25 January 1983

Dear Mrs. Meisch:

Thank you for your letter of 17 December 1982 concerning the proposed state visit to the United States of the Grand Duke and Duchess of Luxembourg.

Unfortunately, the President's schedule for the first half of 1983 is already very full, and I am not optimistic that it will be possible to arrange a state visit prior to your departure for Bonn in June. Bill Clark, however, will continue to look for an early opportunity for a state visit and will be in touch with Ambassador Meisch through the State Department as soon as a decision can be reached, taking into account the other commitments on the President's schedule this year.

With my very best wishes,

Sincerely,

EDWIN MEESE III

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK
THE WHITE HOUSESubject: Draft Reply from Mr. Edwin Meese to Mrs. Candace
Johnson Meisch

In response to your request, attached is a draft reply to a letter which Mrs. Candace Johnson Meisch, the wife of the Ambassador of Luxembourg to the US, wrote to Mr. Meese on December 17 to seek his support in arranging a state visit to the US for the Grand Duke and Duchess of Luxembourg, preferably before June 1983. Ambassador Meisch has advised the Department that he is also awaiting a reply to his letter to you on the same subject.

The Ambassador is pressing hard for scheduling a visit prior to his departure in June for Bonn as Ambassador to the FRG. We believe his interest in a state visit will decrease once it becomes apparent that such a visit will not take place in the first half of 1983, though we support in principle the idea of such a visit when the President's schedule permits.

The draft reply to Mrs. Meisch advises that the President's schedule for the first half of 1983 is already very full but we will continue to look for an early opportunity for a state visit to the US by the Grand Duke and Duchess.

As perhaps you know, my husband will be leaving Washington D.C. on June 15th to assume his country's ambassadorial post in Bonn. All parties had hoped that this visit could be held before his departure.

I would be extremely grateful to you if perhaps you might be able to shed some light on the scheduling of this visit which means so much to us, to Luxembourg, and to her people. The visit would mark the 20th anniversary of the last Luxembourg state visit by the present head of state's mother, Grand Duchess Charlotte. It would further cement the strong ties of friendship between these two allies.

With my thanks and my very best wishes to you and Mrs. Meese for a Christmas of peace, I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Last fall I had the pleasure to be your dinner partner at Marshall Coyne's lovely evening at the Madison. At that time you suggested that I call you about the Grand Duke and Grand Duchess of Luxembourg should any problems arise about their proposed state visit to the United States.

I am writing you now because although my husband proposed the visit several months ago through the proper State Department channels we have received no schedule information from The White House or The State Department other than that the idea has been positively received.

Dear John:

I was indeed pleased to read your letter reporting on the dedication ceremony of the "Monument du GI" in Clervaux. It seems that in the fine showing and activity of the many veterans who participated that you have gained many ambassadorial assistants. This can only strengthen our already solid relations with the people of Luxembourg.

It was gratifying to learn that so many of our European friends remember our soldiers for their dedication and bravery during World War II. This recognition is a great reward for our veterans who attended the ceremony. It is also a fine tribute to their fallen comrades. Again, thanks for such a positive report.

Our best to you and Winnie.

Luxembourg dedicates soldier's monument

By Lydie Hengen
Community Relations

Some 70 veterans of the Battle of the Bulge were invited by the "Studies Circle of the Battle of the Bulge" to attend the official inauguration of a monument to the American soldier in the Luxembourg Ardennes town of Clervaux Sunday. The cold and the rain did not prevent the Crown Prince and Princess of Luxembourg, the Prime Minister, several other government members, U.S. Ambassador John E. Dolibois, countless other high-ranking civilians and military, as well as thousands of people directly affected almost 40 years ago from attend the ceremony.

The dedication started with a parade of 1944 vintage U.S. jeeps and other military vehicles, led by the U.S. Air Forces in Europe Marching Band. The numbers and names of the companies, battalions, and regiments involved in the battle were written on the vehicles. With tears in his eyes, one former company commander got into a jeep marked "CO C, 27th Armoured Infantry Battalion" saying, "I never dreamed I'd be in this seat again."

Clervaux Mayor Michel Wehrhausen welcomed all the guests to the ceremony. Addressing the U.S. veterans, he said it was very satisfying to see that so many of them had crossed the ocean to participate in the inauguration of their monument. Camille Kohn, CEBA president, thanked everyone involved for the success of the monument dedication, including the USAFE Band, which enhanced the event with their professional music. He recalled the events of December 1944, the Battle of the Bulge, and assured the American people that the sacrifice of their soldiers would never be forgotten.

Pierre Werner, Prime Minister of Luxembourg, reminisced about the exile of the Luxembourg Royal House and government in the U.S. during World War II. He underlined the unalterable friendship between the two countries, and assured the veterans that as long as they lived, they would have a home in Luxembourg.

After the monument was unveiled by Luxembourg Crown Prince Henri and his wife, Princess Maria Theresa, His Excellency John E. Dolibois, U.S. Ambassador to Luxembourg, read a personal message from President Ronald Reagan. In that message, President Reagan expressed his appreciation for the dedication of the monument, and pledged continued friendship between the two countries. The ambassador stated that he considered the monument to be "a symbol of courage for the defense of freedom and human rights."

