

Ronald Reagan Presidential Library

Digital Library Collections

This is a PDF of a folder from our textual collections.

WHORM Subject File Code: ND018

(National Security – Defense: Weapons-Ordinances-Munitions)

Case file Number(s): 164140 (1 of 2)

Box: 14

To see more digitized collections visit:

<https://www.reaganlibrary.gov/archives/digitized-textual-material>

To see all Ronald Reagan Presidential Library inventories visit:

<https://www.reaganlibrary.gov/archives/white-house-inventories>

Contact a reference archivist at: reagan.library@nara.gov

Citation Guidelines: <https://reaganlibrary.gov/archives/research-support/citation-guide>

National Archives Catalogue: <https://catalog.archives.gov/>

Last Updated: 09/24/2024

164140

4200

4800

4400

4900

4610

4100

4500

1161

ND018

LE

MC003

FO006-03

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Stan:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

A

Mr. Stanford M. Adelstein
President
Northwestern Engineering Company
Post Office Box 2320
Rapid City, South Dakota 57709

830815

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Adler:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

13 REAGAN

Mr. Kenneth Adler
Chairman
Appliance Parts Distributors, Inc.
228 East Baltimore Street
Detroit, Michigan 48202

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Alexander:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

Mr. Norman E. Alexander
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Sun Chemical Corporation
200 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10166

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Bob:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

The Honorable Robert Anderson
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Rockwell International Corporation
600 Grant Street
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Ms. Barr:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Ms. Noreen Barr
Legislative Director
Eagle Forum
Suite 203
316 Pennsylvania Avenue, SE
Washington, DC 20003

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Berenzweig:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

DONALD REAGAN

Mr. Stanley Berenzweig
452 Meer Avenue
Wyckoff, New Jersey 07481

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Doctor Beyster:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Doctor John Robert Beyster
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Science Applications, Incorporated
1200 Prospect
La Jolla, California 92037

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Ms. Binstock:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD

Ms. Dorothy Binstock
President
B'nai B'rith Women
1640 Rhode Island Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20036

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mrs. Blumberg:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD RE

Mrs. Diane Blumberg
7105 Broxburn Drive
Bethesda, Maryland 20034

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Blumberg:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Marvin Blumberg
7105 Broxburn Drive
Bethesda, Maryland 20034

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Bowers:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

Mr. Jack Bowers
Chairman and Chief Executive
Sanders Associates, Incorporated
Daniel Webster Highway South
Nashua, New Hampshire 03061

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Brewer:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RGW

Mr. Gerald Brewer
President
National Cotton Council of America
Post Office Box 1832
Fresno, California 93717

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Bricker:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

Mr. William H. Bricker
Chairman, President, & CEO
Diamond Shamrock Corp.
717 N. Harwood St.
Dallas, Texas 75201

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Bronfman:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

Mr. Edgar M. Bronfman
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Joseph E. Seagram & Sons, Inc.
375 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10152

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Brook:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Douglas Brook
Vice President, Government
Relations
Libby-Owens-Ford Company
900 17th Street, NW
Suite 516
Washington, DC 20005

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Harold:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

The Honorable Harold Brown
Johns Hopkins University
Room 603
1740 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20036

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Bryen:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. William Bryen
30 East Riding Drive
Cherry Hill, New Jersey 07003

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Campbell:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

ROI

Mr. Lee Campbell
President
Poultry and Egg Institute of America
Suite 801
1815 North Lynn Street
Arlington, Virginia 22209

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Henry:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Henry C. Cashen III
Dickstein, Shapiro & Morin
2101 L Street, NW
Washington, DC 20037

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Jim:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. James R. Currieo
Post Office Box H
Fort Huachuca, Arizona 85613

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Datt:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

Mr. John Datt
Secretary and Director
American Farm Bureau Federation
Suite 800
600 Maryland Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20024

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Davis:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD R. REAGAN

Mr. Donald W. Davis
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Stanley Works
195 Lake Street
New Britain, Connecticut 06050

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. DeBaca:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Fernando DeBaca
Chairman
Latin American Manufacturers
Association
325 Pennsylvania Avenue, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. De-Bruyne:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Dirk De-Bruyne
Chairman
Shell Oil Company
One Shell Plaza
Houston, Texas 77001

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Virgil:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Virgil Dechant
Supreme Knight
Knights of Columbus
1 Columbus Plaza
New Haven, Connecticut 06507

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Len:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

