THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 13, 1987

Dear Ms. Jackier and Rabbi Hertz,

On behalf of the President, let me thank you for sending him your petitions. He knows that he can count on your support and you can count on him to pursue the cause of Soviet Jewry just as vigorously during the next two years as he has for the past six.

Sincerely,

Max Green

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 23, 1986

Dear Ms. Jackier and Rabbi Hertz,

On behalf of the President, I want to commend you for all your efforts on behalf of Soviet Jewry. As you may know, the President saw Natan Scharansky for a second time on December 10, 1986. While I can not divulge the details of their discussion with you, I can report that the subject of their meeting was Soviet Jewry, and that the President reiterated his own personal commitment to this human rights cause. So, I believe you can rest assured that a Summit II on any other appropriate occasion, this President will press hard for their freedom.

Sincerely,

Max Green
Associate Director
Office of Public Liaison

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

The enclosed petitions were circulated in our community during the weeks following your historic meeting with Mikhail Gorbachev in Iceland.

Recognizing your commitment to human rights, we pray, that, together, we might see the mass emigration of Jews from the Soviet Union during your presidency.

Sincerely,

A PETITION TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We thank you and your Administration for your continued efforts to rescue the Jews in the Soviet Union—the world's third largest Jewish community.

As you plan your forthcoming meetings with General Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev, we urge you to continue to insist that human rights remains a key issue of East-West relations.

You can count on our support as you press for Jewish emigration and the protection of cultural and religious rights in the Soviet Union.

A PETITION TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We thank you and your Administration for your continued efforts to rescue the Jews in the Soviet Union—the world's third largest Jewish community.

As you plan your forthcoming meetings with General Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev, we urge you to continue to insist that human rights remains a key issue of East-West relations.

You can count on our support as you press for Jewish emigration and the protection of cultural and religious rights in the Soviet Union.

A PETITION TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

We thank you and your Administration for your continued efforts to rescue the Jews in the Soviet Union—the world's third largest Jewish community.

As you plan your forthcoming meetings with General Secretary Mikhail Gorbachev, we urge you to continue to insist that human rights remains a key issue of East-West relations.

You can count on our support as you press for Jewish emigration and the protection of cultural and religious rights in the Soviet Union.