Concluding the ceremony, a veteran, speaking for all his comrades, read a moving poem and dedicated the American soldier monument to "those who died and to those who are still living."

Barons clip Hawks 51-9 Sunday

By Joe Wolf
Barons statistician

The Barons offense and defense tied Continental Sports Conference records Sunday while Freddie Miller ran for 202 yards downing the Hahn Hawks 51 to 9.

It was a good day for the Barons' defensive backs as they combined to pick off eight Hawks passes tying the 1981 Rhein Main Rockets and the 1982 Sembach Tigers. Bobby Winn led the way with three interceptions taking one of them 36 yards for a touchdown. Danny Estes pulled in two and Manley Johnson, Chris McKinstry and Charles Woodfolk had one each.

On the other side of the line, it was the Barons offense taking charge of the line amassing 403 yards rushing in 68 attempts. The 68 rushes tied the CSC record held by the 1980 CSC Champion Bitburg Barons.

It took just two plays for the Barons to find paydirt as quarterback Dan Muchler pitched the ball to Miller, sprinting outside for a 48-yard touchdown. The try-for point was no good and the Barons led 6 to 0.

The Hawks' first score of the day came when the Barons were forced to punt from their own 22-yard line. The snap from center got caught by the strong wind and sailed over Ricky Sather's head into the end zone. Sather wisely downed the ball in the end zone giving the Hawks the safety and two points. The score at the end of the first period, Barons 6, Hawks 2.

The Barons put the game away in the second period tacking 32 points to the scoreboard. The first TD facemask, the Barons had the ball first-and-goal at the Hawks' 6-yard line. From that point Fredrick Highsmith ran for 3 yards before the Hawks tightened up holding the Barons on the next two downs. The Barons, going all the way, gave the ball to Highsmith who charged into the end zone for six points. Highsmith then split the uprights making the score Barons 21 Hawks 2.

On the ensuing kick off, Highsmith booted the ball through the end zone for the touchback giving the Hawks the ball at their own 20-yard line. On their first play Winn found a loose ball and recovered it at Hawks' 17-yard line. Ray Ransom came on as quarterback and on first down handed off to Gregory Benjamin hitting out for 6 yards. On second-and-fourth from the 11, Ransom dropped back to pass and found Dale Binkley alone in the end zone for the TD. Highsmith tacked on the PAT and the Barons led 28 to 2.

Less than three minutes later Winn hauled in his second Hawks pass and ran it 36 yards for the first defensive tally of the season. Highsmith was again good on the point after. Barons 35, Hawks 2.

The Barons final tally of the first half came when the drive stalled at the Hawks' 9-yard line. Once again Highsmith was called upon, this time for a 25 yard field goal. Barons 38, Hawks 2 at the half.

The Barons came out smoking in the second half putting together an 11-play drive to the Hahn 6 before the ball was fumbled away in the end zone. Fear not. Enter "Big D". The Hawks put the ball in play at the 20 and on third-and-nine from the 21, Winn picked masterminded another 11-play drive that featured the power running of Bob Sweeny and Highsmith coupled with a 19-yard pass completion to Michael Kinney. On fourth-and-goal from the one, Muchler called his own number and punched it in on a quarterback-keeper. Ricky Turner split the uprights this time giving the Barons a 51 to 2 lead.

The Hawks' only touchdown of the day came as the result of two long passes from quarterback A.J. Jones to wide receiver Silk Eddings. The first one was for 53 yards and then came the 30-yard touchdown with just 2:17 left on the clock. Rick Womer added the extra point and the final was Bitburg 51, Hahn 9.

Saturday the Barons take on the Ramstein Rams in what could be the most important game of the season. The Rams are coming in with a 3-0 record and a big rout over the Rhein Main Rockets Sunday. The Barons are currently 2-1 and looking better than ever. It promises to be a hard-hitting contest so come on out and support the Barons. Game time is 1 p.m. at Barons Stadium.

September 27, 1983

President Ronald Reagan

Dear Mr. President:

Winnie and I were privileged to represent you and the American people at the most impressive dedication of the "Monument du GI" in Clervaux, Luxembourg.

This community was in the heart of the Battle of the Bulge nearly 40 years ago, and the people who were liberated by American forces have never forgotten what our country has done for them. It took an organization of volunteers 26 years to raise the money for the commissioning of a handsome statue of a typical GI.

Ninety-four Veterans of American units which fought in this area made a pilgrimage to Luxembourg to participate in this memorable event. I was honored to read your personal message for this occasion and I write to tell you that it was extremely well received. It was also heart-warming to learn from the comments made how great is the admiration and support for you among the Americans who spoke to me after the ceremony.

We have many loyal friends here in Luxembourg, and the hundreds of former GI's who visit this country each year help to strengthen our good relations. I think you will be pleased to get another positive report from Europe and I am proud to send it to you.

Winnie joins me in sending you and Mrs. Reagan our warmest regards and good wishes,

Respectfully yours,

John E. Dolibois
Ambassador
