Dear Mrs. De Pineda:

Thank you very much for the beautiful flowers which you sent while I was in the hospital. Nancy and I have been deeply touched by the way so many friends like you have reached out during these days, and I want you to know that I truly appreciate your prayerful sentiment and thoughtful gesture of concern.

With our warm regards,

Sincerely,
RONALD REAGAN

Dear Mrs. Olivas:

Now that I'm "back in the saddle," I want you to know how much I appreciated your kind message and the specially designed plant garden which you sent to me. Your encouraging words, your thoughtful gift, and particularly your prayers are a source of encouragement as I look forward to resuming a full schedule soon. I recall your nice gesture in 1981 and your steadfast friendship means more than I can say.

Nancy joins me in sending you and your family our warm regards.

Dear Mr President,

The trail was lonesome without you on "The Saddle".

Happy to see you getting back on the trail of restoring our country to its former glory and grandeur and stancy.

You've not only brought back dignity and pride, but also strength to our country.

Our prayers for a complete and speedy recovery.

The Lord has truly blessed you in making you live to a palm tree, that weathers
every storm.

Sincerely yours,

You and your teacher were indeed kind to bring to the White House the arrangement of silk flowers and the handmade get-well card wishing me a speedy recovery from my recent surgery. It's always nice to be remembered by young friends, and I'm truly grateful to all of you for your special gesture of concern. Please convey my appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Lestel Childress for making the handsome basket and to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moody for creating the beautiful flowers.

I hope you enjoyed your visit to our nation's capital and will have a future opportunity for a longer stay. Mrs. Reagan joins me in sending you and Miss McDougal our best wishes for the future.

July 20, 1985

Dear Mr. President,

Students in the PROMISE program from Edmonson County Kentucky would like for you to have this basket along with our wishes for your speedy recovery.

Our group is in Washington today as a result of these students selling candy, having yard sales, washing cars and working hard in general. We left our school at 4:00 am this morning, drove to the airport in Louisville and will return to our homes by 10:30 pm., an exciting day for us!

These children are sixth, seventh, and eighth graders in the Gifted and Talented Program in Brownsville, Kentucky, located in the county in which about 90% of Mammoth Cave National Park lies.

This basket was hand-made by Lestel and Ollie Childers of Edmonson County from white oak trees that grow in the wood near the National Park. Mr. Childers is the fifth generation of basket weaver in his family.

We felt that one of Mr. Childers's baskets would be the most appropriate get well gift that we could offer you as it is woven from hard work with patience, heritage, strength and beauty, and because it will endure forever, given a little care, much like our nation.

Thank-you for giving that care to this intricately woven, hard working, strong country!

Get well soon!

Respectfully,
Patricia A. R. McDougal
PROMISE Program teacher

Dear Jim:

I certainly appreciated the beautiful flowers which you and Jane sent while I was in the hospital. What could have been an unpleasant time was turned into a comforting experience because so many friends, like you, reached out to let me know they cared. Thanks so much for just being there.

Nancy joins me in sending you and Jane our kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Ron

THE WHITE HOUSE

August 8, 1985

Dear Friends:

How sweet of you to send me the lovely arrangement of flowers during my recent visit to the Youth to Youth Drug conference in Columbus.

The support I receive encourages me to continue my campaign against drug abuse. I feel it is such a critical problem which we all must work toward ending. I was especially pleased to receive support from old members of my Alma Mater.

Again, thank you for the pleasant surprise. With my very best wishes.

Sincerely,

Clancy Reagan
