Dear President Reagan:

Evidently you still have not gotten the point.

A grudging visit to a concentration camp that you have been quoted as saying you are not enthusiastic about making, is no justification for honoring dead SS men. They were NOT victims of anything but their own prejudices.

There are as many Germans still alive who participated in the horror as there are Americans still alive whom they tried to kill -- including my husband.

This will overshadow everything you do in eight years as President. You will go down in history as the President who decided to honor Nazi SS men.

Evidently it is more important to you to please the head of Germany than to honor the brave Americans who fought in the war. And we are all painfully aware of the fact that you were not one of them.

Sincerely,

Barbara J. Benjamin

Dear President Regan:

Congratulations!

It was a brilliant political move to announce, on the 40th anniversary of the liberation of Dachau, that you would visit a German cemetery. What a magnificent tribute to the allied soldiers of World War II and the victims of the Nazi holocaust.

Once again we are overwhelmed by evidence of your level of sensitivity. This decision is even more impressive than your decree that ketchup is a nutritious vegetable for hungry children.

Dear Mr. Reagan:

Your visit to the cemetery honoring SS soldiers who are criminals to humanity is the most heartless, and frankly stupid thing you have ever done. I urge to immediately cancel your visit to the Bitburg cemetery, and to instead visit the concentration camp. At this point you need a "reconciliation" with the victims of the concentration and the US veterans groups who fought and died against Nazi criminals.

Your actions are morally repugnant. Undo what will be the crassest act ever committed by an American President.

Sincerely yours,

Jon Hamilton

Sir:

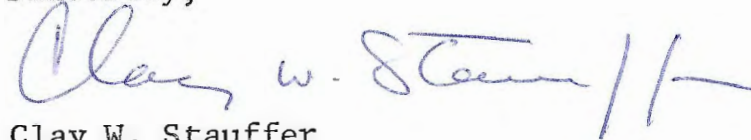

This letter is to express my deepest disappointment at your decision to lay a wreath at the cemetery at Bitburg, where Nazi SS were interred.

To do so is tantamount to laying a wreath at the tomb of German militarism.

Would it not be more fitting to lay a wreath to memorialize those exterminated by the SS, or those of America's sons who gave their lives defending foreign soil?

The significance of your visit to Bitburg will not escape European public opinion's comprehension.

Sincerely,

Clay W. Stauffer

Dear Mr. President:

We should like to add our voice to the many who object to your visiting a Nazi cemetery during your visit to Germany.

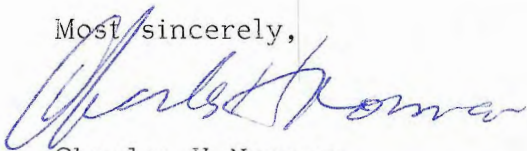

"Forgive and forget" is a nice attitude and, true, many of the German soldiers who died weren't personally responsible for the atrocities committed by the Nazis ... but, by commemorating their graves, it seems to most of us that you're giving some sanction to the Nazi regime.

And considering the acts committed by the SS, buried there, never in all of time could those be forgiven.

In an informal poll among our listeners we found them in agreement.

We do hope you'll reconsider.

Most sincerely,

Charles H Norman

Mr. Ronald Reagan

Dear Mr. Reagan

On your forthcoming visit to West Germany you will find a dependable, strong Friend and Ally and a most important Nato-Partner.

Our German-American Friendship will continue for many years and generations to come. On your visit I respectfully suggest;

- 1.) Visit to Chancellor Helmut Kohl
- 2.) Attend a Joint Seccion of the Bundestag with Speech to Members (40 years ago the Federal Republic—a Democracy was founded with our guidance)
- 3.) A Parade and Review of American and German Nato Forces
- 4.) A visit to a Memorial of the Unknown Soldier.
- 5.) A visit to a German University,-like Heidelberg/Goettingen-

Mr. President, as a registered Republican and an American of German descent, I believe this Itinery would find the support of all and offend no one. (Concentration Camp and Cemetary Advisers can surely be avoided.)

May God bless You.

