Dear President and Mrs. Reagan,

Thank you for inviting Betty and I to the State Dinner honoring Prime Minister and Mrs. Chirac on March 31, 1987 at the White House.

The entire evening was very elegant and we were very flattered to be included. We enjoyed meeting both of you and the other guests, sharing a great dinner with you, and listening to the after dinner speeches. The entertainment was wonderful and the dancing most memorable.

We are honored to have been considered worthy of your invitation, and, that by being so honored, have brought a unique recognition to Auto Racing in the United States.

We admire both of you very much for all that you have given and contributed to our country. We pledge our support in any way possible.

Very sincerely,

Johnny Rutherford

Dear President and Mrs. Reagan:

It was a pleasure for Nancy and me to attend the White House dinner which you hosted honoring the Prime Minister of the French Republic and Mrs.
Chirac on Tuesday, March 31, 1987.

This was a splendid occasion, and it was indeed a privilege for us to be part of such a fine evening.

Thank you again for your kind hospitality, and with best personal regards, in which Nancy joins me,

Respectfully,

Thank-you for honoring me
with an invitation to the State Dinner for Mr. Chirac. I had a wonderful and unforgettable evening. Going to the White House has been a dream of mine since I was a little girl, and having this dream fulfilled during my most-admired President's administration makes it uncommonly special.

And Mrs. Reagan, I was so pleased to get to talk with you. If I can ever be of any help to you in the anti-drug campaign, please don't hesitate to call on me. Once again,

Thank-you,
Tracy Scoggins

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Reagan,

The only negative about the State Dinner in honor of Prime Minister of the French Republic and Mrs. Chirac is that it makes other times, other events very pale by comparison.

Everything about this delightful event last Tuesday--meeting you both and your distinguished Honorees and guests--was, for me, memorable.

Surely, The White House is the most exciting building in the world --and the two of you so enhance and add to its distinction.

Thank you for giving me such pleasure.

With warm regards,

Margaret McDermott

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

Thank you so much for inviting me to the party honoring Prime Minister and Madame Shirac. I had a wonderful time, meeting several interesting people and enjoying your superb hospitality. It was, indeed, a special evening for me--a privilege--an experience enjoyed by a precious fortunate few. It will never be forgotten.

I received the photographs sent as a memento of the evening. They were excellent reflections of the good time that everyone seemed to be having. They will have a special place among the few things that I value.

You and The President are in my prayers imploring that, with the help of God, the honesty, courage and goodness that you have always maintained in your public and private lives will persevere in the days ahead.

Sincerely,

Patrick Wayne

Dear President and Mrs. Reagan,

I would like to personally thank you for inviting Bush and myself to the State Dinner for the Prime Minister of France and Mrs. Chirac.

It was a great honor to be present at such a special White House occasion. As I said to you that night, I feel that sharing in the evening will definitely be one of the highlights of my life.

At dinner Vice-President Bush and I shared our feelings of how the White House defines for us this great nation and our principles of democracy. And I have come home to California to share these reflections with family and friends.

Thank you again for very special memories and the wonderful photographs.

Sincerely,

Connie Frank
