfume which has actually been created by a renowned perfumer of our company.

It will not be released for general sale and the secret formulation has been safe-deposited under the internal code name "First Lady".

This sophisticated and elegant fragrance represents a well balanced and harmoneous mélange of natural essential oils supported by precious wood and delicate floral components.

We would want to think that your charming wife will like this exclusive creation and would be only too pleased to furnish you with repeat samples upon request.

Yours sincerely,

H. J. Schulenbyrg

In 1977, the influential Corning Museum of Glass, Corning, N.Y., announced that one of Eric White's perfume bottles had been chosen by the Museum for inclusion in its microfiche library of contemporary glass. This annual photographic survey has been established to provide a record of the most significant glass pieces made each year throughout the world. The judging criteria focused on overall quality, with emphasis on originality and craftsmanship.

WHITEHOUSE DC

WASHINGTON DC 20500

TO FOLLOW UP MY TELEPHONE CONVERSATION WITH A MEMBER OF YOUR SECRETARIAL STAFF ON THE 27 OF APRIL 1985 CONCERNING YOUR FORTHCOMING TRIP TO GERMANY. I SEND YOU THIS TELGRAM TO ASSURE THAT MY RESPECTFUL SUGGESTIONS REACH YOU.

THE LAST RESOLUTION AND DOCUMENTS SIGNED BY WOODROW WILSON WAS OFFERED BY ME TO BRING BACK AN UNKNOWN SOLDIER FROM THE BATTLEFIELDS OF FRANCE FOR BURIAL IN THE ARLINGTON AMPHITHEATRE. THE BURIAL TOOK PLACE ON NOVEMBER 11 1941 AND I PLACED THE ONLY WREATH REPRESENTING THE CONGRESS AND GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES BEFORE 75,000 PEOPLE. THE TOMB IS NOW ESTABLISHED AS A MOST SACRED MONUMENT TO OUR WAR DEAD. AS PAST COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION AND MEMBER OF CONGRESS FOR 25 YEARS I UNDERSTAND THAT FRANCE, ENGLAND AND ITALY ALSO COMMEMORATE THEIR WAR DEAD THROUGH THEIR UNKNOWN SOLDIERS. I FURTHER BELIEVE THE GERMANS ALSO HAVE SUCH A MONUMENT OR SUCH EQUIVALENT. BY PLACING A WREATH AT THE TOMB OF THE GERMAN UNKNOWN SOLDIER IT WOULD BE THE GREATEST HONOR WE COULD BESTOW ON THE SOLDIERS WHO FAUGHT AND DIED FOR THEIR COUNTRY IN WHAT IS NOW EAST AND WEST GERMANY. IF THERE IS AN AMERICAN MILITARY CEMETERY IN GERMANY A WREATH COULD BE PLACED THERE AND ALSO AT A CONCENTRAFTION CAMP FOR THE JEWISH VICTIMS. IF THIS IS DONE BY YOU BOTH GERMANS EAST AND WEST AND AMERICANS WOULD APPLAUD YOUR WISE ACTION. THRITY YEARS AFTER OUR BITTER CIVIL WAR WITH GREAT CASUALTIES FORMER CONFEDERATE OFFICERS SERVED IN TOP COMMAND IN OUR WAR WITH SPAIN'S FORTY YEARS AFTER OUR PEACE WITH GERMANY IT WOULD BE A TRAGEDY TO UNDERMINE OUR NOW HIGHLY IMPORTANT FRIENDSHIP AND ALLIANCE WITH GERMANY AGAINST THE FURTHER SPEAD OF COMMUNISM IN WESTERN EUROPE.

Dear Professor Neusner:

Thank you very much for your kind message, for sending the newspaper columns — including your own! — and for your generous words. I am truly grateful and particularly so for your approval of my recent visit to West Germany. I felt from the start that I was doing the morally right thing, and feel that even more so now that the trip is ever. Your message strengthens my conviction and your thoughtfulness has indeed brightened my day.

My Leep Thanks, also, for what Jan hause done Bor me personally, Suicerell, Dackheusner

Elie Wiesel lectured

By JACOB NEUSNER

If Elie Wiesel had asked me my advice about what to say to President Reagan and how to say it, I would have told him this:

Remember, not everyone in the world is Jewish.

