OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

September 20, 1984

The Honorable Faith Ryan Whittlesey
Assistant to the President for Public Liaison
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Ambassador Whittlesey:

Your presentation on March 22, 1984 with this Center's Fellows was a highlight of their year. They, in turn, nominated you to participate in the Center's 15th Annual Leadership Conference. This post-election Conference will convene at Marriott's Pavilion Hotel in St. Louis the weekend of December 7-9. It has as its theme: PRIORITIES AND STRATEGIES: 1985-89. We have invited the Vice President to deliver the Keynote Address following a reception and dinner, Friday evening December 7th, commencing at 6:30 p.m.

Ambassador Whittlesey, it is our hope that you will accompany the Vice President and yourself address the Conference at the Luncheon session the following day. Your participation will mean a great deal for the 1,000 business and professional leaders from throughout the United States, who will be with us on this occasion.

Herewith is a copy of last year's program. Last year's participants included Ed Meese, David Gergen, Boyden Gray and Michael Uhlmann, who would, I am sure, advise you of the worthiness of this endeavor. Also herein, a brochure succinctly describing this non-profit educational organization.

Hopefully, with your acceptance of this invitation, please send us your biographical sketch and photograph. It is my hope that you can favorably respond before October 11th when I have a meeting with the members of the Program and the Host Committees. The latter includes the Vice President's brother (William H.T. Bush), President of The Boatmen's Bank in St. Louis. Others on the Host Committee include Thornton Bradshaw, Chairman, RCA Corporation, William Andreas, Chairman, Archer Daniels Midland Company, and William H. Spoor, Chairman of The Pillsbury Company; also, Walter V. Shipley, Chairman, Chemical Bank, and John C. Whitehead, Senior Partner, Goldman Sachs & Company.

Very much we shall appreciate your acceptance to this invitation.

Sincerely yours,

R. Gordon

President Dwight D. Eisenhower

The programs and publications of the Center for the Study of the Presidency were inspired by the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower. He envisioned a center where "students, old and young," using the best tools of scholarship could study the Presidency; a center "characterized by accuracy, objectivity, and perspective."

CENTER FOR THE STUDY OF THE PRESIDENCY

Studying the Presidency to Promote Good Government and a Reaffirmation of the National Faith and Will

“We need educators like this Center’s . . . to promote the quality of our national life—and the quality of our politicians.”

President Gerald R. Ford

Out of the Eisenhower heritage grew the Center for the Study of the Presidency, the first institution devoted to the study of the Nation’s executive branch. The Center’s non-partisan, multi-disciplinary character leads to analysis of the highest office in the Nation through the studies of history, economics, philosophy, political science, journalism and rhetoric. The aim is not to study the Presidency only for the sake of government, but also for the quality of present and future leadership.

The principal elements of the Center’s programs are:

Annual Student Symposium

Founded in 1970, this program is held each spring in Washington, D.C. It provides over 500 outstanding undergraduate and graduate students from throughout the United States and abroad with the opportunity to examine and discuss Congress, the Courts, and the Presidency through interaction with high-level government leaders and prominent scholars.

Annual Leadership Conference

Also founded in 1970, this conference is held each Fall, most recently in Kansas City, Ottawa (Canada), Cincinnati, Minneapolis, and Denver. Each year more than 400 business, governmental, and professional leaders participate.

Center Fellows and Counsellors

Each year 30 of the most outstanding students from the Student Symposium are chosen to serve as Fellows and Counsellors. They serve as the Program Committee for the Student Symposium and engage in significant research and writing under the joint supervision of their college or university and the Center.

Harry J. Sievers Memorial Lecture Series

In association with Fordham University, this annual lecture series provides in-depth analysis of different topics related to the Presidency and policy issues. The lecturers range from leaders in business and industry to governmental officials providing a wide spectrum of perspectives on the Presidency and public policy.

Presidential Studies Quarterly

The Center’s principal publication, the award-winning Presidential Studies Quarterly, provides historical and analytical perspectives on a wide range of issues ranging from domestic and foreign policy to national leadership and Constitutional matters. This study is augmented by the volumes in the Proceedings series, which provides in-depth study of specific issues ranging from Organizing and Staffing the Presidency, to National Security Policy, to Information and the Media.

Additionally, the Center serves as a library and clearing house for information on the Presidency, participates in program planning and research for television and radio, and, on a non-partisan basis, serves in a counselling capacity for Congressional committees and other governmental and non-governmental agencies in the United States and abroad.
