RE: Support for Kissinger Commission Report

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 19, 1984 (XXX303)

1/10/85

Dear Mr. Ortega:

Thank you for your message to the President regarding the report of the Kissinger Commission on Central America. The President believes that this report represents an invaluable contribution to our efforts to help our Central American neighbors reach their goals of democracy, reform and human freedom.

In his radio address to the Nation on January 14, the President discussed the findings of the Kissinger Commission and their relation to the goals of U.S. policy in the region, including the subject of human rights. In light of your interest, I am enclosing for you a transcript of the President's talk.

With best wishes from the President,

Sincerely,

Anne Higgins
Special Assistant to the President and Director of Correspondence

(1/17/84)
