REMARKS:

STATEMENT AFTER MEETING WITH AMBASSADOR PHILIP HABIB

20

Good afternoon ladies and gentlemen. I asked Phil Habib to come by today in order to discuss the next phase of U.S. diplomacy in Lebanon and the prospects for our Middle East initiative.

I want to begin by reaffirming our principal objectives in Lebanon. First, the removal of all foreign military forces from Lebanon. Second, the strengthening of the central government and the establishment of its authority throughout the country. Third, Lebanon must not again become a launching pad for terrorist attacks into Israel. Indeed, the security of all the states in the area can only be guaranteed through freely negotiated peace treaties between Israel and its neighbors. Finally, I call on all the parties in Lebanon to maintain the cease-fire so that diplomacy can succeed.

In the course of his briefing Phil told me that a peaceful resolution of the Beirut crisis would not have been possible without a multinational force that included U.S. forces. With the evacuation complete and the authorities asserting their control throughout Beirut, I am pleased to announce that the multinational force will commence its withdrawal from Beirut Friday, September 10 and the U.S. ~~M~~ Marine contingent should be among the first to leave. We are therefore keeping our commitment to have them out within thirty days.

In support of the next phase of our diplomacy, I also want to announce the formation of an Interagency Steering Group on Lebanon. This group, under the chairmanship of the Deputy Secretary of State, will coordinate the political, economic and security assistance dimensions of our policy. Peter McPherson, Director of A.I.D., will assume responsibility for reconstruction efforts, in addition to his role as my Personal Representative for Relief in Lebanon. Morris Draper, Phil's right-hand man in Lebanon, has been promoted to Ambassador. He will manage the political working group and shortly return to Lebanon to continue his work.

Once again, I want to extend my heartfelt congratulations to Phil Habib for his superhuman efforts throughout the past year and a half. Phil's successful diplomacy is one reason why we are now able to inject a "fresh start" into the peace process. Phil would like to make some remarks and I know many of you would like to ask him questions. So, I am going to leave Phil to you and return to work.

Thank you.