By that I
Neusner mean, remember that there are many people in the world who do not see things our way and who do not understand how we see things.
To them, as to us all, the President is President. Treat him with respect, with dignity owing to his office, even with tact.

ABOVE ALL, remember that he is a person of enormous good will for the Jewish people. He has done more for the State of Israel than any president before him (and many have written enviable records).

So do not lecture him, condescend to him, treat him as though he does not feel the things we feel or understand us. He is a man of enormous good will, and especially for us Jews.

He is a friend, not an enemy. When the whole world condemned Israel for its invasion of Lebanon in 1982, the President defended the State of Israel and its actions. He lost political capital by doing so. He has paid his dues, he owes us no apologies.

HE IS sympathetic to our feelings and concerns, not hos-

Friends are permitted to disagree. So, as the Israeli position wisely stated matters: Friends are friends, and mistakes are mistakes. Now let's get on with life.

Now that Bitburg is behind us, we can look back with some regret at the needlessly emotional atmosphere in which our tragedy, which was the tragedy of humanity, reached public consciousness. Things were altogether too contentious.

Our people appeared - as

Mr. Wiesel showed the country in his rather dscourteous lecture to the President - less concerned for the standing and feeling of our friends than we might have shown. The President, for his part, did all that was humanly possible to express for the world the depth of the tragedy of the Shoah. What more could we have hoped in the cause of remembering the Shoah than what President Reagan accomplished for us and for all humanity?

THE PRESIDENT did not gain, and we lost. So we felt self-righteous, but it was the President who went on, at Bergen Belsen, to give one of the great speeches of our time on the subject beyond all speech.

Who taught the world about the Shoah, if not President Reagan in his profound and moving address? I do not think that Mr. Wiesel did so well as did Mr. Reagan.

We have to remember that we are not the only ones who live in America. We do have many friends and allies, people who not only believe in the same things but also respect us. Their good will is worth nurturing.

Dear General Breckner:

On behalf of the White House Military Office I want to thank you PRODE-OF and the 17th Air Force for the superb support which you provided President Reagan on his recent trip to the Federal Republic of Germany. I appreciate the extra work imposed on your command by the requirement to support a four aircraft detachment in Bonn and in Hanover. The marines from Marine Helicopter Squadron One informed me that your helicopters reflected long hours of maintenance and preparation. I especially want to commend Lieutenant Colonel Rosenbaum for his cooperation and assistance. His experience and knowledge of our requirements made our job much easier. I also wish to acknowledge Master Sergeant Kueruerz, the detachment maintenance chief, for his help in preparing the aircraft.

Please-convey my thanks to all personnel involved in this visit. My best wishes to you and your command for continued success.

My purpose was never to suggest we forgive and forget, and I found that today's Germans do not suggest such a thing. They have preserved the camps with evidence of all the horror of the Holocaust, and they say along with us, "Never again."

Dear Billy Ray:

Please forgive my tardiness in answering your kind message of support for my trip to West Germany. Your generous words mean a great deal to me.

You are so right about the need for reconciliation and for building peace among nations. This was what was in my mind with regard to the Bitburg visit. You are right as well that we must continue to emphasize this theme. As I said in my Proclamation designating Memorial Day, 1985 a day of prayer for permanent peace, we must honor the brave Americans who have paid the highest price for their commitment to the ideals of peace, freedom and justice, but we can pay our debt to them only by our own commitment to preserving those ideals.

I will continue to do everything I can to keep faith with those who have fought and died in the cause of liberty so that we can spare coming generations from a repetition of the tragedies of the past. With the prayers and help of leading citizens like yourself, I know we will succeed.

Thank you again and God bless you.

RE:

Thank You Letter

Attached is a draft of a thank you letter to Col. Clyde Boden, head of the Veterans of the Battle of the Bulge. Col. Boden was the fellow who tracked down the story of the German and American soldiers who shared a Christmas Eve in a cottage in a forest near the Battle of the Bulge. The President used the story in his remarks at Bitburg Air Base during the trip this past May. I have cleared the letter with both Agnes Waldron and Ben Elliott and hope we can send it to Col. Boden from the President.

Please let me know if there are any problems or if you have any questions. I'm at extension 7750.

Dear Lieutenant Henderson:

Thank you for your words of support and for your kind invitation to visit Schweinfurt.