Doctor Leonard Defiore
Archdiocesan Pastoral Center
Post Office Box 29260
Washington, DC 20017

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Dickens:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

Mr. Sam Dickens
New World Dynamics
499 South Capitol Street, S.E.
Washington, DC 20003

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Dixon:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RECEIVED

Mr. John W. Dixon
Chairman and Chief Executive
Executive Officer
E Systems, Incorporated
Post Office Box 226030
Dallas, Texas 75266

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Edwin:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Edwin D. Dodd
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Owens-Illinois, Incorporated
Post Office Box 1035
Toledo, Ohio 43666

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Terry:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. John T. Dolan
Chairman
National Conservative Political Action Committee
Suite 513
1500 Wilson Boulevard
Arlington, Virginia 22209

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Dougherty:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Russell E. Dougherty
Executive Director
Air Force Association
Suite 400
1750 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20006

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Jim:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

NOVA D RI

Mr. James H. Evans
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Union Pacific Corporation
345 Park Avenue
New York, New York 10154

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Fierst:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Herbert A. Fierst
Chairman of the Board
JINSA
Suite 610
1200 18th Street, N.W.
Washington, DC 20036

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Figgie:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Harry E. Figgie, Jr.
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Figgie International, Incorporated
4420 Sherwin Road
Willoughby, Ohio 44094

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Frohling:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Edward Frohling
President
Mountain States Mineral Enterprise
Post Office Box 17960
Tucson, Arizona 85731

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Bob:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD A.

Mr. Robert W. Galvin
Chairman of the Board and
Chief Executive Officer
Motorola, Incorporated
1303 East Algonquin Road
Schaumburg, Illinois 60196

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Goldman:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Robert Goldman
Federation of Jewish Philanthropies
130 East 59th Street
New York, New York 10022

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Heckel:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Jack L. Heckel
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Aerojet General Corporation
10300 North Torrey Cines Road
La Jolla, California 92037

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Dick:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

The Honorable Richard M. Helms
1627 K Street, NW
Washington, DC 20006

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Henske:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. John M. Henske
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Olin Corporation
120 Long Ridge
Stamford, Connecticut 06904

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Hollenbach:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Robert C. Hollenbach
Vice President for Government Affairs
National Crushed Stone Association
1415 Elliot Place, NW
Washington, DC 20007

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Cooper:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. Cooper Holt
Executive Director
Veterans of Foreign Wars
of the U.S.
200 Maryland Avenue, NE
Washington, DC 20002

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mr. Hoopman:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

Mr. H. D. Hoopman
President and Chief
Executive Officer
Marathon Oil Company
539 South Main Street
Findlay, Ohio 45840

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Mrs. Horst:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

WALD REAGAN

Mrs. Deena Horst
President
The United States Jayceettes
920 South 9th Street
Salina, Kansas 67403

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Woody:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

ONAL

The Honorable Louis Woody Jenkins
Executive Director
Council for National Policy
732 North Boulevard
Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70802

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Wilson:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RECEIVED RE

Mr. Wilson S. Johnson
Chairman
National Federation of Independent Business
150 West 20th Avenue
San Mateo, California 94403

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Colonel Jones:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

RONALD RE

Colonel Phelps Jones
Director of National Security and
Foreign Affairs
Veterans of Foreign Wars
of the United States
200 Maryland Avenue, NE
Washington, DC 20002

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

August 12, 1983

Dear Tom:

It is good news for all Americans that the Congress has again demonstrated bipartisan unity in pursuit of two vital national goals -- strategic modernization and arms control. Their recent authorization of production of the MX Peacekeeper missile reaffirms our nation's united approach to the protection of peace.

During our gathering in May, I stressed the importance of these two goals and I asked for your support. Thanks to your help, we are now in a stronger position to build on the progress we have already made at the START negotiations. But we're not home free yet. Maintaining bipartisan unity will require our best efforts, and you can still play an important role in this effort.

In September, Congress will again take up the Peacekeeper program. We look to the Congress to send an important message to the Soviets by passing the appropriation bill to fund the Peacekeeper missile.

The challenge remains before us. I for my part will continue to consult and work closely with members of the Congress on both sides of the aisle. I hope I can count on your continued help in keeping our national consensus, which is necessary both for peace and national security.

Sincerely,

DONALD R. G.

Mr. Thomas Victor Jones
Chairman and Chief
Executive Officer
Northrop Corporation
1800 Century Park, East
Los Angeles, California 90067