Dear Congressman Akaka:

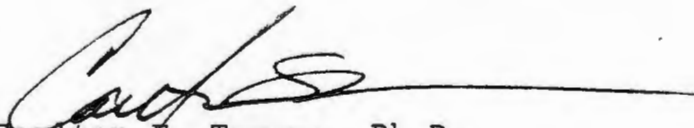

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.

We would be delighted if you could join us for this event. The reception will be held in Room 342 Dirksen Senate Office Building on Thursday, February 9, 1984 from 5:30 - 7:00pm.

Dear Congressman and Mrs. Lagomarsino:

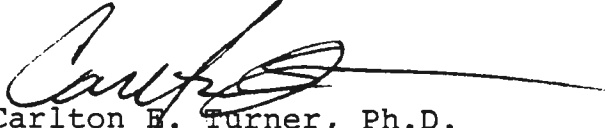

On behalf of the Congressional Families for Drug Free Youth, DC Comics, IBM, the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free Youth, and this office I would like to invite you to a Congressional reception to announce the 5th Grade Teen Titans drug awareness comic book.

This is the third in our series of drug awareness comic books designed to communicate, in an effective way, the dangers of drug abuse to elementary school children. DC Comics has donated the time and talent in developing the story line and printing costs have been absorbed by the private sector. The previous two comic books were designed for the 4th and 6th grades and sponsored by the Keebler Company and the National Soft Drink Association, respectively. The 5th grade book has been sponsored by IBM through the National Federation of Parents for Drug Free youth.