Respectfully Yours,

Peter Teichmann

Dear Mr. President:

On April 16, April 17, April 18 and April 22nd on the Barry Gray Program between 12:00noon and 2:00pm there were discussions with anonymous callers about your upcoming trip to Germany in the course of which you were mentioned. One caller, for example, said "Reagan has no humanity".

WMCA would like to offer you the opportunity to respond. Please let me know if you would like to do so.

The President
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Reagan:

May I add my voice to the protest against what I consider to be your ill-advised decision to honor the Nazi war dead on your upcoming visit to Germany and to ignore the Allied war dead during that visit.

I understand your wish to honor the soldiers on the other side who were merely doing their duty in trying to kill as many Americans as they could, but I cannot understand the statement attributed to you which imply that there are scarcely any individuals left ~~WERE~~ who were involved in World War II.

Mr. President, there are still millions of American veterans alive, myself included, who feel insulted by your reported decision.

Please reconsider. How about a visit -- no matter how brief to the tomb of the unknown soldier in Paris during your visit to France? The French were our allies in that war, you might remember even if you did not take part in it.

Sincerely,

Alfred B. Udow

Mr. Ronald Reagan
President of the United States
Washington D.C.

Honorable Sir:

As a veteran of World War One, 75th Co, 6th
Reg U.S. Marines 2nd Army Div. I beg to take this opportunity to compliment you on your decision to visit the German War Dead
I too have suffered mustard gas disorders and am on a very strict diet for, sixty years, equal to the suffering of the gas chamber atrocities, but I have brains enough to realize that this was the result of an enmity generated by War Propaganda which was promoted by a small group of money and power crazed individuals. I am proud that I answered the Call of my country and that I had physical contact with the perpetrators of this outrage.

Americans are tired of listening to a certain group of Headline Grabbers who try to enunciate they alone are the suffers, why don't they try the American policies, "Forgive and Forget.

With American Money, Lives and Backing they Have done a Damned poor job in the Aisaitic and Jerusalem Area. I think they need to refresh their memories and think of the admonition of one whom they crucified, as He looked down from the Cross. "Father Forgive Them for They know not what they do".

Keep your chin up and carry on, you are doing A

"SWELL JOB"

Respectfully

God's Gift Disdained

Take back the joy
That is meant for me
Problems and worry
Shall ever be

Take back the gift
I prize it not Dare You intrude
And dictate my lot

Take back your gold
I did not decree
This shrine of mine
Shall glorify Thee

Take back that bundle
I shall not hold
Thou tis worth double more
Than its weight in gold

Take back those eyes
That pierce me through
And search for love
In my heart too

Take back those lips
Praise of thee they sing
I am earthly attuned
And do my own thing

Take back the tiny arms
Outstretched to me
To entwine my neck
For security

Take back the gurgle
And baby talk
And the little legs to guide
When they shall walk

Take back the joyful hours
Which are mine to be
When this unwanted gift
Arrives at maturity

Take back this dream
That I might see
This gift of mine
Our President be

Take back my thoughts
My mind will enslave
I have denied the life
That Thou hast gave

Take back the price
That I must pay
For this ABORTION MURDER
on JUDGEMENT DAY

Dear President Reagan,

Forgive? yes, of course.

As a Christian one is commanded to forgive. But forget? We should never forget mankind's potential for evil.

As a Christian and a teacher of American History, I urge you to visit a German military cemetery and also Dachau next month.

Sincerely,

Diane & Douglas

AH,

DEAR MR PRESIDENT

STAND FIRM ON YOUR ORIGINAL IDEA OF VISITING BITBURG CEMETERY. IT IS CORRECT AND TIMELY. THE GERMANS ARE A DEMOCRACY OUR FRIENDS AND ALLY. WE ALL WENT THROUGH THE ANGUISH OF WWII. IT IS NOW TIME FOR HEALING OUR WOUNDS. IF THOSE WHO THOUGHT EYE TO EYE ON IWO JIMA CAN NOW MEET ON THAT BATTLEFIELD AND BECOME FRIENDS THEN WHY IS IT NOT PROPER FOR YOU TO REPRESENT US ALL AT BITBURG? HAVE COURAGE AND DO WHAT YOU KNOW IS RIGHT. YOU ARE IN OUR PRAYERS.
