The Julliard String Quartet will perform at the Official Dinner for Helmut Schmidt with selections from Beethoven, American composer Samuel Barber, and Mozart. Schmidt is a devotee of classical music, especially strings.

Shaker boxes will be given as favors at the Senate Wives Luncheon on Wednesday. Filling the hand-made replica of an ¹⁹18th century, American Shaker box is a blend of fragrances reminiscent of a special summer garden -- the Rose Garden of the White House. This ought to be a good example of White House attention to American creative arts.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAY 13, 1981

REMARKS OF THE FIRST LADY
AT
SENATE WIVES' LUNCHEON

The East Room

1:52 P.M. EDT

THE FIRST LADY: Ladies, I know this is not the way the program is supposed to go, but I know you all must have heard the news about the Pope. And I thought that perhaps before we start, that we might have a minute of prayer.

In view of what's happened, we had planned some entertainment for you, but I really think that under the circumstances we'll cancel that if you don't mind. I don't think anybody's attention would really be on it, so I apologize to you. But I'm sure you all agree. Now, we'll all have lunch.

* * * * *

THE FIRST LADY: Thank you very much. That's very nice and I'm sorry too I couldn't be with you that day, but I know you all understand and while I have you all together, I'd like to thank you for all the messages that I got from you, all the prayers which were very much appreciated. I'm still -- and I think with the Pope today, this just seems strange. I would like to welcome you all here and particularly I'd like to welcome Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Mondale here. So glad you could be with us. And as I said in the beginning, I was going to ask you now that we have the sunshine and everything, I was going to ask you to come and see our entertainment, but I do feel that out of respect for the Pope that we should dispense with that today. So, another time I hope we can get together under happier circumstances, but thank you very much for these things. I really appreciate it very much. Thank you. (Applause.)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAY 13, 1981

REMARKS OF THE FIRST LADY
AT
SENATE WIVES' LUNCHEON

The East Room

1:52 P.M. EDT

THE FIRST LADY: Ladies, I know this is not the way the program is supposed to go, but I know you all must have heard the news about the Pope. And I thought that perhaps before we start, that we might have a minute of prayer.

In view of what's happened, we had planned some entertainment for you, but I really think that under the circumstances we'll cancel that if you don't mind. I don't think anybody's attention would really be on it, so I apologize to you. But I'm sure you all agree. Now, we'll all have lunch.

* * * * *

THE FIRST LADY: Thank you very much. That's very nice and I'm sorry too I couldn't be with you that day, but I know you all understand and while I have you all together, I'd like to thank you for all the messages that I got from you, all the prayers which were very much appreciated. I'm still -- and I think with the Pope today, this just seems strange. I would like to welcome you all here and particularly I'd like to welcome Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Mondale here. So glad you could be with us. And as I said in the beginning, I was going to ask you now that we have the sunshine and everything, I was going to ask you to come and see our entertainment, but I do feel that out of respect for the Pope that we should dispense with that today. So, another time I hope we can get together under happier circumstances, but thank you very much for these things. I really appreciate it very much. Thank you. (Applause.)

"OVERNIGHT" IS DEFINED AS NEXT BUSINESS DAY
(MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY). SEE SPECIAL
HANDLING FOR SATURDAY DELIVERY.

1. In tendering the shipment for carriage the shipper agrees to these TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF CONTRACT which no agent or employee of the parties may alter and that this Federal Express Airbill is NON-NEGOTIABLE and has been prepared by him or on his behalf by Federal Express.

2. The shipper agrees that carriage is subject to terms and conditions of contract stated herein and those terms and conditions which are also stated in the most recent Federal Express Service Guide, which is available for inspection and incorporated into this contract by reference.

3. In tendering the shipment for carriage, THE SHIPPER WARRANTS that the shipment is packaged adequately to protect the enclosed goods and to insure safe transportation with ordinary care and handling, and that each package is appropriately labeled and is in good order (except as noted) for carriage as specified.

4. When the destination of the shipment is not within the Federal Express air terminal zone as listed in the most recent Federal Express Service Guide, Federal Express makes no commitment with respect to time of delivery of the shipment.

5. In the event of international carriage of any shipment hereunder, the rules relating to liability established by the Convention for the Unification of Certain Rules Relating to International Carriage by Air signed at Warsaw, Poland on October 12, 1929 shall apply to the carriage insofar as the same is governed thereby.

6. Federal Transportation Excise Tax. Pursuant to Section 4271 of the Internal Revenue Code, a 5% tax on air transportation portion of the service and the accessorial services related thereto is included within the basic rate.