I'm sorry I couldn't take you up on your invitation. It's always a privilege to personally thank our servicemen and women for the sacrifices they make serving the cause of peace and freedom.

As I said in my Proclamation designating Memorial Day, 1985 a day of prayer for permanent peace: freedom, justice and peace are not things that were won for us two hundred years ago or forty years ago; they must be won again and again by each successive generation. Por your part in this mission, I am pleased to send my greetings to you and to all our soldiers and dependents who stand guard beside our NATO allies at the frontier of democracy.

Again, thank you and God bless you.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Stras May 10, 1985 Dear Lieutenant Henderson: Thank you for your invitation which you sent the President prior to his visit to West Germany. We appreciate knowing of your interest in arranging this with the President. Unfortunately, I regret to write that his schedule during his visit was already heavily committed and we were unable to add this to his day. However, on behalf of the President, please know that your thoughtfulness was greatly appreciated. With best wishes, Sincerely, FRED. ICK J. RYAN, JR. Dear Mr. President:

4-25.85 NAME 77 TAI

Republic of Germany--only eighteen miles from the East German Border. I write this letter with no personal reason in mind, but on behalf of the more than 35,000 American soldiers and dependents here actively protecting Freedom and furthering chances for world peace.

Since becoming aware of your upcoming visit to Germany, I have tried to think of any way to come see and hear you; however, like so many here in Schweinfurt, my mission precludes me from such a opportunity. Hence, I am requesting with utmost sincerity that you might be able to visit the soldiers and their families as they briefly break from their daily efforts of keeping tyranny at bay. The best opportunity for just such a visit is on Germany's Labor Day-1 May 85-during which time we are hosting our German/American Spring Festival The opportunity to visit with large numbers of the best trained, best equiped soldiers of the "new" Army exists nowhere better than here. Schweinfurt—the highest per capita density of U.S. Soldiers in Europe—and our sub community of Bad Kissingen, have twelve full combat battalions with supporting units. Together they are responsible for over 300 kilometers of West German Border surveillance, in addition to Europe's General Defense Plan.

The act of visiting the soldiers here in Schweinfurt would not only further your image as a "deified" President amongst the "Dogfaced Soldiers" of the Marne Division, but to our German hosts, to our citizens at home, and to U.S. service members everywhere who daily bear the cross of peace in a troubled world. For the Commander-in-Chief at the pinnacle of such a large and modern force to visit the lowest echelon of that force sends a message to the entire world: that we are one--from the President to the private--one in the purpose of peace, and one nation under God with the vision, Let Freedom Ring!

If for some reason you are unable to attend our carnival due to time constraints, security, et al, we certainly understand. However, in such a case, to send a representative in your place, or even the smallest message would mean so much to your soldiers and families here, and elsewhere. We are anxiously awaiting your reply. Godspeed be with you Mr. President.

Sincerely,

Mark K. Henders

Dear Mr. Deutsch:

Colonel Friedrich Busch has kindly forwarded your special remembrances to me. The handsome illustrated volume, Germans in the American Revolution, is indeed appreciated and a most welcome addition to my library. Thank you, too, for the framed pen-and-ink sketches of Hambach Castle by Horst Romer. I am delighted to have these keepsakes of my memorable visit to this historic site in the Federal Republic of Germany.

With my deep gratitude for your thoughtful gesture of friendship, and with my best wishes to you and your colleagues,

Dear Mr. de Balasy:

Thank you very much for your kind message and generous words. I am truly grateful for your support of my recent visit to West Germany, particularly so because of your wartime experience as a nember of the French Resistance. I felt from the start that I was doing the morally right thing, and feel that even more so now that the trip is over. Your message helps strengthen my conviction.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Mr. Francois M. de Balasy 14 rue Petrarque 75116 Paris Prance

Dear Mr President ,

Though being the Secretary General of the French Association for an Atlantic Community - and in this capacity in close contact with the U.S Atlantic Committee - , in want to write to you only on a personnal ground .

What you have done and the manner in which you have done it in Bitburg demonstrated an impressive statemanship and a great sens of the western destiny .

As a Frenchman and a veteran from the Resistance having fought against the Nazis from my teen age , and later on in the Army ,I wanted to clearly express my support in those critic - and much critisized -circum--stances .

I am , Dear Mr President ,
