Dear Nicholas:

Letters from young friends are very special to me, and I was pleased to receive your thoughtful message about the value and dignity of human life.

I, too, am deeply saddened that so many babies are never given the chance to share the blessings of life that we too often take for granted. Life is a most precious gift; a gift we have received from God, as our nation's Founding Fathers fully recognized. Each of us must do all within our power to make sure that no one is unjustly deprived of that gift and that we place the protection of innocent human life among our highest priorities.

I am grateful for your commitment to this noble cause, and I am confident that with your help and support we will be able to provide to all future generations the blessings of life.

With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Dear Mr. President,

I am writing to you about the abortion law. I am totally against it.

When you became the president of the United States, I became very happy because I thought that you would stop this.

I am eleven years old, this year I will become twelve. My class and I have been talking about this law. We hope this will stop. Every year since the abortion law started I have been thinking. If my parents didn't want me, I wouldn't be living today. And to think that hundreds of babies are killed each day.

So I plead with you Mr. Reagan, please stop this ruthless law.

Yours truly,
Nicholas Leski