7. DECLARED VALUE AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY. THE LIABILITY OF FEDERAL EXPRESS IS LIMITED TO THE SUM OF $100.00 unless a higher value is declared for carriage herein and a greater charge paid at the rate of 30¢ per $100.00 value. In the case of P-1 service the maximum higher declared value is $5000.00. In the case of Courier Pak, or Standard Air Service, the maximum higher declared value is $2,000.00. Shipments containing items of extraordinary value, including, but not limited to, drawings, paintings, sculptures, porcelain, ceramics, furs, jewelry, fur trimmed clothing, watches, gems, stones, money, bullion, currency, coins, trading stamps, or other extraordinary valuable items, are limited to a maximum declared value of $500.00. In the case of P-1 service when multiple shipments are placed on a single airbill but the shipper has not specified the declared value of each individual shipment, the declared value for each individual shipment will be determined by dividing the total declared value on the airbill by the number of shipments indicated on the airbill, subject to a $100.00 minimum declared value per individual shipment. In the case of Standard Air Service, when the shipment consists of two or more pieces, the declared value for each piece will be determined by dividing the declared value on the airbill by the number of pieces in the shipment. The liability of Federal Express is limited to the declared value of the shipment or the amount of loss or damage actually sustained, whichever is lower.

Federal Express is not liable for loss, damage, delay, mis-delivery or non-delivery not caused by its own negligence or any loss, damage, delay, mis-delivery or non-delivery caused by the act, default or omission of the shipper, consignee, or any other party who claims interest in the shipment, the nature of the shipment or any defect, characteristic or inherent vice thereof, violation by the shipper or consignee of any of the conditions of contract contained in this airbill or in the Federal Express

Service Guide, including, but not limited to, improper or insufficient packing, securing, marking or addressing, or failure to observe any of the rules relating to shipments not acceptable for transportation or shipments acceptable only under certain conditions; acts of God, perils of the air, public enemies, public authorities acting with actual or apparent authority, authority of law, acts or omissions of customs or quarantine officials, riots, strikes or other local disputes, civil commotions, hazards incident to a state of war, weather conditions or mechanical delay of the aircraft or acts or omissions of any person other than FEC, including compliance with delivery instructions from the shipper or consignee. FEC shall not be liable for the loss of articles loaded and sealed in packages by the shipper provided the seal is unbroken at the time of delivery and the package retains its basic integrity. FEDERAL EXPRESS SHALL NOT BE LIABLE IN ANY EVENT FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO LOSS OF PROFITS OR INCOME WHETHER OR NOT FEDERAL EXPRESS HAD KNOWLEDGE THAT SUCH DAMAGES MIGHT BE INCURRED.

8. CLAIMS. WRITTEN NOTICE OF LOSS DUE TO DAMAGE, SHORTAGE OR DELAY MUST BE REPORTED BY THE SHIPPER WITHIN 15 DAYS AFTER THE DELIVERY OF THE SHIPMENT. WRITTEN NOTICE OF LOSS DUE TO NON-DELIVERY MUST BE REPORTED BY THE SHIPPER WITHIN 90 DAYS AFTER ACCEPTANCE OF THE SHIPMENT OR CARRIAGE. Written notification will be considered to have been made if the shipper calls and notifies the Customer Services Department at 800/238-5355 (In Tennessee 800/542-5171) and as soon as practicable thereafter files a written notification. Documentation of all claims other than overcharge claims must be submitted in writing to FEC within ninety (90) days after receipt of written notification. No claim for damage will be entertained until all transportation charges have been paid. The amount of a claim may not be deducted from the transportation charges. Receipt of the shipment by the consignee without written notification of damage on the delivery receipt shall be prima facie evidence that the shipment was delivered in good condition, except that in the case of claims for concealed damage which is not discovered at the time of delivery, the shipper shall notify FEC in writing as promptly as possible after the discovery thereof and in any event not later than 15 days from the date of delivery. The shipper must make the original shipping cartons and packing available for inspection by FEC. Claims for overcharges and refunds must be made in writing to FEC within twelve (12) months of the billing date. All claims must be filed by the shipper.

9. All shipments are subject to inspection by FEC, including but not limited to, opening the shipment. However, FEC is not obligated to perform such inspection.

10. C.O.D. services are not available, and a C.O.D. shipment sent in error will be delivered as a normal pre-paid or collect shipment.

11. Federal Express carries no cargo liability insurance but maintains a separate fund for the satisfaction of cargo claims which may arise out of the carriage of cargo pursuant to the conditions of contract contained herein and in the most recent Federal Express Service Guide.

12. Notwithstanding the shipper's instructions to the contrary, the shipper shall be primarily liable for all costs and expenses related to the shipment of the package, and for costs incurred in either returning the shipment to the shipper or warehousing the shipment pending disposition.
